

PELS BLOW OUT TORNADO, 7-0

Dougherty Scores In Third

By RED HURD
The Pelicans of Klamath Union High School have one high hurdle left before they can claim the Class A-1 football title in Dist. 6 after cashing in on a third-quarter break for a 7-0 win over Medford last night on the losers' field.

The Pels captured the district lead on its win last night but they have the Cavemen of Grants Pass left—Oct. 31 on Medford Field—before they can pick up their ticket to the state playoffs.

It wasn't until just past the midway point in the third quarter last night that Klamath Falls could push over for a score although the Pelicans out-first downed Medford 12-4 and out-gained the Tornado in net yardage, 213-85.

Medford took over on its 20 after Jim Dougherty kicked over the goal line but on the first play of the series the tornado drove a 15-yard penalty for clipping. With the ball on the one-foot line, Doug Crippen stood deep in the end zone and booted out to Ken Young on the 30.

Young returned to the 23 and in six plays Dougherty sliced through tackle to the yard line where he started on the nine-yard strike—as the Klamath forward wall tore up a fabulous goal line stand.

In five plays, the Pels covered 36 yards to the 45, but this march was stalled when Gilmore's fumble was recovered by Jim Holloway. The Pels had by far the most powerful running attack but they lost their punch in the clutches. At halftime, with no score on the board, it became evident a break would decide the issue. It did when the clipping penalty put Medford on its one-foot line and Young whizzed Crippen's punt back to the 23.

DECIDER
Dougherty's push was the decider. Young failed to gain on the first play, Dougherty bulled to the 17, then to the seven in two plays. Bill Satt, back in action for the first time since he broke his thumb in the Redding game, quarterback-snaked to the 6. Dougherty bulled to the one-foot line and crashed over on the next play.

The Pels have two weeks in which to get ready for the invasion of the upset-minded Cavemen. A Grants Pass victory would throw the district into a three-way tie—and probably touch off a ruckus when attempts are made to determine the Dist. 6 representative in the state playoffs.

Trojans Trounce Bonanza

The Trojans of Sacred Heart popped out with a scoring rush in the second half yesterday in a Merrill Spud Festival game to trounce Bonanza, 33-0.

It was the first win for the Trojans while the Antlers of Bonanza are still looking for their first score on the fat side.

This afternoon Henley and Merrill were scheduled to scrap at 2 o'clock in another Klamath County League Spud Festival game. Merrill can tie down the league title with a win.

Sacred Heart held a 6-0 halftime lead yesterday when Wayne Neubert tipped off tackle for 10 yards to culminate a first-quarter, 30-yard drive.

Sacred Heart scored twice in each the third and fourth quarters. Bob Axel completed a Bonanza punt on the five-yard line and Gary Thill scored later from the two. Neubert scored again in the third, after a blocked punt by Thill with Joe Mulvey recovering on Bonanza's 15-yard stripe. Neubert ran over from the five.

Phil Collins filled a pass to Neubert early in the fourth quarter after the Trojans recovered a fumble at midfield. Neubert was hauled down on the 10 and Thill scored a few plays later from the 6.

The third blocked punt led to the academy's last score. Collins scored on a quarterback sneak from the five. Curt Smith, Collins and Wickline scored the extra points.

Local Driver Olson Enters Sunday Race

A sell out crowd is expected to be in the stands at the Klamath Fairgrounds here tomorrow afternoon for the running of the first stock car race ever held here—the Klamath Gold Cup 160-lap classic which gets under way at 2 p.m.

Jim Olson, local automobile dealer, became the first local driver to enter the 160-lap event and will pilot a product that he sells, a Plymouth number 18. Olson is no novice as far as stock car racing is concerned as he has been in many major stock car races on such fast tracks as the Oakland Speedway (the American Racing Association's home track) and at Portland. Other last minute local entries are expected.

George Amick, Southern California's Indianapolis-bound ace driver arrived in town this morning and will drive car 99, the fabulous Hudson Hornet that has won many firsts in Eastern competition and on the West Coast.

PREVIEW
Local race fans will see a preview when Wally Burns wheels out his shiny new 1953 Kaiser in its first race. Wally is the lead-footed member of the Burns brothers race team from Los Carlon.

Jim Heath, the fiery little Pasadena driver, thinks he will have the advantage on the turns and is banking his hopes on his 1952 Buick. A duel of Buicks is in the making as Chet Richards, the 1951 Rocky Mountain champion and Pike's Peak racer from Denver, thinks otherwise.

Meanwhile, the railbirds are still picking Mary Panch of Berkeley who is driving a Mercury car '98 and George Amick in the Hudson Hornet '50 as the real duel and a toss-up to win the 160-lap affair on the five-eighths mile fairground track. With so many outstanding drivers entered in the race, it's possible for a sleeper to grab the first spot.

SEATTLE (AP) — It will be known by next Thursday whether the Class A Western International Baseball League will be expanded to 10 teams to make room for the Canadian prairie cities of Calgary and Edmonton.

League Directors and club representatives decided at an all-day meeting here Friday to leave it up to local directors of the eight current WIL teams whether two more clubs shall be added.

The deadline for action by the local boards is Oct. 27.

Robert B. Abel, league president, said all those in attendance at the Friday meeting reported they would recommend approval by their local directors.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Harold "Bunky" Gruner said here Friday night he received outside financial aid while attending the University of Kentucky, but it was given to him without the knowledge of the university.

He did not know whether the donors were alumni of the university. He said he also had received financial assistance from his family.

Gruner emphasized that the university officials had no knowledge of his receiving outside financial aid.

Giants, 49'ers Guard Spotless Pro Records

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants and San Francisco 49ers, prospecting many years for professional football gold and glory, place their spotless records and championship hopes on the line tomorrow in a five-game National Football League program.

Coach Steve Owen's Giants, seeking their first crown since 1938, take on the dangerous Chicago Cardinals in the feature game in the American Conference.

The 49ers, who never have won a divisional title, clash with the Bears in Chicago in the big game of the National Conference. Both the Giants and 49ers boast 3-0 records and triumph tomorrow will greatly enhance their chances of meeting for the league championship Dec. 21.

Other games tomorrow find Cleveland at Philadelphia, Los Angeles at Detroit and Washington at Pittsburgh. Green Bay and Dallas meet in the Texas city tonight.

The Giants, fresh from last Sunday's 17-9 triumph over Cleveland's perennial champion Browns, may be a bit down for their home opener against the Cards. The Cards, tied with Cleveland and Philadelphia for second place, boast an upset triumph over the Bears and figure to give the Giants a hard time. The Giants run a touchdown favorite to win.

San Francisco also is in for no easy time at Chicago. The second place Bears, who haven't won all the marbles since 1946, can tie the hungry 49ers for the lead by winning. The invaders are favorite to prevail by a touchdown.

Sprague Injured

SEATTLE (AP) — Washington, rated one-to-two touch-down favorite Saturday over Oregon in a Pacific Coast Conference football game that promised the top passing duel of the season.

Some of the "favorite" was knocked out of the Huskies Friday night when it was learned that Capt. Dick Sprague won't be in the lineup. An old back ailment has crippled Sprague so badly doctors advised his withdrawal from the lineup.

Coach Howie Odell had put Sprague and Bill Albrecht, his top up-against "spear" to-spear offensive in an effort to stop the threat posed by Oregon's George Shaw, free-throwing sophomore quarterback.

Don Heinrich of Washington and Shaw have cracked the conference tossing record on successive Saturdays. Heinrich broke it first with 21 completions and Shaw followed a week later with 23. Fans are expected to see a lot of action by both men Saturday.

Kickoff is set for 2 p.m.

Old Man DeMar Still Going
BALTIMORE (AP) — The old man of distance racing, Clarence H. DeMar, is going to try running his 64 years over 26 miles in the third annual Baltimore Marathon Sunday.

De Mar, a printer from Reading, Mass., missed the Boston Marathon for the first time in decades this year. He won it seven times. But he announced he wasn't retiring.

De Mar will run against about 30 others.

HUNTERS ATTENTION
