

A COLLEGE ROMANCE—at the University of Oregon was the forerunner to the August marriage of Dorothy Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carr, Beaverton, Oregon; to Tom (Tommy) Edwards, son of Mrs. Kathryn Edwards, of this city; and Tom Edwards Sr., Lebanon, Ore. The bridegroom was a popular football star for KUHS—and was later the same on the U of O campus. He was identified with Sigma Chi fraternity and is at present a dental student there. His bride is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority at U of O.

MR. AND MRS. GABE PADILLA—married in St. Patrick's Church in San Jose. The bride is the former Pat Kennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Kennett, one-time Klamath Falls residents, now living in Medford.

PADILLA-KENNETT VOWS SAID IN ST. PATRICK'S, SAN JOSE

A Nuptial Mass in St. Patrick's Church in San Jose, California, was the setting for the marriage of Pat Kennett, formerly of Klamath Falls, and Gabe Padilla of San Jose.

Pat was escorted to the altar by her father, Thomas M. Kennett, also formerly of Klamath Falls, now of Medford. For her wedding the bride selected a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, designed with a lace over satin bodice and full nylon tulle skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held by a Chantilly lace and seed-pearl crown.

The bride's only jewelry was a seed-pearl necklace with matching earrings. A bouquet of white bouvardia centered with a white orchid completed the bridal ensemble. Pat was preceded to the altar by three attendants, who wore identical ballerina length gowns with nylon tulle hats and satin slippers to match.

Best man and bridesmaid were Ronald Padilla, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man by proxy, in the absence of the bridegroom's brother who is serving with the armed forces. Bruce Anderson of San Jose, and James Sheerer, Denver, were ushers.

Mrs. Kennett attended her daughter's wedding in a navy blue costume with pink accessories, and wore a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue and red accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Following the mass the "just-weds" greeted their guests at a reception held at Mary Ann Gardens. The bride's bouquet was caught by Georgianna Clark of Klamath Falls during the reception.

Pat was graduated from Klamath Union High School, Gabe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel A. Padilla of San Jose. He was with the Klamath Gems as a pitcher in 1950 before he entered the armed forces, serving in Korea for 10 months.

The couple is now at home in San Jose.

TWO CAKES—Birthday cakes—for two young people, Mrs. W. L. Carter Jr. and David Ustick, when they celebrated their birthdays at the home of W. L. Carter Sr., 821 Mitchell Street. Enjoying the evening with the honored guests were Bob Olesen, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Neely, W. L. Carter Jr., Billie Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carter Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ustick.

CIC CLUB

FORT KLAMATH—Civic Improvement Club members met in regular session Friday afternoon October 3. President Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, conducted the business meeting.

The financial report for the month of September was given by the treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, and following routine standing committee reports, chairmen of the various bazaar committees reported amounts raised. The total showed a substantial sum had been raised for the club treasury. The bazaar is held each fall, and is the most important annual event sponsored by the local women's organization.

At this time, members of the club wish to publicly thank five local girls who worked so hard in the dining room in conjunction with Mrs. Ard Pritchett and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson to serve the huge crowd of diners who patronized the bazaar dinner. The charming girls who assisted were Marie Nicholson, Linna Pope, Geneva McAuliffe, Pat Nicholson and Enid Williams.

Welcomed into the organization as a new member at this meeting was Mrs. Echlin of Chiloquin, wife of the Rev. C. Ellery Echlin, who is pastor of Fort Klamath and Chiloquin Methodist churches.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams, of the club program committee, thirty-four groupings of flora and fauna were displayed in a contest, each exhibit representing the title of either a book, song, nursery rhyme or poem. Acting as judges were three Chiloquin women, Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin, Mrs. Paul Herron and Mrs. Gerry Wolff, all of Chiloquin; (Mrs. Echlin, an invited guest, joined the club); Mrs. Elmore Nicholson and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, guests from Fort Klamath; and Mrs. Olive Williams, who is from Portland and a house guest at the home of Carl Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson at the Wilson Cottages; club members Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Myrtle Denton, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Frank Edwards; Mrs. Katherine Nichols, Susanville; Wood River valley pioneer resident who is spending the summer and fall visiting old friends here; Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Mrs. James F. Van Wormer, Mrs. Donald Veatch, Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Olaf Erickson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Jessa Righamer, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, and the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. Walter J. Wright and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley.

Hostesses for the afternoon were

Mrs. Walter J. Wright and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, and in attendance were the following women: Special guests of the afternoon, Mrs. C. Ellery Echlin, Mrs. Paul Herron and Mrs. Gerry Wolff, all of Chiloquin; (Mrs. Echlin, an invited guest, joined the club); Mrs. Elmore Nicholson and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, guests from Fort Klamath; and Mrs. Olive Williams, who is from Portland and a house guest at the home of Carl Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson at the Wilson Cottages; club members Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Myrtle Denton, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Frank Edwards; Mrs. Katherine Nichols, Susanville; Wood River valley pioneer resident who is spending the summer and fall visiting old friends here; Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Mrs. James F. Van Wormer, Mrs. Donald Veatch, Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Olaf Erickson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Jessa Righamer, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, and the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. Walter J. Wright and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley.

SIXTH BIRTHDAYS

CHILOQUIN—Michael Prowell was six years old on September 15. The occasion was celebrated at an early evening party given by his mother, Mrs. Ray Prowell.

The children played games such as breaking balloons before the two birthday cakes and ice cream were served.

Invited were Sandra and Leroy Rogers, Sheila, Millie and Bernie Riddle, Anita and Richard Johnson, Reed David, Ronald Barry, Donald and Dennis Potter, Mrs. Ed Doty attended for awhile and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Gordon Rogers.

CHILOQUIN—Micka Jo Wolff was six years old on September 30. She was hostess at a noon lunch to three other first graders, Tony DiUlio, Donna Kircher, and Dennis Potter, and her brother and sister, Gerry and Cherry. Micka's mother and Mrs. Frank DiUlio accompanied the children to Collier Park. Later in the day Micka Jo, her sister Cherry, Janet Hall and Marilyn Echlin were taken to Klamath Falls by Mrs. Wolff for a show and dinner.

THREESOME HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Charles A. Brown entertained at her home, 3963 Bristol Avenue, recently in honor of three birthday. Her husband, Charles A., daughter-in-law, Myrtle Brown; and son-in-law, John Totella were birthday celebrants and shared the day with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown and sons Michael and Terry. Yreka, Mrs. John Totell and Bobbie, Eddie, Laddie, Katherine, Neal, Karen and Bennie of Dairy; Paul, Norma and Jim Brown, 3963 Bristol Avenue; all children of the Charles A. Browns.

Mrs. Novotny Entertains

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Bill Novotny entertained a group of friends at her home on the evening of October 1. Games and a social hour were followed by the serving of pie and coffee.

Present were Mrs. Leland Harris, Mrs. Marvin Brown, Mrs. Lila Brown, Miss Billie Harris, Mrs. Ted Albert, Mrs. Lyman Fitzhugh, and Miss Elma Fitzhugh and Harriett McCullum.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Joe Huck, 504 Owens Street, entertained at luncheon, October 8, for Mrs. Fredia Frei and Lydia Howard, in observance of their birthdays.

Present to congratulate the two honored guests, were Mrs. Laura Roeger, Beardstown, Illinois, Mrs. Annie Tchirkey, Tulelake, Mrs. Amelia Fei, Mrs. Mina Leitzke and grandson, Stewart Leitzke.

FINE PHOTOGRAPHY

Floud
AT WOODMOOR
STUDIO PHONE 4526

MARRIED HERE IN 1902 were Lulu Sewell and E. W. Whetstone. They celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary October 5. They have one son, P. E. Whetstone, of this city and a granddaughter, Mrs. Marie Franceschini, also Klamath Falls. A retired rancher, the couple lives at 323 Division Street. —Photo by Kettler

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Whetstone, long-time residents of Klamath County, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on October 5, 1952.

Mrs. Whetstone, formerly Lulu Sewell, was born in Pullman, Wash., in 1884, and with her father moved to Klamath County in 1898. Mr. Whetstone was born in Oregon City in 1875, and came to Klamath County in 1901, where he worked on ranches in the Bohanza area until the spring of 1902, at which time he came to Linkville.

On October 5, 1902, he married Lulu Sewell. In 1904, he worked a 6-horse team on what is now known as the "A" or Main Canal which runs through the center of Klamath Falls. They lived in a tent town in the vicinity of what is now known as Oregon Avenue and kept their horses in a livery stable in the approximate vicinity of now 7th and Main Streets.

Following this time, Mr. Whetstone wagon-freighted from Ager and later from Pokegama which took him along the Klamath River over the Topsy Grade which at that time was a small wagon road. This freight included dry goods, etc., for the Klamath area as this was the only means of transporting such goods as at that time there was no railroad into Klamath. The "Narrow Gauge" railroad ran to Pokegama from Thrall, along the Klamath River into California.

In 1906, they moved to Bly and worked on different ranches until 1908, when they moved to the Gerber Ranch and lived there until 1926. During that time, Mr. Whetstone was raising livestock of his own. In 1926, he ran stage and freight lines from Klamath Falls to Malin and Merrill.

In 1926, he bought a ranch west of Bly, consisting of 1300 acres, and operated this until 1932. The family moved to Klamath Falls in 1932.

Mr. and Mrs. Whetstone are now retired and live at 323 Division Street. They have one son, P. E. Whetstone, of this city and one granddaughter, Mrs. Marie Franceschini, also of this city.

Women's Guild Zion Lutheran

The Lutheran Women's Guild of Zion Lutheran Church met the evening of October 2, at the church.

The Reverend Richard Graef led the devotions and presented the topic for the evening. The Guild voted to prepare and serve a banquet for the Southern Oregon Sunday School Teachers Conference here October 19. Hostesses were Mrs. Lora Brazee and Mrs. Elinor Buser.

Watch For Our Big FUR SALE

Starting Oct. 15th on Wednesday

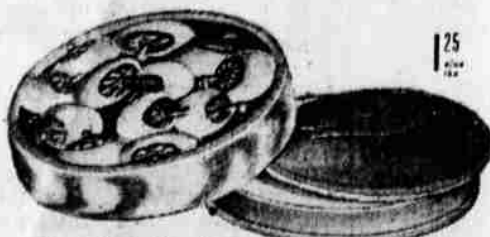

GREGORY'S FUR SHOP

815 East Main

Phone 3573

new make-up with MAGNET-LIKE "CLING"! Cream Powder BY COTY

- NOW... make-up stays on—stays lovely for hours—without caking!
- NOW... no need to settle for heavy cover-ups that emphasize lines, wrinkles and pores!
- NOW... a make-up that seems to "smooth out" skin, give it a fine poreless look!

Six high-fashion shades

LEE HENDRICKS

Your Neighborhood Druggist

2212 So. 6th

Phone 4321

14" length with zipper, 6 garters. White, Pink. Or 16" at $11.00

Gossard's "picture-pretty" bra of nylonized nylon has semi-circle stitching for uplift, embroidered sheer top for glamour. White. A, B, C cups $3.50

Whytal's

DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
Phone 8222 901 Main

this season, your "clothes line" is

GOSSARD'S VALUE
BEYOND
COMPARE
$11.00

Really surprising, all the right shaping and careful making in this Gossard girdle. Slims your waistline and diaphragm with a 3" top. Fine twill satin front, leno sides, and satin elastic back assure the ultimate in comfortable control. Gossard's meticulous workmanship and fine quality give you every reason to snap up this value.