Adler Event Moved Up

The concert planned to honor the late George B. Adler at Southern Oregon college has been advanced to Sunday, Nov. 2, according to Glenn T. Matthews, assistant professor of music. The all-school musical program will feature appearance of the college band, orchestra, choir and vocal and piano soloists.

Professor Matthews reported that the additional week of preparation from the original Oct. 26 date will enable addition of several features to the program. The concert is being presented to raise funds for a Memorial Loan fund in memory of the young student who recently died from the effects of poliomyelitis.

NEW MIRACLE DRUG GIVES WONDERFUL FAST RELIEF from MINOR THROAT IRRITATION from cold, smoking and other common throat irritants

At the first sign of a minor throat irritation, take McKesson's sensational new NEO-AQUA-DRIN Throat Lozenges. Because NEO-AQUA-DRIN contains the antibiotic miracle drug, Tyrothricin, it works fast, two ways: 1. relieves discomfort almost immediately. 2. inhibits the germ-positive germs that cause most minor throat irritations. NEO-AQUA-DRIN is guaranteed to contain up to twice as much pain-relieving local anesthetic or germ-inhibiting ingredients as other leading products. Pleasant orange flavor... leaves no bitter after-taste. And NEO-AQUA-DRIN does not disturb digestion or desiccate taste of food! Note: If throat irritation is accompanied by fever or other symptoms, see your doctor.

Life story of FANNY BRICE

At 10 she sang on street corners and bar tops. By 17 she was a burlesque hit and on her way to Ziegfeld stardom. But though she won fame and fortune in the theater and as "Baby Snooks," she lived the heartbreak of her throbbing song, "My Man." For Fanny never found happiness... nor a man of her own. Read Fanny's story, by Norman Katkov, starting this month in the Ladies' Home Journal.

Accident Victim Said Doing Well

Mrs. Mary Riblett, 66, 903 Walnut Street, struck down by a car yesterday morning as she crossed Klamath Avenue at S. 8th Street, was reported as "doing pretty well" in Klamath Valley Hospital today. The small and elderly woman suffered a fractured thigh when she was hit by a car driven by Wayne Holzfuss, OTI student and varsity basketball player. City police charged Holzfuss with failure to yield the right of way and he was released after posting $25 bail.

FIRE

PORTLAND (AP)—Fire caused an estimated $20,000 damage to a truck storage building which was built originally as a livery stable. The building, in the northwest warehouse district, occupies a half block. It housed about 30 trucks for Oregon Transfer Company when the fire started Friday morning. Most of them were taken out and the others were not seriously damaged before firemen—using 23 pieces of equipment—checked the flames.

Cossacks To Visit Here

Gabriel Soloduhin, an intrepid, handicraft department which is in the process of development. Soloduhin has appeared in dozens of motion pictures, and each season receives a summons from Hollywood whenever there is a call for a colorful Cossack in a movie. He has also been featured by Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey circus in riding spectacles such as riding strapped to the horse's belly. He has toured many countries.

SAM COON says!

"The state and federal governments have a tendency to deny the local communities a right to run their own affairs, centralizing this power in Washington, D.C., and Salem. I feel the closer you can get government to the people the better government you'll have."

SAM COON Republican Candidate for U.S. Congress Paid for by the Coon for Congress Committee; Lawrence Neault, chairman.
