

POLICE DONATION—A check for $1,300 was donated by the Klamath Falls Police Beneficiary Association to a fund being raised to buy and locate an iron lung here. The fund was started in memory of George B. Adler, 20, a victim of polio. Sgt. Odell Olson, president of the police association, hands the check to Mrs. Alice Vitus, fund trustee.

African Leader Disappears In Wake of Terrorist Riots

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Police Wednesday announced the disappearance of E. W. Mathu, leader of African members in the Kenya Colony Legislative Council, as arrests in the government's drive against the secret anti-white Mau Mau Society reached 101.

There was no immediate indication of what connection, if any, Mathu's disappearance had with the crackdown on the fanatic society that has been campaigning with fire and murder to drive the white man from this British East African colony.

Police said Mathu was seen in Nairobi Tuesday and later sent a message that he would not attend a scheduled council meeting.

The 101 natives rounded up as suspected Mau Mau members face questioning about the murder of 43 natives, the slaughter of many head of white men's cattle and widespread burning of buildings and crops throughout the colony in recent months.

EGYPT CRACKDOWN

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The Egyptian government fired scores of top public servants today—including two undersecretaries in the Health Ministry—and dissolved the municipal councils of Cairo and Alexandria in a stepped-up campaign against graft.
