

CITY BRIEFS

In Hospital—Dr. L. V. Howford is in Hillside Hospital undergoing a physical checkup. He entered the hospital Oct. 7.

Library Club—Second meeting of the year, Oct. 13, 2 p.m. in the City Library Club rooms. This will be "Homecoming Day" for all past Klamath Falls Library Club presidents, ex-librarians and all who have worked in the interest of the City Library in any capacity. All interested women cordially invited to attend.

Rummage Sale—Chapter CP of P.E.O. announced its annual rummage sale to be held Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 15 and 16, 815 Pine Street.

Fairview PTA—Find it at the Fairview PTA rummage sale, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11, 9 a.m. at Andersons Auto Service, 632 Walnut. Good winter clothing, children's clothing, household articles, antique items and miscellaneous.

Returned—Mr. and Mrs. F. John West have returned from Portland where they were called by the death of Mrs. West's father.

Regular Meeting—Ewauna Encampment 46, IOOF and Auxiliary, holds its regular meeting Friday, 8 p.m., at Bonanza.

Vacationing—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and son Nolan, 312 N. 11th Street, who left Klamath Falls a month ago on vacation, have decided to spend the winter in Southern California and Mexico.

Rummage Sale—There will be a big rummage sale, sponsored by Chapter U of P.E.O., Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11. The place is 815 Pine Street, formerly Walt's Tasty Foods. This is next door to Lowell's Lockers and just across the street from Emil's Parking lot. Come early to get the best bargains.

Honored—Gerry Igl, a member of Klamath Union High School a cappella choir for three years, has been chosen, by audition, to be a member of the select group "University Singers" at the University.

Heilbronner Gives Talk

John Heilbronner last night fulfilled his quest for a merit badge in public speaking when he appeared before the Modoc Toastmasters Club at the Willard Hotel. Title of his talk was "Be Prepared," and it was well received. Walter Dalos handled table topics during the regular meeting, with topics of a political nature. Al Halvorsen was toastmaster. Bob Knoll was general critic and grammarian was Bob Hopson. Norm Wilson was timer. Dick Gallagher was named best speaker, and Frank Jakubowski was named speaker showing the best improvement.

Spud Tickets Go On Sale

MERRILL — Tickets are now available for the Potato Festival banquet, and may be purchased at the Ben Franklin store, Hodges Brothers Grocery, Merrill Clothing, and the Merrill Pharmacy. Those wishing to reserve tickets by phone are asked to call Mrs. Paul Lewis, phone 2358; or the festival secretary, Mrs. Howard Dewey, phone 2821 mornings or 2841 afternoons. 350 tickets are available, and reservations should be made early, as the banquet is a sell-out each year.

Governor Douglas McKay will be the speaker, and will crown Queen Martha Beasley. The Schultz sisters of Tulelake will furnish the musical entertainment. The banquet starts promptly at 6:30 p.m. in the Merrill grade school gym, and will be served, as usual, by the ladies of the Presbyterian church.

Extension Unit Slates Meeting

MERRILL—The Home Extension Unit will meet Friday, Oct. 10, at 1:30 p.m. in the recreation hall. "Poise and Charm Can Be Yours," is the subject to be discussed by Delores Bracken. All interested ladies are welcome to attend.

Man Arrested As Fugitive

Howard B. Huntley, 40, was arrested here yesterday on a warrant charging him with being a fugitive from justice. He was picked up by Deputy Sheriff Dick Pinnell and lodged in the County Jail. Huntley has waived extradition to go to Walla Walla, Wash., where he is wanted on a charge of grand larceny.

Ruggles Rites Due Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Stan (Lucille) Ruggles are to be conducted tomorrow, 2 p.m., from the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Ruggles was killed Sunday night when she fell from the family car near Colville, Calif. Friends are asked to contribute to the Shrine Crippled Childrens Hospital in lieu of flowers.

Weather Good For Farmers

The farm weather report, as received in the Oregon Weekly Crop and Weather Summary here, shows continued warm and dry weather is forecast for Eastern Oregon through the rest of this week. The report reads: Weather outlook for Eastern Oregon to week ending Oct. 12, continued warm and dry, no rain through Sunday. Maximum temperatures averaging from 67 to 78 degrees, and the near normal lows from 35 to 45 degrees. Potato harvest is now in full swing, and weather conditions are of special interest to farmers.
