

Sprague Road Paving Slated

A nine-mile stretch of the Sprague River road, from the town of Sprague River out to the junction with Oregon 66, is to be paved next year, according to present planning.

It is a state secondary highway, and an agreement for the improvement of the bad stretch of the road was announced by Ed Gowen, county commissioner.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, State Highway Commission and Klamath County Court, will bear the cost of the project, estimated at around $97,000.

The federal agency is to stand 60 per cent of the cost, the state and county 20 per cent each, Gowen said.

The highway commission will call for bids and let the contract. Another highway improvement job planned for the next year under a similar agreement is the paving of the Bonanza cutoff which connects Oregon 66 with Bonanza highway.

Estimated cost of that project is around $45,000, and the distance is some six miles.

The Sprague River road, running through the Indian reservation to link US 97 with Oregon 66, is paved from Chiloquin to within two miles of the town of Sprague River now.

Highlights At KUHS

By HAROLD MCKAY

In the student congress meeting held yesterday Matt Del Fatti, KUHS business manager, announced that the price of student body cards will be reduced in the future. The price of the cards from November to January inclusive will be $3 and they will be reduced 50 cents every month thereafter until they reach the rock bottom price of $2 in March. After the end of March no cards will be sold.

Up to this time only 774 cards have been sold. The price was reduced in an effort to realize some return on the investment in the cards.

Sacred Heart Notebook

By MARY EGAN

"Heap Big Smoke, but no fire! Him want score go higher, higher!"

These words rang out and around Sacred Heart today as the students participated in a pep rally for the game with the Chiloquin Panthers this afternoon on the opponents field. The rally was conducted on the school grounds, with the students forming a large circle with the cheerleaders in the center leading the yells. Consequently, it was with high spirits that the team and their boosters departed for the final 2 p. m. bout of the season.

Being that tonight is Halloween, there will be no after-game dance.

Pollsters See Slim Ike Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Three of the nation's top political poll-takers say that, as of now, it looks as if Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will command a slight lead in the popular vote on election day.

But the pollsters—Dr. George Gallup, Archibald M. Crossley and Elmo Roper—say this prediction must be tempered by the question: How fast is Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson catching up?

The consensus of the poll-takers came out Thursday at a meeting of the New York chapter of the American Marketing Association, and the dominant mood of all three of them was: Caution.

They were remembering the way the voters upset their 1948 predictions that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey would beat President Truman.

And although they said they've corrected their methods since then, they still were wary about estimating the outcome.

None was willing, yet, to predict what the electoral vote will be, although all said their latest findings indicate an Eisenhower popular-vote victory.

However, there has been a recent trend toward Stevenson, they said, and they haven't determined to what extent it will count by Nov. 4.

Crossley said the big headache is the undecided category. He estimated 10 per cent of the voters are in this group.

Roper said he had found that a lot of voters were "in basic conflict" on such problems as whether they preferred a more popular candidate with a less popular party, or a less popular candidate with a more popular party.

As of Oct. 15, he said 19 per cent of the questionnaires he had received revealed such conflict, but that this percentage had been reduced from 31 per cent since mid-September.

Gallup said his organization, the American Institute of Public Opinion, is making its final poll, and will publicize the results Monday.

Tonight at 6:30 the bonfire was scheduled to get underway out on Kit Carson Way. The "K" club, and the rally squad went to quite a bit of work to gather the stuff to be burned and then build the fire. Most of the work was done today, but a little of the fire was built yesterday after school.

The boys who were out of school to build the fire were: Bill Chambers, Lewis Fredrickson, Willard Graham, Clayton Hanson, Bill Harlan, Dick Hilton, Pat Kittredge, Ron Larson, Harold McKay, Don Mills, Clinton Mills, Lyle Mills, Ing Montgomery Tom Moore, Ron Owings, Joe Quinowski, Claire Shiffman, Dick Swanson, and George Vlahos.

Everybody be out there on Kit Carson Way tonight and make this bonfire rally the biggest in the history of the school. This year the students and townspeople of Klamath have something to cheer for. If the team wins tonight they will take the district title. So everyone, be out at the rally and then go to the game and cheer the Pelicans on to victory—we hope.

Sacred Heart charm bracelets for the girls and tie clasps for the boys are being sold by the annual staff at the present time. The proceeds from the attractive jewelry will go towards the Atrium.

Students are exceptionally glad to see this week come to an end, as it also brings to an end the exams for the first nine weeks of school. Now comes the period of suspense and worry to await the verdicts on those things called report cards.
