

Taft Praises Senator Byrd; Refutes 'Surrender' Stories

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft says he is confident that "millions of Southern Democrats" will vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower "because they, like Virginia's Sen. Byrd, are opposed to President Truman's policies of all-powerful government domination."

Addressing a cheering Republican rally of 1,300 here last night, Taft expressed "the greatest respect" for Byrd, who last week declined to support Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

The Ohio Republican called the Virginia Democrat's speech "one of the clearest, frankest statements" of the presidential campaign.

In his talk last week, Byrd refused to endorse Stevenson because he said he felt the Democratic nominee is too close to the Truman administration and its policies. He made no mention of Eisenhower or the Republicans.

Taft pictured Stevenson as "disappointed" because he (Taft) and Eisenhower "agree on so many issues." That, he said, is why the Democrats are saying the general has "surrendered" to him.

"Nobody has surrendered to anybody," Taft declared. He added that Stevenson cannot point to anything that shows either Eisenhower or Taft "has departed from the principles we have always believed in."

Most of Taft's 45-minute address was devoted to an indictment of which he said poses the threat of "big government" to the nation's freedoms.

He accused the Truman administration of "softness for communism" and said this led to the Korean War and the loss of China to the Reds.

Taft said the main issue of the campaign is "whether we shall follow so many countries of the world down the Socialist trail."

"Socialism, of course, is a relative term, but the philosophy of Mr. Truman and Mr. Stevenson can fairly be called socialism, which believes that all progress must be made through government," Taft said.

By contrast, the Republicans "believe that progress in this country has been due to the freedom of our people to work out their own problems with government merely providing the framework upon which progress can be built," he added.

The Ohio senator won perhaps his biggest bursts of applause from an audience that overflowed the 1,200-capacity John Marshall High School auditorium with digs at the Democrats on corruption, communism and Korea.

"The people want a government of honesty and integrity in Washington," he said, "and they can't get it unless they elect the Republicans." He noted that Mr. Truman has said "he cleaned up corruption wherever he could find it."

Taft added: "Well, he didn't look very hard."

Reds Protest U.S. 'Kidnap'

BERLIN (AP)—The Russians protested last night that American authorities are "illegally and forcibly" holding many Soviet children in West Germany against their will and that of their parents.

The protest was made by Ivan F. Semichastnov, acting head of the Soviet Control Commission to U. S. High Commissioner Walter J. Donnelly.

Russian Artist Death Reported

MOSCOW (AP)—The death of Russian artist Georgii Ryazhukin was announced today.

Press announcements of his death said he was a professor at Moscow State Art Institute, a member of the Presidium of the Academy of Arts and a member of the Communist party.

FABULOUS FANNY

The life story of FANNY BRICE

Her life was a stirring saga of slums to stardom. But with the dizzying heights of Ziegfeld glory came tragedy, resembling the lyrics of her song, "My Man." For Fanny's deepest devotion was given to a faithless swindler. Read the biography of Fanny Brice, known to millions as "Baby Snooks," beginning now in the Ladies Home Journal.
