CONGER-FAIRVIEW
 Lessons on repair of innerspring for the Conger-Fairview home extension units occupied two days of work under guidance of leaders, Mrs. Fred Speer and Mrs. Roy Huggins. Both meetings were well attended.

Pottluck at the first meeting was followed by a white elephant drawing won by Mrs. George Alder.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Gerald Gwyn, chairman; Mrs. William Moore, vice-chairman and Mrs. Robert Reddard, secretary-treasurer.

Standing committees were appointed as follows: Membership and Hospitality, Mrs. Gene Woods; Luncheon, Mrs. Gilbert Ballantyne; Recreation, Mrs. H. O. Thompson; Publicity, Mrs. J. B. McCarty; Standard Unit, Mrs. William Moore and Azalea House, Mrs. Roy Huggins.

The program planning meeting was attended by Mrs. William Moore and Mrs. Gerald Gwyn.

The next regular meeting will be Nov. 6 and 7 at the fairgrounds. The demonstration on aluminum trays will be led by Mrs. Ted Moore and Mrs. John Mathews.

FAIRVIEW
 By MRS. B. M. SIMON

Highlights of the Oct. 23 meeting of the Fairview PTA were interesting and colorful pictures of the Rogue River. These pictures were taken by Ella Redkey on a Girl Scout camping trip. It was a 6 day trip with 45 miles of hiking and a 30 mile boat trip. These slides were interesting as well as scenic.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. O. E. Powell, President. Rummage sale chairman, Mrs. A. W. Dannelley made a report about the recent sale and how well it went. Also thanking everyone for their cooperation.

Mrs. R. H. Kramenburg, Membership Chairman made a report on the membership drive which is now underway. Halloween party plans were discussed. The Rotary Club is sponsoring this. Because of the evening football game the party will be held after school in each grade room.

Magazine chairman, Mrs. Roy Willbanks, gave a report on subscriptions to the PTA Magazine "National Parent Teacher," urging every one to get their subscription in to a very worthwhile magazine. The Secretary, Mrs. Cecil Hagreen, read a report from B. M. Simon, Institutional Representative of the Cub Pack, the first organization meeting to be held for interested parents Oct. 27 in the school auditorium 7:30 p.m.

Hal Gieger, Legislative chairman, introduced Carol Howe, County Superintendent of Schools. Howe discussed the School Reorganization bill explaining the changes that would be made and benefits to us.

Room count prize was won by Irma Wauchope's 2nd grade room and door prize by Mrs. Cecile Garrison.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the 7th grade room mothers. Chairmen of the group are Mrs. Laurhammer and Mrs. James Hall. The tables were attractively decorated in a Halloween motif.

AID TO DRY SKIN
 With cooler weather, skin often tends to seem drier. Use bath oil when you bathe; put a few drops of it in the bath water, rub some of it on your skin. You'll like the lovely but subtle scent which clings to your skin, too.

Today's Women

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Campaigners of both major parties say that one of the most remarkable things in this campaign is the enthusiastic participation of women who in the past left politics up to their husbands.

For the first time in history more women than men have registered to vote this year in New York City. The board of elections announced there are 1,761,148 registered women voters in the city, as compared with 1,754,849 men.

From the Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls who are volunteering as baby sitters for mothers who want to go to the polls, to octogenarians who are having a whale of a good time getting their first taste of active politics, the women are making their presence felt this time.

Typical of the new attitude is Mrs. Donald McDonald, a young mother of Dumont, N.J., whose husband is an active member of the local campaign committee.

Unable to volunteer for doorbell-ringing or sound-truck speaking because she is tied down at home caring for her baby, Mrs. McDonald thought up a way she could help at home. She invited 20 neighbors in for an evening of doughnuts, coffee and political discussion, pledging each to go home and invite 20 more people to a similar party, the object being to sign up all guests for similar parties, ad infinitum. Says she:

"This chain reaction party technique can really get into astronomical figures, even in the short time remaining before election."

PRETTY TOUCH

A simple pretty glaze for fruit cakes is made by bringing corn syrup to a full boil and then spreading or brushing over the surface of the cake. Decorate as desired with blanched toasted almonds, candied fruits and peels and dried fruits.
