MR. AND MRS. B. V. YADON — who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 12, when friends were invited to call at the E. J. Yadon home, 3011 Cortez. A host of friends was greeted by the couple during the open house hours 2 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. Yadon was charming in a pink floral two-piece dress; and her orchid shoulder corsage was a gift from her daughter.

A profusion of pompon chrysanthemums decorated the rooms and a gold tree with tiny gold bells hanging from the branches was featured in the serving table center piece.

50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED BY B. V. YADONS

MT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Yadon celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Oct. 12. Open house was held at the E. J. Yadon home from 2 until 8.

Mrs. Yadon chose a pink floral two-piece dress for the occasion. Her daughter presented her with an orchid corsage.

Yadon was attired in a blue suit with a gold rose bud in his lapel.

The serving table was decorated with a beautiful arrangement of small yellow chrysanthemums, with a gold tree and tiny gold bells hanging from its branches.

A lovely three tiered cake was decorated with appropriate gold rose buds and bells.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yadon son and daughter-in-law, Seattle; a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Mueller, Beaverton; the youngest daughter, Mrs. Ali Antons, Seattle, and her family were unable to attend because of illness; a grandson, Paul Yadon, Morgan Hill, Calif., and a granddaughter, Mrs. Elmer Johansen and their sons, Danny and Eric, Hillsboro. The Yadons also have a granddaughter and great-grandson in Seattle and a grandson in Spokane, and another grandson in the air force stationed at Wichita Falls, Texas, who were unable to attend, another son, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Yadon, and their boys, Warren, Virgil and Myron, reside here.

EVERYONE WAS TALKING — about the handsome little lady at the wedding of Donna McFarland and Walter Waggoner—for those who didn't know—they were Donnie Waggoner—son of the Bob Waggoners and Billy Kennitzer — son of the Jack Kennitzers — Their dads were both in the wedding party.

FROM ST. LOUIS MO—comes the welcome word! — explaining the following seen in the Oregonian a few days ago—was a bit MYSTIFYING IN VIEW OF plans previously made—the item went something like this—"Delzell—Northrup—Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gaines Northrup, San Antonio—announce the marriage of their daughter, Julie Ann to Paul Croxton Delzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White Delzell, Portland—Ceremony an event of September 29 in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho—the Reverend A. B. Conroy officiating—Couple attended U of O—she a Chi Omega and he a Phi Gamma Delta—Bride planned to visit her parents before joining husband at next station in San Luis Obispo where he is in the army—signal corps—"So—when the word came from Crox' mother Sally Delzell in an illuminating letter—all was explained—seems that Crox was stationed in Washington and Julie drove up to see him—while discussing plans for their marriage to have been 4 mos hence they decided they would just get married while she was up there—so they phoned their parents for permission and money!—and GOT married!—Tom and Sally Delzell are on a 5 wks trip to White Sulphur Springs NY and back thru Mexico—and the Crox Delzells are happy newlyweds with their parents' blessing.

Bryant Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Plowman and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wishard, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Yaden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Baman and Margaret, Kathleen and Stacy and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watt.

LUCILLE BARNES—happy hostess to Gladys (Mrs. Porter W.) Yeti—at the Marion Barnes home in Olene — Girlhood friend of Lucille's — she usually manages an annual visit to see her many Basin pals.

HANK AND VIOLET MOORE—were awakened early Sunday a.m. by an insistent telephone bell—Son-in-law—Walter Richards calling—(He's co-captain on Willamette football team—They played Lewis and Clark Sat mite—) "SANDRA HAD A BABY!!!" he said — "WHEN?" — asked — "IN THE THIRD QUARTER!!!" — That was the new papa's way of announcing arrival of John Douglas — who weighed in at 7 lbs 13 oz.

THE WEAVERS—Franklin D. Elsie—have flown south for the winter—to Florida—they lived there prior to coming to KF many years ago—gone about a week—already a flock of their friends are moaning about missing them — They'll be more welcome than the first crocus when they return in the spring.

MARRIED THE 12th of October —The Walter Benton Waggoners are on their honeymoon — When they left St. Paul's Episcopal Church—they left a cold trail so far as this desk is concerned—no details at all—well—at least not enough—and being gone that weekend—got no first hand info.—This is for those who have asked WHEN the pics and story would be in.

THESE GALS — From Malibu Beach, California—who have made pleasure trips of their husbands' business trips to KF—have a pretty pert outsider perspective—Velma Ferguson and Lorraine Mazze —learned through the H & N that Mrs. Douglas McKay was to be at the Republican bidgts—so they invited a group of KFettes to luncheon stipulating that they show up at the coffee hour to visit with the governor's wife and Mrs. Sam Coon.

LUCKY MAMAS—whose families take them to the Yacht Club to morrow will have a choice of swiss steak or turkey pic—reservations
