

"I LIKE IKE" . . . was the theme of the luncheon given by Mrs. Bob Ferguson and Mrs. Bill Mazzie in the Ponderosa Room Oct. 17, the day of the Republican "coffee hour" in the show room of the Balsiger Motor Company. Invitations stipulated that guests go to the coffee hour to greet Mrs. McKay, first lady of Oregon.

THE HOSTESSES . . . at the "I Like Ike" luncheon in the Willard Hotel Ponderosa Room were from California . . . out of town guests who reversed the order of entertaining. Mrs. Ferguson, left, (in the threesome), Mrs. Paul Dalton, guest of honor, center; and Mrs. Mazzie.

At the table, from the left, Mrs. Richard Currin, Mrs. Mazzie, Mrs. R. E. Wilkerson, Mrs. Neil Black, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. R. E. Wizner, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Laurence Brown, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. Lee Stoner, Mrs. Elbert Stiles and Mrs. Ferguson. Carrying out the theme miniature elephants in small arrangements of autumn leaves and flowers were favors at each place.

CI Club Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—Members of the Civic Improvement Club met in the clubhouse Friday afternoon, Oct. 17, for the regular bi-monthly meeting; and during the business session, voted to contribute again this year to the annual Community Chest fund during the drive, now underway in Klamath County.

Committees were appointed to make arrangements for the dinner to be given by the Club, Saturday Oct. 25, when the local postmaster, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain, will be hostess to members of the Klamath County Postmasters' Association of which she is president.

In charge of menu and kitchen details are Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Bert Gray and Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Floyd Nicholson and Mrs. Donald P. Vestch will arrange the tables, supervise decorations and dining room; and Mrs. William Brewer will act as cashier. Each person attending will pay for his own dinner, proceeds to go to the club treasury.

Plans for redecorating the club dining room and main room were discussed, and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley was appointed to secure an estimate of necessary material, etc., and report the results of her findings at the next club meeting.

Mrs. Frank Strahan announced that on Halloween, Friday, Oct. 31, Fort Klamath Scout Pack 24 will hold its second annual Halloween frolic and party in the clubhouse. Prizes will be awarded for various types costumes and games will be played. Refreshments of doughnuts, apple cider and coffee will be served by the scouts.

Local scoutmaster is Frank Strahan, and the C. I. club is sponsoring organization for all three Scout groups, including Cub and Boy Scouts and the Explorer group. Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the Halloween fun as guests of the Scouts, Mrs. Strahan emphasized.

Meeting was adjourned, and a sale of white elephant articles worn to the meeting by club members proved highly successful. An article outlining the dangers of hard surface school playgrounds was read by Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, club program chairman, after which refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. Frank Strahan and Mrs. James F. Van Wormer. On the tables and about the rooms of the clubhouse were lovely arrangements of brilliantly colored autumn leaves.

Members present were: Mrs. William Brewer and her daughter Daria Dee, Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Orla Erickson, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Jess Rightmeyer, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Katherine Nichols, honorary club member visiting from Susanville; Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and son Roger; Mrs. Donald P. Vestch, and the hostesses.

ON HAND for fall and winter are these new gloves—keyed to ready-to-wear fashions. Striped gloves (upper left) are brand new, are pure wool, come in many color combinations. Lattice treatment is used (lower left) for four-button double woven cotton gloves. Both new and unusual (center) is this glaze leather shortie mottled with color. Shown here is the pale yellow against black. Melon treatment appears (upper right) on white, six-button gloves in hand sewn cotton. A new fashion angle is provided (right center) in these blond cotton gloves with oblique line and single, covered button.

By CORA LEAVITT

Jim Wakefield has purchased the Union Oil business from Bill Jones, and will be moving with his wife and two children to make their home in Bonanza, Nov. 1. Their son is in the second grade. Jimmy has lots of friends in the community made when he worked for Union Oil before going into the armed forces in 1940.

The community was deeply grieved over the death of Ruth Ann Bradshaw who was killed in a car wreck Oct. 19, while returning from the Merrill Festival dance. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bradshaw. Her mother has been bedfast for several months with a badly broken leg and Ruth was caring for her mother and little brother while attending school at Bonanza. Dearest sympathy is extended the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Carr spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, at the school Oct. 27, Everyone invited.

Mrs. Sadie Bray fell from the porch at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Simmons, and cut her leg so deeply it required 24 stitches to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Robertson, Seaside, spent several days in Bonanza visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snidt have bought the house owned by Mrs. Lena Horton and will make their home in Bonanza. He is a government trapper.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mathews and children were here from Coos Bay visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gladys Kilgore, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Kilgore has received word that her nephew, Gilbert Joyce, is now out of the hospital where he was confined for sometime. Gilbert is a paratrooper stationed in North Carolina.

Birthday Party For Boy In Bed

KLAMATH AGENCY—Ian Wilder celebrated his seventh birthday last week in the hospital bed in his own home. All the children from the Agency were invited in for the late afternoon to help Ian celebrate. Ian, who was seriously injured at the Oregon coast in the late summer, has been in a double cast until recently, when one cast was removed.

Attending the party given by Ian's mother, Mrs. F. D. Wilder, were Janell and Orville Knight-pipe, Norma and Arland Souers, Barbara and Phyllis Sisson, Allen Mezer, Lyle and Mary Margaret Kensler, Dennis Briggs, Betty and Dick Rogers, and Ian's sister, Sharon and brothers Gregory, Eric and Hugh.

MEETING OF SOROPTIMIST

Soroptimist Club at their regular meeting Thursday learned the pros and cons of the various initiative and referendum measures to appear on the ballot in the coming election. Attorney Don Piper, speaker of the day, was introduced by Chairman Rita DePew, who said that he would have to be better than a Philadelphia lawyer to explain to the club both sides of legislative bills to be voted on Nov. 4. He was pleased by the interest shown by the Soroptimists in learning to vote intelligently.

Maudie Gooley gave a committee report about the Christmas gifts to be sent to the Soroptimist Club at Brighton and Hove, England.

Anneli Uherek announced the program for the United Nations Day to be held Nov. 6.

The special prizes were won by Ofa Smith and Ella Redkey.
