First six weeks' honor roll for the Chemult upper six grades reads as follows: Kay Heglund, 12th grade, Jackie Schroeder and Frieda Kirk, 11th grades, Dick Siemens and Gary Heglund, 9th, and Michael Ravizza, 7th. Those on the honorable mention were Carroll Wilson, 12th, Ted Siemens, 11th, Linda Pope and Susan Ravizza, 10th, Bernice Erickson, 9th, Myrna Kensler, Beverly David, Carmen Hill, and Leroy Thompson, 8th, Louise Heglund, Clay Miller, and George Swanson, 7th graders.

Juniors of the high school are publishing the school paper this year with Twila Knistippe chosen as editor of the Panther staff and her assistants as follows: Marvin Stubblefield and Jack Barney, sports; Merry Hayes, school calendar; Elaine Jackson, treasurer; council member, George Swanson; Margaret Molitor is class advisor. Mrs. Henry Spicer, 8th grade advisor, announced the following officers for that grade: Marie Nicholson, president; Phyllis Nelson, vice president; Enid Williams, secretary; Frank Ball, treasurer; Clark David, sergeant-at-arms; and Georgianna Joe, council member.

The Junior MYF of the Methodist Church had installation of officers last Tuesday evening at the church. George Swanson is president, Kenneth Reed, vice president, Charlyn O'Neill, secretary and Barbara Adams, treasurer. Mrs. John Jaderholm is the leader of the group of young people.

Deer hunting over it surely had the town filled with red-hatted folk, both residents of here and strangers brought a quick survey to see who brought in the big ones. One of the largest and also one of the best set of horns was brought in by Joe Adams the first morning of the season. Then duck hunting. The reeds changed to dirt and grain colored coats. The best hunting in recent years has been reported by all those going out. Now the local hunters are leaving for elk hunting. Tuesday evening Bob Doak, Ted Markwardt, Wayne Niehaus and Archie Huff left for Northern-Eastern Oregon, the first two to be gone some 10 days, the other for the entire 20-day season. Wednesday, Fred Markwardt and Ivan D-rak left to join the others. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Giegler also were among the hunters. The people they hunt with each year are from The Dalles, the McCallisters, who, incidentally, were houseguests of the Gieglers one night last week. Other guests of the Floyd Ohtes family this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Potiras and daughter of Portland.

Come to our carnival and bazaar here Saturday night. A well-planned program will be presented by the school children at 8 p.m. with carnival and games following for the rest of the evening. Refreshments will be sold all evening. There are prizes galore and lovely merchandise to purchase for those on your Christmas shopping list. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Helm, Klamath Falls, visited with Mr. and Mrs. P. E. McGee Oct. 18. They had a pleasant day riding around the country taking in the beautiful scenery of the desert and the Conley Hills.

Dick Schaub, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee and family and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGee and son were on a hunting trip in the Sycan area the weekend of Oct. 17-19. Dick Schaub was the successful hunter in the party.

Folks here were mighty glad to see Avon Derrick again, when he returned home from the hospital in Bend Oct. 17. Avon looks good and gets a round new haircut. He will have to go in for a few treatments for awhile yet before he will be completely recovered from his injury that he received over a month ago when he fell from a haystack.

Rube Long was injured Oct. 8, when a ladder he was climbing while hayting collapsed. He was taken to Bend for medical aid and an X-ray revealed there were no broken bones. His shoulder is still sore.

Ed Eskelin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eskelin and Fern Pitcher left Oct. 16 for La Center and Kalama, Wash. Miss Pitcher stopped off at Portland to visit relatives. The Eskelins visited with their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. John Eskelin and Mr. and Mrs. August Eskelin. The Eskelins returned home Oct. 6 Miss Pitcher remained to visit awhile longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee were business visitors in Klamath Falls Oct. 23. They returned home the next day. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gillette and baby daughter, Donna Susan, spent the weekend of Oct. 25-26 visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGee and family. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Parks and children left Oct. 23 for Port Orford where they will visit the Rev. and Mrs. Darl Hunt. They stopped and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Totman on the way down Thursday evening.
