Ava, Frankie Report Tiff

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A career problem has upset the Frank Sinatra-Ava Gardner marriage, but it isn't serious, the crooner reported last night.
"We have a career problem," Sinatra declared. "But I think everything will work out all right. I'm going to see my wife in about 10 days in Hollywood."
Sinatra said his wife's plan to make a movie in Africa hadn't brought on a disagreement, adding:
"she can go to Korea if she wants, I never interfere with her career."
He said they had had some disagreements but nothing serious. Sinatra is singing at a night club here.

No Delay For Ike's Train

ABOARD EISENHOWER TRAIN
Gen. Eisenhower told a crowd at Wenatchee, apple growing center of Washington State, yesterday:
"I want you to know my special train didn't hold up apple shipments for two days."
The general, speaking to 10,000 at Wenatchee, was referring to reports that President Truman's train last week had delayed apple shipments. The shipments were held up because of security arrangements.

Chaplin Foresaw Trouble In Leaving U S

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Hollywood and Grapevine: Hollywood biggies who attended that farewell party for Charlie Chaplin vow that he smelled trouble ahead in leaving the U.S. Chaplin addressed the gathering on his lack of patriotism for this or any other country and added:
"Home is where I hang my hat. But I must say that this time I am overcome with sadness at leaving the place where I have hung my hat for so long."
Strikes us that Chaplin hung himself instead of his hat this time.

Although MGM is suing Mario Lanza for wrecking "The Student Prince"—which has been shelved—his contract has not been dissolved. Mario can still report to the studio and demand work plus pay. Meanwhile, the world's leaked out that it was Betty Lanza's doctors who ordered Mario to leave the house. At any rate, Mrs. Lanza went through a medical crisis that was kept secret from even the closest friends of the couple.

Highlights At KUHS

By HAROLD McKAY
Miss Amelia Damont, French club advisor, has some rather unusual ideas to raise money for the French Club. Among other things, the club is planning to have a cookie sale in the main hall tomorrow if possible.
Also the Frenchies are planning to take orders for homemade cakes from the faculty members. The members will take orders for the cakes and their mothers will be pressed into service to bake the cakes.

The El Rodeo is going ahead at high speed. The junior and seniors are receiving slips to go to the photographers to have their portraits taken for their sections. In the sports section, all the football pictures have been taken.

Starting next week the Klamath Sports Album will go on the air every Tuesday night at 8:30. The program will not be aired this week due mostly to several changes in the programming at KFJL. Everything in the program will be the same as it always has, the only change is the time.

Last week the Sports Album staff got their first reply from their out-of-town listener who had his name mentioned over the air. For the information of those who don't listen to the program, on every broadcast an out of town listener's name and address is mentioned over the air and if the listener hears his name over the air he writes a letter to the high school saying he heard his name over the air and he gets either two tickets to any Klamath Pelican sporting event, or the cash equivalent.

Remember: starting next Tuesday, October 14, the Klamath Sport Album will take to the air waves at 8:30.

BLAST KILLS FIVE
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Five persons were reported killed and 12 seriously injured yesterday in an explosion at the government munitions plant on the outskirts of the capital.

—goes the Number One spot in Motion Picture Herald's 12th annual Stars of Tomorrow poll of America's motion picture theater owners. Debbie Reynolds, Marjorie and Gower Champion and Milt Gaylor were runners-up.

Two temporary bachelors were exchanging their woes at Bob DeLions. "My wife is spending the season in Las Vegas," one said. "With me," said the other, "it's slightly different. My wife is spending in Las Vegas this season."
It's eyebrow-lifting, but newlyweds Michael Widling and Lin Taylor are scrapping like old married folks, in public yet.

Ginger Rogers insisted on changing the ending of her new Paramount starrer, "Forever Female," from a tragic to an everyday-boy-come-home. And the inno around the studio is that Ginger is cheating herself out of an Oscar nomination by the switch. It's the story of an aging stage actress who insists on playing girlish roles and finally has to step aside for a younger emote.

Pat Wymore's father is planning a luxury western motel not far from Flynn's Inn (Errol's project) at booming Apple Valley. More proof that the Flynn-Wymore marriage is solid.
It was a wrangle with her relatives that made ailing Hattie McDaniel decide to enter the Motion Picture Country Home.

Betty Hutton's recovery, following two throat operations, is by no means permanent. Doctors have told her she'll need periodic surgery.

For a fellow who visited the studio only twice during the four years he owned it, Howard Hughes did all right. His RKO profit, after selling out to a syndicate headed by Ralph Stokun, was $2 million. And he still owns Jane Russell's contract.

LES DAMON
Fresh from sleuthing roles in several other radio programs, radio actor Les Damon now steps into the fast-moving shoes of Inspector Mark Saber, as the popular adventure series, "Mystery Theater," returns to KFLW and ABC Radio Network every Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. There is no crime too complex to baffle Inspector Saber's brilliant, college-trained mind. He thrives on a challenge, and meets it with a "saber" sharp mentality. His calm, deliberate detecting neatly offsets the rough-and-ready techniques of his right-hand man, Sgt. Tim Maloney. Hear it tomorrow night at 7:30.
Marvin Miller will be actor-narrator in "Second String," tonight on the "Armchair Adventure" show at 9:45 p.m. The story, which is edited and directed by Ralph Rose and Gomer Coll, tells of a football hero who didn't play in the big game. This is a CBS presentation.
Luigi's friends convince him that every good American has a refrigerator in the kitchen but when Luigi follows their advice and purchases the modern appliance, he finds that he is terribly unhappy about the absence of his friend, the ice man, on CBS Radio's "Life with Luigi" who will be heard at 7:30 p.m. this evening.
Currently in its twentieth consecutive year on the air, ABC's "Breakfast Club" features Don McNeill, who has served as the toastmaster on the program since its beginning... quite a record! Lending entertaining support with their wit, songs, and interviews are singers Johnny Desmond and Peggy Taylor, chief heckler Sam Cowling and, of course, Fran (Aunt Fanny) Allison. "Breakfast Club" originates from ABC in Chicago and is heard over this local station each weekday morn at 8:00 a.m.
Yep, that voice you hear at 2:45 p.m. and again at 3:15 p.m. belongs to none other than that man with a chuckle and a grin, Arthur Godfrey... a new addition to our afternoon weekday lineup! These two new quarter hour shows are coming in from our CBS network. The well-known Godfrey started out in radio as a singer... but by his own admission he found that he was better at "talking" than at "singing"... so began one of radio's outstanding careers.
Don't forget... it's "Build the Basin" tonight from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m.
