

Spartans Stick To Top Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—Mighty Michigan State, with three complete backfields and a 35-point-a-game offense, continues to roll along as the No. 1 team in the land.

Coach Blagje Tamu's monsters have been voted best in the land by 121 sportswriters and broadcasters in the Associated Press poll. Except for the second week of the poll when Wisconsin held sway briefly, Michigan State has dominated the poll ever since the pre-season voting.

Saturday's 34-7 thumping of previously undefeated Penn State brought the Spartans 38 first-place votes and a total of 1,042 points on a basis of 10 for first, nine for second and so on down the line.

Despite Michigan State's impressive game, second-place Maryland kept a little closer on the strength of its 34-6 win over Louisiana State. The Terrapins, who trailed Michigan State by 56 votes last week, cut the margin to 26 as they piled up 32 first-place votes and 1,016 points.

Oklahoma, even more potent offensively than Michigan State with an average of 42 points a game, also closed some ground but stayed in third place with 20 first place votes and 850 points.

Behind the Big Three were Georgia Tech, Southern California, Duke and UCLA, all close and bunched, with three newcomers to the top 10 filling the last three places—Purdue, Kansas and Villanova.

Georgia Tech moved up one place after hopping Vanderbilt, 30-0, while USC jumped two places thanks to the 10-0 upset of California, last week's No. 4 team. The defeat knocked California down to 11th.

Fighters Bump Heads, Get Draw

TRENTON, N. J.—Two fighters stepped into the ring here Monday night, each hoping to win the New Jersey lightweight championship.

As it turned out, neither one did. The referee declared a double technical knockout in the fourth round after the two—Gene Takach of Trenton and Charlie Blaugher of Westfield—bumped heads, resulting in facial cuts.

Dr. George A. Corio examined the fighters and ruled they were unfit to continue. Referee Joe Kukul then declared it a double TKO in 1:08, which amounts to calling the fight a draw.

Fiero Decked For Idaho Game

PULLMAN, Wash.—Five Washington State players were on the sidelines during preliminary fight workouts Monday for Saturday's traditional football clash with Idaho.

Trainer Vernon Walters said only one of them will be out of the lineup for the Idaho game. Guard Art Fiero, senior from Seattle, twisted a knee in the Oregon State game last Saturday. Walters said Fiero may not see action until the Oregon contest Nov. 8.

Senior Golf Champ Leads

PINEHURST, N.C.—Some 200 seniors, from 55 to 60 years of age, continued their attack on the Nos. 1 and 2 courses of the Pinehurst Country Club Tuesday but the chief interest was focused on the select 32 who made the championship group of the inaugural North and South Senior Invitation golf tournament.

Headed by 60-year-old Thomas C. Robbins of Larchmont, N. Y., winner of the U. S. Seniors tournament this year and last, the 32 low scorers in Monday's 230-man qualifying round moved into match play.

Robbins, one of the last to finish in the qualifying round, came in with a one-under par 69 for top honors.

C. J. Farley of Grand Rapids, Mich., first man to tee off in the morning, had posted a 72 that stood up for several hours as the low score.

Zulueta Upsets Paddy DeMarco

BROOKLYN—In a drab affair, Orlando Zulueta of Havana evened an old score with Paddy DeMarco Monday night by taking a 10-round split decision from the Brooklyn bully boy at the Eastern Parkway Arena.

Using his left jab to good effect, Zulueta hung up the 14th upset in 23 main events at the Arena.

Ken Brown Sidelined

CORVALLIS, Ore.—A back injury suffered in last week's game with Washington State will keep halfback Ken Brown out of the Oregon State-Washington contest at Portland Saturday.

Pitt 'Iron Man' Never Played Prep

PITTSBURGH—What does a college football coach do if he needs a 60 minute iron man? Pick out the player with the most experience? The toughest guy on the squad? Last year's star?

Not Lowell (Red) Dawson of the University of Pittsburgh. His "Iron Man" is shy Eldred "Al" Kraemer, a giant 215-pound tackle who never played a game of football in high school.

But so far this season, the 23-year-old sophomore has played the whole game against Iowa, Notre Dame, Army and West Virginia and 54 minutes against Oklahoma. In these days of platoon football this is unusual but Kraemer loves every minute of it.

WANTED TO PLAY "I wanted to play football in high school but we didn't have a team," said Kraemer. "In fact I only saw one game—a high school contest—until I entered the service."

"I was always big (that's no exaggeration—he's got hands like hams and a 6-2 frame) and when I got the chance to play in the Navy—well that did it."

Kraemer, a native of Clearlake, Minn., tasted cleats for the first time in 1949-50 with the Navy's San Diego Submarine Eleven coached by Commander Slade Custer, ex-Navy tackle.

UPSETS Dawson's eleven has a 3-2 record to date, including upsets over Notre Dame and Army and a 16-0 shut-out by an underdog West Virginia University team.

Kraemer's still got two more years before he completes his studies for a mining engineering degree. And with Pitt riding the comeback trail—big Al Kraemer should get his fill of football.

Curfman Stresses Offense in Drills

MOSCOW, Idaho—Coach Babe Curfman emphasized offense in Idaho's opening drills Monday for Saturday's meeting with the Vandals' ancient football rival, Washington State College.

Curfman said the Vandals, who have lost to the Cougars every year since 1925, are confident this will be the year they will break the jinx.

Idaho hasn't won a game in 1952 but the losses were by narrow margins and the Vandals blamed poor officiating for two of them. WSC's only win was over Oregon State last week.

Little Says 'Army' Has Arrived

NEW YORK—Addressing the regular Monday meeting of the Football Crying Society at one of the better class beereries, Coach Lou Little of Columbia devoted himself at some length to a warning that Army will be back among the nation's gridiron titans by this time next fall.

As the Lion mentor indicated, this will be a quite remarkable feat on the part of Coach Earl Blaik, as the Cadets now are only in their second season since they lost virtually their entire squad through the cribbing expose.

Despite the fact that the Lions gained a 14-14 tie by virtue of a last-minute touchdown pass on Saturday, Little unhesitatingly classed Army as "the best team we have played this year." As Columbia's previous foe lost to Princeton and Penn, this statement took in considerable terrain.

"The job Blaik has done with this set of youngsters is, in my opinion, the best he has ever done," Little declared. "That takes in the years when he had his great undefeated teams and when he was named coach of the year. It's no great thing to turn out a fine team when you have the material, but it is when you start with what Earl did in this instance."

"I hear Georgia Tech has a tremendous team, and I don't know whether they're doing much worrying down there about their game against Army next week in Atlanta, but I know if it was me I would start to do a little worrying. These Army kids have terrific all-around speed, they are beautifully coached and a pleasure to watch.

"You can get a fairly good line on them now. Of their 22-0 loss to Southern California early in the season, you saw what Southern Cal did to California the other day, and up to that time California was supposed to be one of the best in the country. Army is a lot better now than it was two weeks ago, or even one week back."

"This halfback of Blaik's who scored the two touchdowns against us, Fred Attaya, can really carry the ball, and by next year I predict that Mario DeLucia will be one of the country's outstanding full-backs. I understand that they have some real good boys coming up from their present pipe-line too. What I mean is that Army isn't just showing signs of coming back—it's practically here right now."
