Drama Career Cut Short

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Beautiful Jill Hollingsworth is giving up her attempt to crash the movies. Instead she's going home to Detroit to help her mother, who, officers there said, admitted embezzling several thousand dollars to further her 17-year-old daughter's film career.

"My career doesn't mean anything to me now," said the aspiring actress. "Mother needs me now and I want to go back and help her. I'll get a job, if necessary, to help pay back every bit of money they say mother took from her employer."

Her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Hollingsworth, 47, is accused of writing checks against the Kenneth Anderson Co., boiler manufacturer.

Police Seek Oregon Boy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco police were on the lookout Friday for Billy Edwards, 17, Eugene, Ore., who is wanted in connection with the slaying of his grandmother.

The boy is sought on a homicide warrant sworn out by District Attorney Ed Luckey of Eugene, who said he had learned the boy bought a plane ticket to San Francisco.

The grandmother, Mrs. Maude Wood, 72, was found strangled in her home Tuesday, police said.
