

OWLS, SOCCER CLASH TONIGHT

DANCIN' DON FOREMAN

... he'll romp tonight against Red Raiders

Oregon Tech Favored In Homecoming Pigskin Tiff

By RED HURD

The Oregon Tech-Southern Oregon grid clash, main event on a busy OTH Homecoming program, shows tonight at 8 o'clock on Modoc Field.

A local football victory will climax the most successful Homecoming program to date.

The boys who bat the odds around say that victory is as much a cinch as it can be in the game of football where the ball sometimes takes queer bounces.

Oregon Tech has the horses, far too many for the undermanned Red Raiders of Ashland.

The teams are even in the psychology corner—Southern Oregon wants to win to keep intact its grand slam over the Owls, three wins in as many outings; Oretch is looking for its first triumph over the Raiders and are somewhat irked over last year's brushoff when Southern Oregon officials cancelled a scheduled Thanksgiving Day game.

The game will have all the rah-rah and collegiate glamor that tests, including fetching Margie Davis, queen of the affair in the center ring along with her five pretty princesses.

In games to date for both schools just one comparison can be made: Oregon Tech, far from top form in its opening game, spluttered over Humboldt State, 7-6. The Lumberjacks of Arcata, Calif., no doubt vastly improved over its performance against Oretch, rammyeckled the Raiders, 50-0.

If you're a score-gazer, here's the run-down on the rest of the season's outings for both pigskin clubs:

Southern Oregon was beaten also by Chico State (6-33) and Linfield (0-27) but whipped Eastern Oregon (23-19) and Oregon College (26-13).

The Owls' other wins are over Contra Costa JC (35-28), Portland State (54-0) and Weber College of Ogden, Utah (13-0). They fumbled away a game to Santa Rosa JC (0-19).

Added up, that's a 2-3 record for Southern Oregon, 4-1 for OTH.

It will be a homecoming, also, for two of the Southern Oregon lads, Morris Jimenez and Chick Quinowski. Jimenez, playing in his second year for the Raiders, is considered one of the best small-college guards in the state.

PLAYS END

Quinowski, also an ex-Klamath Union High School boy, will be remembered as a quarterback for the Pels last season. He's at end for SOC.

On the sad side for Southern Oregon, halfback Dave Shearer is out with broken ribs; halfback Keith Johnson played his last game against Humboldt, he's now in the Army; end Leroy Springer quit school to work; quarterback Jerry Leslie, who played a bang-up game against Eastern Oregon, didn't show for the OCE and Humboldt games and is probably through for the season.

Oregon Tech defensive end Don McIntosh will be out with injuries and guard Paul Patrick will probably see just limited action for the same reason.

Lloyd Fisher will probably get Leslie's job at quarterback for Southern Oregon. Jim Owens and Don Briggs are battling for one halfback position, while Ray Rodriguez has the other halfback position in SOC's single wing.

Ron Maurer, moved from halfback to fullback, has been Southern Oregon's main running threat.

The same backfield that started against both Weber and Portland State will probably get opening assignments for the Owls.

Gino Lelli is at quarterback, Don Foreman and Len Genett at halfbacks and Larry Jeter at fullback.

Pirates Scuttle Axemen

By JIM COUR

Associated Press Sports Writer

Marshfield's No. 1 team, came from behind with four touchdowns in the second half to defeat Eugene, 29-6, in the feature game of Oregon high school football play Friday night.

There were no major upsets, although previously unbeaten Prineville, ranked No. 7 in this week's Associated Press poll, bowed to Bend, 20-14. Bend was tied for No. 10 in the poll. Eugene was No. 8.

All others in the top 10 came through undefeated, but some had narrow squeaks.

Marshfield's ferocious offensive was tamed in the first half by Eugene, which led 6-0 at intermission. But the Pirates' slashing backs ripped Eugene's defense to shreds in the second half, and they tore out their seventh consecutive victory.

FIRST SCORE
Stan Lewis romped 32 yards to the first Marshfield touchdown, Spike Hillstrom added the next two and Larry Farr the fourth.

Marshfield now needs only to defeat north Bend to clinch the District 5 championship in Class 1 and a place in the state play-offs. That may take some doing, though, north Bend, tied for No. 10 in the AP poll, looked impressive in swamping Roseburg, 47-6.

Central Catholic, the No. 2 team, also recorded its seventh straight victory but only a touchdown in the last three minutes preserved its perfect record. The Rams edged Columbia Prep, 6-0, in the traditional annual tough battle between Portland's two biggest Catholic schools.

BOOTH WIN
Jefferson and Grant, No. 5 and 4, respectively in the poll, registered impressive wins in Portland league games. Jefferson clinched the city championship and one of the league's two state play-off spots by trouncing Washington, 21-0. Grant, which lost its league lead and a place in the state play-off when it forfeited four victories earlier this week, took out its disappointment on Franklin, crushing the Axemen, 27-0.

Franklin or Benson, which lost 24-13 to Cleveland, will be the Portland league's other play-off representative.

Hillsboro got the biggest scare of any of the top 10 teams, trailing the Spartans, pushed over the tying touchdown in the fourth quarter and Vince Heinrich pieced-kicked the conversion that gave them a 7-6 win over West Linn.

UNLAKEN
Hillsboro, ranked No. 6, and unbeaten in seven games, can clinch the District 4 title by defeating or tying Forest Grove next week end.

The Dalles, ranked No. 9, secured at least a tie for the District 7 championship by edging La Grande, 19-12. It can win the title by taking its remaining game with Hermiston. Baker lost to Nampa, Idaho, 29-8, in a non-district contest.

Albany, which needs only one victory to tie for the District 8 title, was swamped by Springfield, 31-7, in a non-district game.

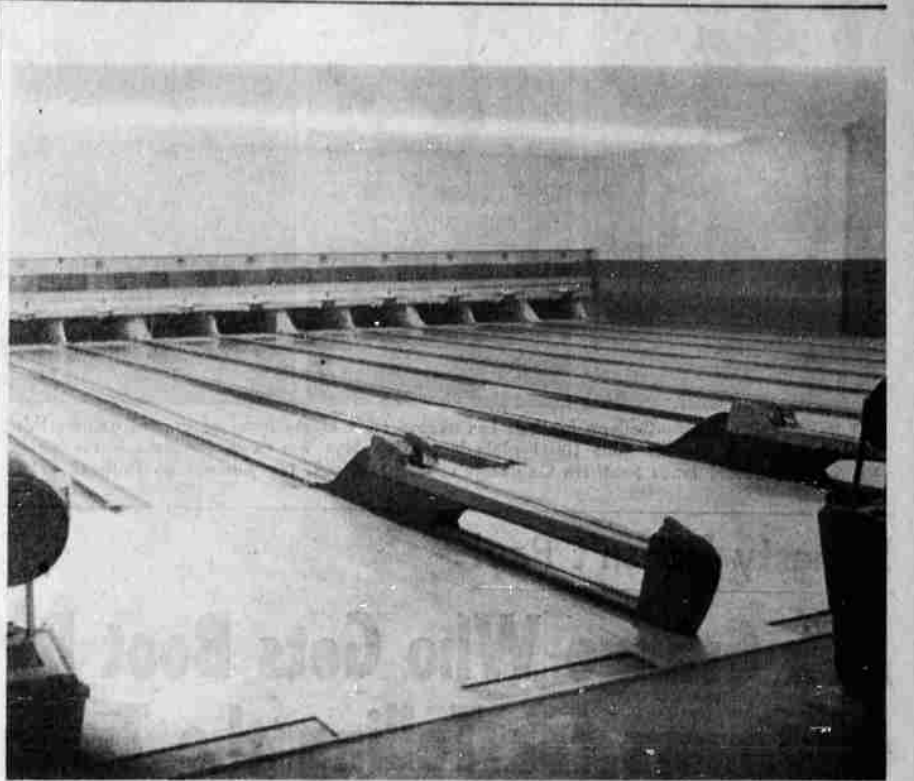

Gresham, Central Catholic's only contender for District 3 honors, beat Milwaukie, 13-7.

In Class 2, Wy-East held Lake Oswego to a 13-13 tie, allowing Columbia Prep to back into the eastern sub-district championship by squeezing past Rainier, the only other contender, 14-12.

Willamina, the favorite in District 3, bounced Albany, 20-0, and Central Union of Monmouth defeated Willamette of Eugene, 18-0, in non-district affairs. Sheridan won a 26-0 district victory from Sherwood, both Willamina and Sheridan are unbeaten and tied.

In District 4, Mt. Angel grabbed the lead by tripping previously unbeaten Silverton, 14-0. Sandy trounced Woodburn, 25-6. Molalla beat Canby, 13-0, and Estacada edged Dallas, 7-6.

Redmond defeated Madras, 13-6, in a District 8 game.

TEN OF THE TWELVE brand new alleys are shown in this picture taken by Herald and News Photographer Don Kettler. The new bowling plant—Lucky Lanes—opens Monday.

Klamath's Bowling Center Ready; Opening Monday

A modern bowling establishment for years has been a crying need in Klamath Falls.

Now it's here.

The 12-ally ten-pin plant, called Lucky Lanes, opens Monday 3 p.m. for public inspection.

Mayor Bob Thompson will officiate at ribbon-cutting ceremonies at 7:30 p.m.—he'll roll the first ball down the mapleway — after which the alleys will be open to public bowling.

A week later, Nov. 3, league bowling will start.

Free ice cream and coffee will also be offered to the public beginning hours at the new ultramodern kegling center at S. Sixth and Arthur.

In addition to the 12 alleys, the plant also has elaborate fountain service and six pool tables—five billiard tables and one for snooker.

Co-Managers Sarge Moss and Clive Bennett said more recreation equipment would be added later but at all times it will be a "good, clean recreation center for the whole family, the only one of its kind in the Klamath Basin."

Twelve leagues are straining at the leash and will have one week to limber up for the Nov. 3 start of league play.

The 12 leagues now in the fold—there may be some added later—are Fraternal, Ten-Pinets, Alley Katz, Commercial, Automotive, Moose Pa's, Moose Ma's, Ladybug, Classic, Industrial, Transportation and City.

Presidents and secretaries of all leagues are urged to attend the final organizational meeting Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., at the bowling center.

Free bowling instruction for beginners will be given Tuesday through Friday. Instruction hours are 2 to 3 p.m. and 6 to 7 p.m.

What happened during the first half?

Broncos Edge Idaho On Daly's Field Goal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 19-year field goal by place-kicking expert John Daly gave the Santa Clara Broncos a 9-7 victory Friday night over the Idaho Vandals in the penultimate inter-sectional football game.

Daly split the uprights with the deciding three-pointer in the third period after both teams had capitalized on recovered fumbles to score a touchdown apiece.

Idaho scooped up a Santa Clara bobble in the second period to take over on the Bronco 25. Left half Dick Pickett went over from seven yards out four plays later and Ray Buhler converted.

Before the end of the quarter, Santa Clara turned the tables with a fumble recovery on Idaho's 26 yard line. Quarterback Duane Louis passed to end Gern Nagler in the end zone after the Bronco drive stalled one yard away from pay dirt. Daly missed the try for point.

The score stood 7-6 Idaho until Frank Hare, Santa Clara defensive half, intercepted a Vandal pass and galloped 26 yards to the Idaho 42.

The Broncos drove to the 11 where Idaho stiffened and Daly made his field goal on a fourth down play.

Both teams were penalized seven times for a total of 85 yards. Idaho's Coach Ray Curfman became so incensed over some of the decisions he ran onto the field twice to argue with the officials.

George McCarty, Idaho tackle from Spokane, suffered a minor throat bruise early in the game and was hospitalized overnight for observation.

Rickey To Get Honorary Degree

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Bethune-Cookman College will award an honorary doctor of humanities degree Nov. 1 to Branch Rickey Sr., who brought the Negro into major league baseball.

Dr. Richard V. Moore, president of Bethune-Cookman, a Negro college here, said Rickey will receive the degree during ceremonies at Bethune-Cookman's homecoming football game with Florida A & M College.

Rickey was general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers when he employed Jackie Robinson, the first Negro in modern major league baseball. Rickey is now executive vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Pirates Sign Jerry Cade

EUGENE, (AP) — Jerry Cade, 20-year-old pitcher who played with Vancouver of the Western International League last season, was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League Friday.

Howard Haake, the Pirates' West Coast scout, said Cade will be paid a bonus next July. Terms were not revealed. The young pitcher will report to the Pittsburgh training camp at San Bernardino, Calif., in March.

HAWK FELS BAT

FRANKFORT, Ind. (AP) — Bats swooped into the Frankfort Times composing room and unnerved the compositors for several nights in a row. Then one of the "flying mice" made the mistake of venturing on into the news room, where it was telled by a firmly rolled copy of the newspaper. The marksmen was Merl Hawk.

Southpaw pitcher Dick Rosek has been with the Cleveland Indians three seasons. On the last day of this season he won his first major league game.

Horse Show Opens Today

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania National Horse Show opens a week long run Saturday with what was claimed as the nation's largest and richest display of horsemanship.

More than 600 horses, valued at more than a million dollars, were stabled at the spacious State Farm show arena where the equine extravaganza continues through next Saturday.

Beaver-Cougar Game Toss-up

PULLMAN (AP) — Two also-rans in the Pacific Coast Conference, Oregon State and Washington State, collided here Saturday afternoon in a gridiron game rated a toss-up.

The disappointing Cougars, preseason favorites to be one of the West Coast football powers, have yet to win a game. The OSC Beavers have one victory under their belts.

Two Lea Runs Last Race Today

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — Two Lea, the female pride of the Calumet Farm, closes out a great career Saturday in the $50,000 Bay Meadows Handicap.

The six-year-old daughter of Bull Lea, who will be opposed by seven of the Pacific Coast's top distance horses, will be retired to Calumet's Kentucky farms for breeding purposes after the race.

Winner of $299,250 in her relatively brief career, Two Lea probably will be the odds-on choice of some 20,000 fans for the mile and a quarter feature that closes out 41 days of racing at Bay Meadows.

Husky Frosh Rout Rooks

CORVALLIS (AP) — Led by Mike Monroe and Sandy Lederman, the unbeaten Washington freshman football team scuttled the Oregon State College Rooks here Friday, 58-0.

Monroe scored three touchdowns and gained 100 yards from scrimmage. Lederman completed 14 of 21 passes for 205 yards. The Husky yearlings amassed a total of 602 yards from rushing and passing as they scored at least twice in every quarter.

Ducks Picked Over Montana

EUGENE (AP) — The Oregon Ducks are favored to make it six straight over Montana Saturday afternoon in their non-conference football encounter. Each has won only a single game this season. Montana formerly belonged to the Pacific Coast Conference, but is now a member of the Skyline Conference. Kickoff time is 1:30 p. m.
