DELTA KAPPA GAMMA MEETS

October meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for teachers, was held at the home of Mrs. Geraldine Owsley, 224 North Second Street, Saturday, October 4.

Assisting Mrs. Owsley as hostesses were, Irma Wauchope, Ruth Oberholser and Irene Ollmann for the 1 o'clock dessert.

Secretary Helen Hoffman gave a report of the sorority's activities, and called the roll of members present. Dorothy Bailee reported on the finances of the group.

An announcement was made urging members to attend the "Freedom Forum" to be held at Fremont school, October 6, at 8 in the evening, sponsored by Eulalia of the Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Leopold Rumer and Dea Jean Wright, co-chairmen of the rummage sale, suggested that all articles to be sold be brought in as soon as possible, to be pressed etc., and that the sale will be held at 16 South Eleventh Street, Saturday, October 11.

Bulah Elliott, program chairman introduced the guest speaker, Helen McDonald, who spoke to the Delta Kappa Gamma members on the Philippines.

Miss McDonald, who is in charge of religious education at the local Presbyterian church, was born and lived 18 years in the islands. The speaker told of the long fight for independence of the Philippines, and of their great need of schools, teachers, libraries, hospitals, and medical facilities. The Japanese invasion of the islands in 1941 set the country back hundreds of years, as schools were closed, roads destroyed and the 2000 islands comprising the Philippine group suffered in many ways from the invaders.

Miss McDonald and her family were among some 40 missionaries interned at Manila, by the Japanese, for two years. They endured many privations, due to food shortages and their daily rations were cut from 900 calories to 400 toward the end of their imprisonment.

In closing, the speaker stressed the importance of the Philippines as the last stronghold of democracy in the Orient, and unfortunately help has been diverted from them to Korea.

DELPHIANS

Bonanza Patrons Welcome Teachers

BONANZA—Bonanza Parents and Patrons club gave a "Welcome" party at the auditorium on September 29 for the teachers.

In the absence of president Faye Weimer and vice president Billie Colwell the party was under the direction of Janet Ferlund and program chairman Nancy Schmot. The men present made hats and the ladies modeled them. Dick Sohn won the prize for the best hat, and it was modeled by Lola Horn.

A cute skit and song was put on by Janet Ferlund and Nancy Schmot, followed by get-acquainted games. Supper partners were chosen by matching up slips of paper; bread went with butter, sugar with cream, and so forth.

The teachers for this year were introduced with Charles Steber the new principal. Other high school teachers are Irwin Schoonover, coach; Rudy Malpert, Mrs. Dick Sohn, Ann Dalton, Charles Dalton, Dick Sohn, Joan O'Han and Charles Doherty. Band leader, Lola Horn is the first grade teacher; Olive Fraley, second grade; Elizabeth McQuisten, third; Lenore Sparks, fifth; Sarah Ross, fourth; and Bob Schmor, sixth.

Refreshments were served at the close of a pleasant evening by the committee, Cora Leavitt, Margaret Burnett, Carolyn Dearborn, Gertrude Graves and Grace Dearborn.

MARILEE CRAWFORD BRIDE OF DALE NEAL SCHEER IN PEACE MEMORIAL CHURCH

Popular bride-elect Marilee Crawford was honored with a series of pre-nuptial parties, before her marriage in Peace Memorial Church to Dale Neal Scheer, which was an event on the autumn social calendar.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Crawford, well-known Basin ranchers, 4690 Boardman Avenue; and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Scheer, Jennings Lodge, Oregon.

Vows were said in a double-ring ceremony before a large group of invited friends and relatives. The Reverend Dwayne L. Proett was officiating minister at the 8 p.m. service, September 13.

Shades of green, gold, yellow, rust and white were used in the color scheme. The bride was escorted by her father to an altar decorated with large arrangements of white gladioli and pompon chrysanthemums. She was lovely in a gown of white slipper satin, with long sleeves pointed at the wrists, fitted bodice with a high double peter pan collar, and a full skirt ending in a short train. A tiara of seed pearls held the fingertip veil of illusion net, edged with Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of tallman roses surrounded with stephanotis and shattered yellow carnations.

Her bridal veil was borrowed; she wore the traditional blue sarter; and her necklace was an heirloom lovalier, which had belonged to her grandmother Crawford.

Lola Ann Gaitther, college roommate at Lewis and Clark was maid of honor. Her ankle length frock was of rust taffeta, with corsage and headpiece of chrysanthemums in fall colors. The low square neckline of her dress with the full gathered skirt and short sleeves repeated in the bridesmaid's attire.

They were: Ruth Patterson, a schoolmate through grade and high school, in burnt gold taffeta; Shirley Jean Crawford, sister of the bride, wore dark green; and Bon-dell Crawford, also sister of the bride, wore light green. All of the attendants wore matching headpieces.

Mrs. Sam Mushen, organist, accompanied Carl Hagei, who sang, "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Candlelighters were Neil Olson and Ralph Crawford, cousin and brother of the bride.

Bridegroom's attendants were Jay McMurren, Jennings Lodge, best man; Bruce Crawford, brother of bride; Keith Stein, West Linn; and Don C. Smith, Oswego; uncles of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Crawford chose a dark blue dress with matching accessories, accented with coral, and her corsage was of coral gladioli.

Mrs. Scheer wore an aqua dress with matching shoes, and her corsage was accented with white gladioli.

The reception following the ceremony was in the church parlors, decorated with many large bouquets of summer flowers. The

EVERGREEN GARDEN CLUB

Evergreen Garden Club met Monday evening, October 6, with about twenty members and two out-of-town guests present. The main subject for discussion was on the growing of perennials, with Laverne Kendall giving the general instructions on the feeding and care of perennials.

Talks on specific perennials which will do well in this area were given by Dolly Cox, Pearl Harsey and Lillian Kamard. Some of the perennials mentioned were chrysanthemums, phlox, oriental poppies, daisies and delphinium.

Plans were made for the sub-district garden club meeting which is to be held in Klamath Falls on November 6.

Hostesses for the evening were Laura Berry and Wilma Marvin. The Altamont Extension Unit met at Joan's Kitchen October 7. The meeting was presided over by Nicki Larson, chairman, and about twenty-six regular members and nine guests were present. At the business meeting held in the morning it was decided that due to election day falling on the next regular meeting date, the lesson of Repair of Inner Springs will be at Joan's Kitchen on Monday, November 3, beginning at 9:15 a.m. Inasmuch as this is a full-day meeting, a special business meeting will be held at the home of Cecil Peyton, 2748 Homedale Road, 1:30 p.m., October 31. If you are interested in repairing inner springs and do not have the list of materials to bring for this lesson, please call Cecil Peyton, 4307, to obtain this list before the November meeting.

A message was delivered from Margaret Hayden stating that 4-H Club leaders are needed for all projects.

Mrs. Larson read a note from Mrs. Sybil Williams thanking all those who had worked so diligently on the Chest X-ray survey which was conducted during the past two months.

After the business meeting, Miss Dolores Bracken led a most interesting and instructive discussion on "Poise and Charm Can Be Yours", with special emphasis on such items as conversation, developing personality and proper carriage of the body. Although all of this subject may not be entirely new to us, it is well to be reminded of the manner in which poise and charm can be developed and to obtain a new outlook on this subject.

A tasty luncheon was served at noon by Ann Kunz, Marie Hamaker, Dorothy Teater, Norma Urrings and Thelma Overton.

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge 104, regular business meeting, October 2, was conducted by Zelma Howard, noble grand.

After the meeting, Theta Rho girls and their friends were invited guests of the evening.

Helen McCormack, Lillian Clark and Ellen Wade, all appeared in white formal, carrying green fans with "Bernice" in gold letters.

After proper tribute was paid to Queen Bernice, Florence Custer sang several songs.

Members of Royal Neighbors entertained the group with an instructive and hilarious skit. Lucille Heifer was program chairman.
