Hearing Holds Dancer Sane

John William Tilton, 24, of Henley was determined not mentally ill yesterday afternoon at a sanity hearing conducted in Circuit Court.

The youth was remanded to the County Jail to await sentence in District Court on a charge of disorderly conduct.

He pleaded guilty to the charge Tilton was arrested Friday night and admitted being the man who for the past several weeks startled residents of the suburban area by posing nude in the beam of the headlights of his car.

Man Released On Check Rap

Phillip J. Barker, 29, of Medford, who had pleaded guilty here to a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, was ordered by Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg.

The charge against him was dismissed. Barker was brought here two weeks ago to face the felony charge, concerning a check he passed at the Big Y Market.

After the man pleaded guilty, Judge Vandenberg obtained information that at the time the check was written, Barker had money in a local bank to cover it. But the money was withdrawn before the check cleared.

Realty Board To Hear Experts

Klamath Realty Board members are urged to attend the luncheon Wednesday promptly at noon at the Willard hotel to hear Dr. Hallerson, of the Klamath County Experimental Farm, Dr. Chaney, soils department, Dr. Albert, soil testing laboratory division and Tom Jackson, soil extension specialist, all of Oregon State College.

The visiting specialists will also have motion picture films of work being accomplished in the departments they represent.

Man Held On Check Charge

A man under indictment here since last March for passing a bad check is in custody in Yakima, Wash.

Sheriff Red Britton identified him as Jack Wagner, of Toppenish, Wash., father of Dick Wagner, one of the country's ranking light-heavyweight boxers.

Wagner has waived extradition to Oregon.

Horium, Elton Fishbeck, principal of Shasta school will speak on the school measures to be voted on Nov. 4. Plans for the annual fun-frolic to be held Oct. 30 will be discussed.

Mills PTA—will meet Wednesday October 15, 2:15 in the school auditorium.
