Angel, Ore., district; Mrs. Joseph Wichter, Mt. Angel, District Deputy; Mrs. John Howard, District Deputy; and Mrs. Otto Smith, State Educational Chairman, both of Klamath Falls. Other out of town guests were: Mrs. Harry Fee, Past Grand Regent of Court Klamath, now living in Eugene; Mrs. Manuel Ochoa, Mrs. Claude Parazon, Mrs. Dwight Souers and Mrs. Olivia Hobbs, Chiloquin; Mrs. Donald Ratliff and Mrs. John Giacomini, Merrill; Mrs. Dwyer of North Dakota, and Mrs. George Burger, Richmond, Calif.

Banner and the Opening Ode were sung by the entire assembly. The degree work was very ably exemplified by the officers of the Court attired in their initiatory robes. During the intermission, Ellen Sullivan sang: "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother" and "Mother Dear Oh Pray For Me" accompanied by Mrs. Louise Vaughn at the piano. The following Catholic ladies were initiated into the Court: Doris Ann Adams, Genevieve Andersch, Louise Baumgardner, Mable Brochtrup, Barbara Brosterhouse, Pia Reginato, Marguette Slowey, Gina Zamboni, Klamath Falls and Mary Ann Wilkie and Catherine Pribe, Chiloquin. Mrs. E. Gramas and Mrs. E. M. Eriel were chairmen of refreshments assisted by: Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. Nell Hurley, Mrs. E. Hartman, Mrs. Dick Miller Sr., Mrs. Francis Manning, Mrs. Charles Fairall, Mrs. Theodore Schub, Mrs. Flo D'Olive, Mrs. Larry Pickett and Della McGrath. Centering the lace-covered tea table was a basket of autumn fruit with a background of mag-rolla leaves highlighted by forest green tapers in crystal candlesticks. Mrs. Einar Brandness, Grand Regent of the Court, and Mrs. Joseph Heiderer, Vice Regent, presided. Mrs. Dick Miller Sr. was chairman of table decorations and Mrs. Francis Manning arranged the bouquets of bronze, pink and yellow button chrysanthemums which were placed about the room. Corsages of light violet chrysanthemums tied with gold ribbon were presented to the officers who wore formals of various colors.

POSTMASTERS CONVENE AT FORT KLAMATH

FORT KLAMATH—The quarterly business meeting of the Klamath County Postmasters Association was an event of Saturday evening, October 25, when Mrs. Eldon M. Bratlain, local postmaster and president of the group, was hostess for the third 1952 get-together of the Association in the C. E. Clubhouse in Fort Klamath. Preceding the business session, those present enjoyed a baked ham dinner, prepared and served by members of the Civic Improvement Club. The theme of Halloween was carried out in dining room decorations, combined with a profusion of bright autumn leaves and colorful blooms placed about the room. Table decor included a centerpiece of gladioli and arrangements of fall flowers, with individual Jack o'Lantern favors marking each place in keeping with the predominating Halloween motif. Following the business session, a very interesting talk was given by the guest speaker, Harry C. Parker, naturalist at Crater Lake National Park, who entertained the gathering with an outline of his duties with the Park service. Guest prizes were given to Bonanza postmaster D. D. Horn and Mrs. Alonzo Hodges, Merrill, while a consolation award went to Mrs. A. M. Zadina, postmaster of Chiloquin. The following C. I. Club members were in charge of dinner arrangements: kitchen, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Mrs. Raymond S. Loomis, Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mrs. Bert Gray; dining room and serving, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. Donald P. Veatch. Mrs. William Brewer acted as cashier. The attendance was smaller on Saturday evening than at a similar affair held here last April, probably because of opening weekend of duck and goose hunting. Present were Mrs. Charles Croner, postmaster at Oakridge, Postmaster and Mrs. Alonzo Hodges, Merrill; Postmaster and Mrs. D. D. Horn, Bonanza; Mrs. Vergie I. Brader, postmaster at Chemult; Mrs. Esther Guddut, postmaster at Crescent; Mrs. A. M. Zadina, Chiloquin postmaster. Others in attendance included: Mrs. W. L. Blakely, Oakridge; Mrs. J. H. Brader, Chicago, Ill., who is visiting relatives at Chemult; Mrs. Margaret Guddut, Crescent; and Harry C. Parker, Crater Lake National Park.
