

At The Merryman Tea

HOSTESSES . . . Mrs. George H. Merryman, left, and Mrs. John D. Merryman, right, with one of the many beautiful arrangements of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums part of the striking background for the distinctive tea they gave Oct. 22, in the Pelican Party Room.

Photos by Kettler

AMONG THE MANY FRIENDS . . . who called during the afternoon at the Merryman tea from 3 to 6 p.m., were Mrs. Andrew J. Honsal, left; Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, center; and Mrs. Eugene H. Favell.

NEWCOMER AND LONG-TIME RESIDENT—Mrs. J. C. Litwiller, left, and Mrs. George Wright in animated conversation.

MRS. EDWARD HALL PIKE . . . seated at the table, serving Mrs. Phillip Hitchcock, left, and Mrs. Stephen Mosher.

FROM EUGENE . . . was Mrs. Godfrey Blohm, at the right, with Mrs. G. C. Lorenz. Mrs. Blohm, former Klamath Falls resident, was occupied much of the afternoon exchanging greetings with friends made when she and Mr. Blohm lived here.

ASSISTING . . . at the lovely tea was Mr. R. R. Macartney; and pouring were: Mrs. Henry C. Gerber, Mrs. John H. Martin, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, Mrs. Edward Hall Pike and Mrs. Victor O'Neill.

MARRIED IN FORT WAYNE

WESTSIDE—According to word recently received here by friends, Vernon Dale Travis (formerly of the West Side) was married on July 7, at 3:30 p.m. to Thelma Louise Henendeen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Henendeen of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

The marriage service was read by the Reverend Carl Brown in the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Fort Wayne. The bride wore for her wedding and traveling, a gray traveling dress, with complementing accessories.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Travis, Harbor, Ore., is stationed at the present in Korea, where he is a medic at an Evacuation Hospital.

While he is away his wife is making her home with his parents at Harbor, and is employed in Brookings.

ALICE VITUS HONORED BY QUOTA CLUB

Members of Klamath Quota Club honored Alice Vitus retiring governor of the 14th district, at a party given Wednesday evening at her home, which also was in celebration of the club's birthday and took the place of the regular October dinner meeting.

Mrs. Vitus was presented with a gift in appreciation of her past year's service, and reports were given on the district conference over which she presided last weekend in Portland at the Heathman Hotel.

Those attending from Klamath Falls, besides the district governor, were Vera Chase, district secretary; Ada Sprual, president of the Klamath club, and Nadine Colvin, second vice president, who were delegates. About 75 were in attendance and other clubs represented included Eugene, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, Wash., Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

A surprise honor was conferred by Portland at the Saturday evening banquet when Dorothy Grim, Seattle, the new international president of Quota, was made an honorary member of the Rosarians. Following election of officers on Sunday morning, Mrs. Vitus turned over her official governor duties to Lucille Graham, Seattle, and Anna Mae Powers, Spokane, was installed as lieutenant governor.

During a short business meeting Wednesday evening, the Klamath club voted to change its program meetings from evenings to the luncheon hour, the first of which will be November 10 at the Pelican party room, with Irene Van Winkle in charge. Harriet Floyd was greeted as a new member, and birthday gifts were won by Catherine Fryock and Hap Lawler.

CATHOLIC RITES UNITE COUPLE IN MERRILL CHURCH

In one of the loveliest weddings of the early fall, Marie Suty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty, Merrill, became the bride of John Robert Lane. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lane, Adel, Ore. The young couple are both from pioneer Klamath and Lake County families.

The double-ring ceremony was read at 10 a.m., Oct. 11, in St. Augustine's Church, Merrill by Father Phelan.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Long sang Schubert's 'Ave Maria' and Panis Angelicus. During the mass the choir sang "O Beautiful Mother." Paula Clark played the organ accompaniment.

Acolytes were Con O'Neil and Jackie Barry.

The altar was flanked with arrangements of orchid and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, lovely in ivory Chantilly lace and satin was escorted to the altar by her father. Her finger-tip tulle veil was caught by a halo of net outlined with seed pearls and sequins and she carried a white orchid on a white Prayer Book. She wore a blue satin garter, worn by her sister, Mrs. Robert Thompson at her wedding and an Australian penny in her satin sandal. Her borrowed pearls were old.

Marie Suty was maid of honor for her sister. Her ballerina length frock of green satin was made with an overskirt of silver imported French lace. She wore a matching cap and carried green carnations tied with satin ribbons of the same shade.

Maids of honor in duplicate frocks with matching carnation arrangements were Mrs. Robert K. Thompson, sister of the bride, in shaded aqua, Mrs. Gary Morris, sister of the bridegroom, in shaded pink and Martha Krizo, cousin of the bride in shaded blue.

Golden haired Jeanne Thompson, niece of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Thompson, Clinton Avenue, Klamath Falls, wore a matching pink frock and carried a white basket of pink rose petals.

Best man was Terry Cahill, Adel.

Ushers were George Cahill, Adel, John O'Leary, Paisley, Robert K. Thompson, Klamath Falls.

The handsome young ring-bearer was Chris Kandra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kandra, Merrill.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Suty chose a tulle Chantilly frock over self-colored satin with matching satin hat. Her accessories were brown and she wore two cymbidium orchids at the shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother wore wine lace with gray accessories and the same shade of orchid as a corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Sportsman's hotel with places marked for 35 guests.

A reception was held at 2 p.m. in St. Augustine's church for 300 guests. The new Mr. and Mrs. Lane cut the first piece of their four-tiered white wedding cake, encircled with pink Elf roses and maidenhair fern. Silver bells topped the confection.

Vonnie Glynn, Tulelake, was in charge of the guest book. At the coffee urn were Mrs. William Kandra and Mrs. John Kandra, Mrs. Joe Liptak presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Steve Takacs, sister of the bride served the cake.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Lane chose a cream wool suit with satin trim, brown alligator accessories, brown hat and her shoulder corsage was two green orchids.

Following a wedding trip to British Columbia and other points north they will live on the bridegroom's ranch at Adel.

Mrs. Lane is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and attended the University of Washington. The bridegroom was graduated from Lakeview High School.

THE SLICK SAUVE SENOR—and the sparkling satiny senora—are really pirates—(you can't even believe what you SEE!)—and the pirates are really Wilson and Wilma Wiley, who head the Pirate Party Committee at the Yacht Club, Nov. 8—next Saturday. Contact them—8687—for additional information. A large evening of fun as usual, is there for you. Photo by Kettler

STONE-OBERG VOWS SAID IN DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY

In a candlelight double-ring ceremony, read by Pastor Irvin Tweet in the Klamath Lutheran Church, Oct. 11, 7 p.m., Virginia Oberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Oberg, 1545 Oregon Avenue, became the bride of John Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Stone, 2204 Darrow Avenue.

An all-white color scheme was chosen for the decorations; chrysanthemums and gladioli accented with the green of palms were effectively used at the altar and pews were marked with white satin bows holding tapers entwined with ivy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an ankle length gown of tulle and Chantilly lace over slipper satin.

The gown was styled with a low scalloped neckline, outlined with a ruffle of pleated tulle. The matching lace mitts also had pleated tulle at the wrists. A small lace cap held the waist length veil of illusion net. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand choker of pearls.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Hal Adams, Medford. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Alan Davidson, Hillsboro, sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Bill Alexander. All wore ballerina length dresses of white net over taffeta, patterned after the bride's, and with them they wore deep green satin sashes and matching shoes. Their crescent shaped bouquets were of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and ivy, and they wore matching headpieces.

Alan Davidson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jerry Schubert and Alan Kruz.

Mrs. Oberg chose a floor length dress of aqua crepe with matching lace top, aqua gloves and hat, and her shoulder corsage was a purple orchid.

Dusty-rose crepe and lace was worn by Mrs. Stone, with toast accessories and her corsage was a bronze orchid.

Before the ceremony Dick Melum sang "I Love Thee" accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Denison at the organ. Mrs. Denison also played the traditional wedding marches, "The Lord's Prayer" was sung during the service.

The reception was in the church parlors. Mrs. Warren Ochs, Merrill, served the cake; Mrs. Joe Matlock Jr. presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Eugene Werner and Mrs. Paul Lund served the coffee; and Mrs. Jack Wynant, Merrill, passed the guest book.

For travel, the bride wore a winter-white knit suit, fitted red coat of poodle cloth, black accessories and a corsage of white roses from her wedding bouquet.

From out of town, other than the wedding party, were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindberg, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Roy Lindberg, cousin, Coeur d'Alene; Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Waldin, Tulelake; Mrs. Lorraine Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Heime Hestager, Medford; Jack Wynant, Warren Ochs and son Cleve, Merrill; Jimmy Hall, Bieber; and Oscar Rylander, Bly.

After a Canadian honeymoon, the couple is now at home in Corvallis where John is a pre-med student at Oregon State College.

Not everyone has the same favorite color. It's the same way with piano tone. You wisely should choose according to your own personal preference. To make this possible we carry many leading makes of pianos. Then, too, modern spinet and console type cases allow you a wide individual choice in styles and finishes. To suit your taste in beauty of appearance as well as tone we carry pianos in varied walnuts, and mahoganies, maple, blonde mahogany, limed oak, burnt walnut, mahogany with rich plastic trim, styled in Queen Anne, Chippendale, French Provincial, Swedish Moderne, Colonial and many others.

Yes, right here in Klamath Falls is the largest stock of leading make pianos in this part of the west.

LOUIS R. MANN PIANO CO.
120 No. 7th St. Phone 7182

FINE PHOTOGRAPHY
Floyd
STUDIO PHONE 4526

LIBERAL ALLOWANCE ON YOUR OLD PIANO
kyle morgan PIANOS
yours for a happier future through music
1035 Main Phone 2-0200

WEDDING INVITATIONS and ANNOUNCEMENTS
Processed or Engraved
4 Day Delivery!
SHAW STATIONERY CO.
729 Main

pick a WINNER!
send your cleaning with your laundry! ASK ABOUT OUR BUDGET BUNDLE the economy service to save you money!
and you will pick a winner every time when you send your cleaning to Cascade Cleaners! Modern methods and equipment, and expert, careful workmanship make Cascade dry cleaning the finest available at any price. Next time, try Cascade! Just phone 5111.
CASCADE LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS
Klamath's Finest Opp. Post Office