VIDEO FIGHT BOILS

CHICAGO (AP) — With a recent Notre Dame blast at college television policies still resounding, two committees of the NCAA met today to work over TV and other plans for the future.

A four-day general policy going-over was in prospect. Besides the television problem, the committees planned to take up such things as post-season competition and alleged nonobservance of NCAA rules by at least three of its members.

Names of the schools involved in the reported infractions have not been made public.

The committees on hand are the NCAA Executive Committee and the NCAA Council. The overall purpose of the meetings is to shape various reports for final action by the NCAA Convention in January.

SHARE WEALTH
Notre Dame spokesmen say they have learned a "share the wealth" TV program is being prepared by NCAA bodies. They say the plan would split money received in the association's controlled video program among all members.

Edward (Mooser) Krause, Irish athletic director, condemned over the week end any such move as "immoral, illegal, un-American and socialist."

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, has not yet commented on the Notre Dame stand. Asa Bushnell, director of the organization's television program, said he has presented by the TV Committee. However, he said a "partial distribution of excess (TV) receipts" has been mentioned as a future possibility.

Harrison Open Winner

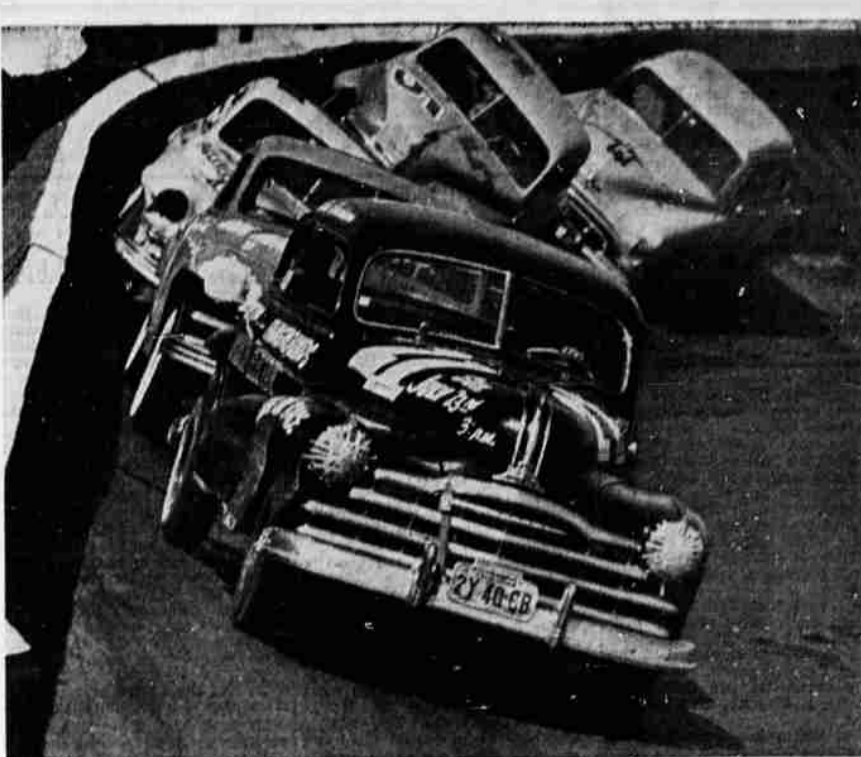

RENO (AP) — E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Ardmore, Okla., shot a 17-under-par 271 to win the 72-hole Northern California-Reno Open golf championship Sunday.

Harrison overcame a three-stroke deficit in the final round to edge Smiley Quick of Los Angeles for $1,000 first money. Teamed with amateur Bill Ebert, San Francisco, he had picked up $500 by winning the pro-amateur best ball tourney.

Quick, who entered the final round with 66-70-63, went two over par 74 for a total of 273—good for $750 second money.

Harrison's rounds were 69-67-66-69.

BUMPER TO BUMPER—Claude Spedding of Seattle leads the pack as cars go into the turn bumper to bumper in Oakland Speedway race recently. Similar action will take place in the Klamath Gold Cup 160-lap final championship race to be held at the Fairgrounds here Sunday. Herschel McGriff of Portland and winner of the 1950 Mexican Road Race, is in the fifth car. Both he and Walling and many other top drivers will be here for the 100 mile grind.

Stock Car Drivers Clash Here Sunday

The first new model stock car race ever staged in Southern Oregon will be held on the big track at the Klamath Fair Grounds Sunday Oct. 19. This major attraction will be for the 100 mile West Coast Final Championship at that distance.

The race will be under sanction of the American Racing Association which has been conducting racing classics in the West for the past 29 years. Many of its drivers have made the big time at Indianapolis and the Pan American Road Race. Some of the drivers who have entered the race here will be driving the same cars they have entered in this year's road race to be run in November.

Entry blanks and invitations to participate have been mailed to all Klamath and Southern Oregon auto dealers, explaining the rules and regulations on stock car racing and that the race is open to all American makes, sedans and coupes, 1950-52 models and strictly stock. Persons other than dealers may enter and do their own driving, or those who care to enter a car only, can secure a professional driver by contacting the American Racing Association, Fair Grounds, Klamath Falls.

Under conditions of this major race, the two fastest cars of each make entered, will be definite entries for the grueling 160-mile trial and will compete for prize money as the Gold Cup.

The first of each make of car to cross the finish line will be given $100. As many as 14 different makes have collected this and prize money in previous races.

Martin Burke, nationally known racing driver has just sent in his entry and will be behind the wheel of a 1952 Packard. Bob Kelleher of San Francisco and Bob Caswell of Walnut Creek have both entered.

Rocky Marciano Has Late Power

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—There was only one thing that Rocky Marciano's board of strategy was not quite certain about going into his bout with Jersey Joe Walcott at Philadelphia, and the new champion answered it to everyone's satisfaction.

"We couldn't know for sure whether Rocky would still have his knockout punch after he had fought 19 or 12 rounds," says Charlie Goldman, the little trainer. "He hadn't gone that far before, and I suppose we worried about it some. But after what he did to Joe in the 13th we know now that he's going to be a really great champion."

Pretty Mrs. Marciano, sitting at an adjoining table, was asked if she thought her fighter husband, a model of modesty, would change any under the deluge of dollars and hero worship.

"No, I don't believe he will," she said, and then broke into a big smile. "If he does he'll answer to me."

A former minor league executive who had been in baseball for over 30 years before he disposed of his holdings last season says that, with great regret, he has decided to clear out and put his money into something else.

"I've studied the situation carefully," he tells me, "and have come to the reluctant conclusion that it's a dying business. I'm not ready to blame any one thing—radio, television, the farm system—but I know there's no future in it for me. I hate the idea, too.

You might be surprised to know how many members of baseball's inner circle were predicting during the World Series that neither Brooklyn nor the New York Giants will represent the National League in next year's classic.

A good majority of those asked the big question plumped for the Phillies without much hesitation, some adding that it couldn't happen to a nicer manager than Steve O'Neill. A number said, seriously, that they wouldn't be surprised to see the Chicago Cubs make the big jump into the runner-up spot.

Wes Ferrell won 31 or more games during his first four seasons with the Cleveland Indians.

Grid Wash

Kids Had Faith In Hopalong

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—Monday's football wash, and not a crying howl in the hutch they were all lent to Frank Leahy, Charley Caldwell and Ivy Williamson.

Any six-year-old television fan should have known Ohio State was going to upset top-ranked Wisconsin. After all, Ohio State had Hopalong Cassidy. Hoppy, all red-haired freshman who also answers to the name of Howard, ran for 113 yards and passed for 51 in the Buckeyes' 23-14 win over the nation's No. 1 ranked eleven.

You have to credit a goat with an assist but it was his third straight game of the season by beating William & Mary, 14-0. The three victories tie the best the Midshipmen have done in a single season since 1945. They were having their anxious moments, though, until their goat mascot, kidnaped Thursday by Maryland students, made a surprise appearance on the field. Navy quickly scored the two winning touchdowns.

The week end's passing honors should go to Illinois' Tom O'Connell, who connected for five touchdowns in the space of 20 minutes in whopping Washington, 48-14.

Frank Meriwell couldn't have provided a more thrilling finish than Yale's 35-28 victory over Columbia. Jerry Jones of Covington, Ky., scored the winning touchdown for the Ell in the final eight seconds after the game had been tied three times.

Quote, unquote: Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach after upset win over Wisconsin: "The boys made a great straight out of me, didn't they?"

Sophs Star For Spartans

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—First came the smashing seniors of Michigan State's bull-doging football team.

Then their jolting Juniors. Now it's their starting sophomores.

Where does the parade of brilliant ball-carriers that lifted Michigan State to a record winning streak stop?

Naturally, Coach Biggie Munn hopes it never does.

Naturally, the coaches of State's remaining foes — Syracuse, Penn State, Purdue, Indiana, Notre Dame and Marquette — hope it stops pronto.

After Coach Ray George of Texas A&M saw his lads whipped by Michigan State 48-6 Saturday in a nationally-telvised game, he put it this way:

"It's not their first team that beats you. It's their second and third."

Biggie, who admits he likes to play a lot of fellows, has coached his team to 18 straight victories—longest current major college streak — and to a No. 2 ranking in the weekly Associated Press poll. Wisconsin, No. 1 last week, was upset Saturday by Ohio State.

Last year Biggie used two backfields: (1) the workhorse unit that played the other team even for two periods and wore it down, and (2) the pony backfield that came in at that point and ran up a comfortable lead.

This year he uses almost all 12 backs interchangeably in the three units. There's no real first string.
