

Britain Slates Spanish Deal

LONDON (AP)—Spain will soon get 500,000 pounds ($11,400,000) worth of piston-type aircraft engines from Britain in return for pyrites and other needed strategic metals.

Foreign Under Secretary Anthony Nutting told the House of Commons last night Spain also will get radio-direction finders for airfields and out-dated radar and radio equipment as part of Britain's arms-for-export policy.

"All this is obsolescent material," Nutting said, "which could be used for civil and military purposes, but for which there is no demand from any friendly or neutral country."

DIALOG

By EDITH PIERUCCINI

Here is your First Lady of Radio . . . better known to the millions of listeners who follow her warm-hearted, perceptive radio reporting as . . . Mary Margaret! In addition to her outstanding reporting and interviewing, she is the author of eleven books. Many honors have punctuated every year of Mary Margaret's career on the air . . . among them is the decoration by King Haakon of Norway for her wartime broadcasting . . . the Distinguished Honor Award from the Haitian Government . . . a special medallion of honor from the Mayor of Vienna and a unique silver medallion from the Government of the Virgin Islands. She's heard on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Friday from 1:30 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. over this station.

This is Bing's night . . . and the Bell Sisters along with Helen O'Connell share the stellar guest spots! Vivacious songbird Helen O'Connell solos the popular novelty tune, "You Like?" and joins Der Bingle in "Walkin' My Baby Back Home." The fast rising young Bell Sisters, composers of last season's song hit "Bermuda," sing "There's a Ship Comin' In" and with Bing do "Zing a Little Zong." Bing solos on "Open Up Your Heart" and "You Belong To Me" with the Rhythmairs. The time for Bing is 6:30 p.m. over KFIJ and CBS.

Have you met Millie? You need no formal introduction. Just tune in tonight at 9:00 p.m. to the sparkling comedy "Meet Millie" starring Audrey Totter. Millie has a big fight with her beau, Mr. Boone, Jr., so mama decides to take her to a club dance where they meet a very wolfish character who won't let another male near Millie . . . thereby causing no end of complications.

Cal Douglas, master of ceremonies, headlines CBS Radio's "Visiting Time" show heard Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. Many old tunes . . . such as "Ain't She Sweet" and "It's A Great Day" will be a special feature tonight. The announcer you'll hear is Ott Devine.

Record fans please note . . . Lu Ann Simms, a regular member of CBS Radio's "Arthur Godfrey" program, makes her singing debut for Columbia Records with two new sides, "When It's Just About September" and "Puppy Love." She's backed by the Percy Faith orchestra.
