Cinerama May Be Movies' Salvation From TV Threat

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA) - Behind the Screen: The "depthies" are coming and they may be the depth charge that will unseat you from the living room television set and send you crowding back into the movie theaters.

The "talkies" did it 26 years ago and now the long-time dream of three-dimensional motion pictures—let's call them "depthies"—may come true.

There's a story of great devotion behind Robert Clark's absence from the screen since he made "Sword of Vengeance" still unreleased, a year ago. Bob's mother is suffering from cancer. Six weeks ago, one of her legs was amputated. Bob has hardly left her bedside.

When "Decameron Nights" hits the screens, you'll see Joan Fontaine's adopted daughter, Martita, and the three sprigs of Binnie Barnes and Mike Frankovitch in the cast.

"If I had no contracts I'd be out playing theaters and doing television only when I wanted to."

Group Ends U.N. Hearings

NEW YORK (AP)—The U. S. Senate internal security subcommittee yesterday concluded its three-day probe of United Nations employees concerning the possibility of Communist ties.

Blue" in January, but in the meantime he's sticking to American shores for his first Hollywood movies since "The Lady Said No. Life with Mrs. Niven?"

TV programs and waiting: "Every-one in show business is working too hard."

But you won't catch Jack being carted off to a hospital in a frenzy over the video furnace which is burning up stars and material.

The Mitzl Gaynor-Dick Coyle engagement may be broken, as announced, but when you call Mitzl's home it's Dick's mama who calls Mitzl to the phone.

Jane Russell will dance all over the place in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Jack Cole has already upprinted one number in which Jane prances in front of a line of burly athletes.

Joan Evans, who married Kirkby Weatherly on her 18th birthday against the advice of her parents, has reconciled with mama. Screenwriter Katherine Albert. But Katherine's saying: "I'm pretending she's 20."

Janet Blair's marriage to Nick Mayo—her "South Pacific" stage manager—confirmed this column's tip last August.

David Niven will star in the movie version of "The Moon Is
