LADIES AID

Bouquets of fall flowers decorated the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church of Merrill when the Ladies Aid Society met September 17.

The devotions were led by Mrs. George Milne after which the business session began. Further plans were discussed for the coming bazaar, which will be held November 7.

The major business of the day was planning for the Potato Festival Banquet. Mrs. Warren Conner and Mrs. George Milne were named as co-chairmen for the affair. They appointed committees to work on each phase of the banquet, from table settings to turkeys.

The menu was also planned and the price for tickets was set at $2.25.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments of lemon pie and coffee were served by hostesses, Mrs. Verna Haskins, Mrs. Myron Haskins and Mrs. Wilbur Haskins to: Mrs. Frank Hummel, Mrs. Warren Conner, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, Mrs. George Milne, Mrs. Ned Mitchell, Mrs. Pete McNeill, Mrs. Wendell Moore, Mrs. R. A. Smith, Mrs. John D. Moore, Mrs. Lester Moore, Mrs. Miles Moore, Mrs. Effie Gilman, Mrs. Della Hodges, Mrs.

AUTUMN COLORS FOR FALL WEDDING—Emily Ethel Elzner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elzner, Malin, planned her wedding decorations in keeping with the Fall theme, using mixed bronze chrysanthemums at the altar and a sprinkling of yellow in the attendants' bouquets and headpieces. Her marriage to Wayne H. Loerke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Loerke, West Bend, Iowa, was solemnized in Zion Lutheran church, October 5, when the Reverend Richard Graef read the 4 p.m. service.

LOERKE-ELZNER VOWS SAID IN ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH

Zion Lutheran Church was the setting for a beautiful fall wedding when Emily Ethel Elzner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elzner, Malin, became the bride of Wayne H. Loerke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Loerke, West Bend, Iowa.

The Reverend Richard Graef read the 4 p.m. October 5, ceremony in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives.

Beauty vases of mixed bronze chrysanthemums flanked either side of the altar, highlighted with lighted tapers in floor candelabra.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Graef, who also accompanied Ruby Gehring, soloist, when she sang "I Love Thee" as guests assembled, and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

The charming bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of slipper white satin with bouffant skirt, scalloped collar, with seed pearls bordering the marquise yoke; a long full train, and her fingertip veil of illusion net was held with a pearl crown. Her crescent shaped bouquet of white pompon chrysanthemums was centered with a cluster of brown orchids.

Matron of honor, was Mrs. Ival Taylor, sister of the bride. She wore a brown taffeta gown with a scalloped neckline, matching mitts. Her bouquet was similar to the bride's made entirely of bronze pompon chrysanthemums. Her headband was fashioned of the same flowers. Bridesmaids were Donna Tenoski and Mrs. Leonard Woltemeier, San Francisco, formerly of Malin. They were dressed exactly as the matron of honor, except that their dresses were of gold taffeta. Their headpieces and bouquets were similar to Mrs. Taylor's.

Little 5 year old Carolyn DuBois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert DuBois, was flower girl. Her gold taffeta frock was patterned after the other attendants. She wore yellow pompon chrysanthemums in her hair, and carried a basket arrangement of bronze and yellow pompon chrysanthemums.

Jack Rockwell, was best man; and ushers were Irwin Beck and Frank W. Elzner, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Elzner wore a fox-mist gray suit, to her daughter's wedding, with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The reception was immediately after the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. William Owens poured. Mrs. Irwin Beck cut the cake and Mrs. Rob Roy Ramsey, aunt of the bride from Richmond, California was at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ed McGulley passed the guest book and Mrs. C. S. Davis assisted in serving.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Rob Roy Ramsey, Richmond; Mrs. Mita Gaudin, Burlingame; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tornough, Corvallis; and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Woltemeier, San Francisco.
