

OTI Homecoming

Last week Oregon Tech's week-long Homecoming activities were capped by an 89-0 football victory over Southern Oregon Saturday night. All week long it was dancing, feasting, laughing and just plain fun for the students on the mile-high campus, with lovely Queen Margie Davis ruler over the whole shebang. Herald and News Photographer Don Kettler caught most of the gayety with his camera as shown in these eight pictures: (1) Student Body President Dan Barnes (third from left) chats with three OTI grads home for the festivities. Lsf to right, they are Marvin Juhl and Edwin Patzer, Helena, Mont., and Lloyd Holmen, Portland. (2) Head Football Coach Rex Hunsaker chats at the Homecoming banquet with Director and Mrs. Winston Purvine. (3) Princesses Betty Starr and Sally McMahon engage in light banter with Ward Hillerich after the latter entertained banquetees with a pantomime on Jimmy Durante. (4) Yell-leader Orville Bruton tries to squeeze out another touchdown Saturday night (as if the Owls didn't get enough, 13 of them). (5) Jim McIntosh crashes through the Southern Oregon line for a sizeable gain in one bit of action. (6) Queen Margie, trips the light fantastic with Jackie Hinkle at the post-game dance. (7) Bob French, student chairman of the Homecoming committee, trips the light fantastic with Jackie Hinkle at the post-game dance. (8) Wednesday night Queen Margie and her royal court were guests of Mack Lillard at the wrestling matches and posed with giant Primo Cornero. Left to right, the girls are Queen Margie, Princesses Darlene Hadley, Sally McMahon, Janet Beason, Betty Starr and Joan Wellington.
