WMS Meets In First Baptist

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, held its annual installation dinner at the church Oct. 14, at 6:30.

The guests were seated at card tables covered with white cloths with a single purple taper burning in a crystal holder in the center. There were fresh, lavender flowers around the base of each holder. Throughout the room garden flowers were attractively arranged. The Women's Missionary Society's Watchword "Laborers Together With God" printed in purple on a white background was hung on the wall.

Mrs. Lawrence Weinberg, retiring president, presided and asked Dr. E. M. Causey to give the blessing, after which the guests enjoyed a buffet dinner. Assisting in serving and wearing aprons of white trimmed with purple, were Nola Higdon, Janice Robinson, Christine Tucker, Gary Nichols, Marlin Causey, and Glen Allison.

Between the main course and dessert a duet "How Long Must We Wait?" was sung by Mrs. Marion Bieh and Mrs. Ben McCollum.

Mrs. Edwin Boothby, incoming president was introduced with her new officers and Mrs. E. M. Causey presented each with a Scripture reference and a challenge for the new year.

There were 56 guests in attendance.

Fort Rock

By ROBERTA McGEE The public is invited to attend the Fort Rock Carnival and Bazaar at the Grange Hall the evening of Nov. 1. The event is sponsored by the Fort Rock Grade School and Fort Rock Grange to help raise funds to purchase a duplicating machine to be used by the school and the community. The program will start at 8 p.m. with school children presenting a Halloween play. Here's a chance to do a bit of Christmas shopping early at bargain prices. Merchandise is being donated by different merchants and people of this community. Anyone wishing to make a donation may do so by contacting Hazel Ward, general chairman, or myself.

Saturday night, Oct. 25, there will be a Jamboree held at the Valley Falls Grange. There will be square dancing and potluck supper. There is no contest involved, just a good old Jamboree to have lots of fun. There is no admission fee.

Barbara Mattis, Fort Rock, and Bud Baert, Silver Lake, were married Oct. 11 at Lake Tahoe. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mattis and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Baert, Silver Lake. The young couple plan on making their home at Silver Lake after hunting season. At present they are staying with the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Stingley, Eagle Point, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ward and family and Charley Stingley Oct. 8. While here they did some hunting and Mrs. Stingley used to live here at Loma Vista about 1922 and Laverne went to school with Edith Piche and Hazel Ward at Fremont. They also visited their old homestead which is now owned by Roy Morehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stingley, Roseburg, spent the weekend of Oct. 4, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ward and Charley Stingley.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grindstaff and family and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Tatro and grandson Burt Swingle all of Lakeview spent the weekend of Oct. 11-12 visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Branch. While here they went hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Chub Frazee and Mrs. Donald McGee and David were business visitors in Bend and Redmond Oct. 14. On the way home we stopped and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cary Stearns at Lappin.

Mrs. Laura Webber arrived here from Eagle Point Oct. 15. While here she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Branch.

It froze here the evening of Oct. 13 but there was little damage. The days are nice and sunny but it rained here some over the weekend of Oct. 18-19.
