

Hurryin' Hugh Supplies Speed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — What makes the San Francisco 49ers unbeatable — and, their fans hope, unbeatable in the National Pro Football League?

The league's tightest defense (only 38 opponents' points), powered by three giant tackles, a rookie end and a pass stealing halfback.

The circuit's highest scoring offense (122 points), sparked by a sensational come-through rookie and directed by two brainy 1-quarterbacks.

Spirit. And quiet spoken Coach Buck Shaw, who inspires without invective or raising his voice.

Ernie Nevers, longtime Stanford Gards' star, called the 49ers "the greatest pro team in history."

Red Grange, former Illinois All-America and pro scullionator, called their offensive line "the fastest I've ever seen." Opponents have hung the same label on the offensive unit.

Hurryin' Hugh McElhenny, rookie All-America halfback from University of Washington, supplied the breakaway speed the 49ers need to complete an explosive backfield. He's the big end-skirting threat that helps spread out opposing lines for fullback Joe Perry's down-the-middle power smash.

Put in with Perry, halfbacks Joe Arenas or Strike Stryzkiel and brilliant passing Frankie Albert or Y. A. Tittle, and you've got a backfield!

Critics say Hurricane Hugh looks like one of the great ball carrying backs of all time. Sunday, he ran back a Chicago Bear punt 94 yards to a touchdown. He and San Francisco's own Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cards, who returned one kick 100 yards to score, are all alone so far in the race for rookie of '34.

Sabotin Pens For Wagner

CLEVELAND (AP) — Earl (Lulu) Sabotin of Warren, O., has been matched to fight light heavyweight Dick Wagner of Toppenish, Wash. in a nationally televised bout at the arena here, Nov. 5.

Originally, it was planned to have Sabotin fight Danny Nardico of Tampa in a return match. But the arena said Nardico refused to sign.

Nardico TKO'd Sabotin in their last fight.

BOWLING

Two beginners' bowling leagues jumped in the act this week, bringing to eleven the number of bowling loops waiting the opening of Lucky Lanes for league bowling.

Lucky Lanes Co-manager Earle Moss hopes to swing the doors of the new bowling plant open next Monday or Tuesday with league competition due for a Nov. 3 start.

The two new bowling loops are the Ten-Pinets and the Alley Katz. They'll hold down Sunday times of 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. for league bowling.

Ten-Pinets sponsors are J. W. Kerns, Perkins News Agency, Golden Creme Donut Shop, B & B Radio, Superior Troy Laundry and Pelican Drive Inn. Officers are

President Margie Tanner, Vice-president Billie Sheehy, Secretary Audrey Thomas, Treasurer Donna Scott and Sgt. of Arms Betty Champagne.

Alley Katz sponsors are Ward Chicken, Griggs Food Store Number 1, Griggs Food Store Number 2, Craig's Department Store, Safeway Stores, Swan Lake Moulding, Louie's Foods and Mack's Store. Officers are President Gertrude Bland, Vice-president Ruth McPherson, Secretary Audrey Thomas, Treasurer Geraldine Woods and Sgt. of Arms Marjorie Berry. Publicity chairman for both leagues is Evelyn Griggs.
