SEPTEMBER WEDDING IN KLAMATH LUTHERAN CHURCH

Vows were exchanged September 20 in Klamath Lutheran Church by Margaret Ann Tedrick and Roy Wood Sealey when the Reverend Irvin Tweet read the 8 p.m. service before some 50 close friends and relatives.

Bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickell live at Eagle Point, and parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sealey, live in Salem.

Mrs. Irvin Tweet, organist, accompanied Mrs. George Brown, soloist, whose husband gave the bride in marriage.

Yellow chrysanthemums, salmon gladioli and greenery formed the background for the bridal party. The bride wore lilac lace over tulle. The dress was styled with long sleeves, scalloped collar and short train. She carried a white Bible, gift from a friend. It was centered with two yellow cymbidium orchids surrounded with yellow carnations and white stephanotis, tied with yellow and bronze streamers, with headpiece to match.

Maid of honor, Helen Underwood, wore pale green taffeta, with headpiece same as the bride's; and her bouquet was crescent shaped of yellow and bronze pompon chrysanthemums tied with bronze ribbon.

Bridesmaid, Vonetta Dorrell, was dressed identical to the matron of honor, except that her frock was of pale yellow.

Little Ann Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Browning, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length aqua taffeta dress and carried a basket of rose petals. Her bracelet corsage and headpiece were of the same type flowers worn by the other attendants.

Sealey, for the double-ring ceremony was attended by Maurice Dorman and Vince Monzel, ushers were Ed Boothby and Dean Howell, close friends of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Irvin Tweet poured at the reception, which was held in the church parlors; Mrs. C. A. Little cut the cake and Dennis Coote passed the guest book.

Mrs. Bob Whitney and Mrs. Ed Boothby assisted at the table and about the rooms.

For travel, the bride wore a forest green suit with luggage accessories; and her shoulder corsage was from the bridal bouquet. The honeymoon trip was on the California coast, including Santa Cruz and Carmel. They came home via the coast, route through the Redwoods.

Out of town guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Evans, Mrs. George Distell and son Bill, Medford; Mary Watts, Longview; W. A. Nickell, bride's father; Mr. and Mrs. H. Hebenberg, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brightman, Main.

REBEKAHS AT MERRILL

MERRILL — Mildred Rexford, noble grand, presided at a regular meeting of Merrill Rebekahs, Oct. 6. Donna Faye Haskins was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of decorating a float for the Potato Festival parade on Saturday. Reports were given by the captains of the pink and green teams, "Columbus Discovers America" was presented by the green team.

The program for the Oct. 20 meeting, will feature a novelty skit with Pearl Harris and Margaret Loper of the green team in charge; and a Halloween story by Mildred Rexford for the pink team. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Eva Bowman, Melvin Bowman, Irene Hill, and Laura Lou Hill.

Bonanza Home Scene of Party

BONANZA — Mrs. Owen Pepple entertained at her lovely new home in Bonanza on October 10, in honor of Mrs. Cora Ticknor who has been here from Medford visiting Mrs. Paul Monroe and Mrs. Katherine Billingsly.

The party was also for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Nonie Pepple. The ladies sewed and enjoyed talking over old times. Mrs. Pepple served refreshments late in the afternoon to Mrs. Ticknor, Mrs. Pepple, Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Mrs. George Noble, Mrs. Ruby Brown, Mrs. Lloyd Gilt, Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. O. C. Johnson, Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mrs. Katherine Billingsly.

LADIES AUXILIARY CANTON CRATER 7

Ladies Auxiliary Crater 7 met in regular session Thursday evening October 9, in the IOOF Hall. Lady Kate Hogue, president, called the meeting to order, 8 p.m., with 19 members in full dress uniform present.

A major part of the evening was devoted to the mastering in ceremony, and forming lines for the state president, Lady Charlotte Easton, who will make her official visit here November 13. Lady Mae Anderson gave a short report on her trip to the International Association meeting in Dallas, Texas.

PLAYERS CLUB

Mrs. J. P. Rhodes, Mrs. Charles Stenacher, Mrs. Walter Hoag, Mrs. Wayne Sweney and Mrs. H. L. Robertson entertained the Player's Club Wednesday evening October 15.

The Library Club rooms were gayly decorated with white pumpkins, and black cats.

Following refreshments and a short business meeting, cards were played. High in bridge was won by Mrs. A. J. Kusler, high in pinochle by Mrs. C. E. Moss and the door prize by Mrs. H. Kranenburg.

Refreshments were served in the dining room after the meeting by the Cantons.
