

REPUBLICAN VOTE — Dwight and Mrs. Eisenhower cast their vote in New York.

Taft Says South In Real Split

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft believes the split in the once-solid South is a "real one," but he doesn't foresee any Southern Democratic leaders moving into the Republican party right away.

The Ohio Republican, commenting yesterday on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's victory for the presidency, said he did not look for immediate assistance for Republicans in Congress from persons like Price Daniel, the senator-elect from Texas who supported Eisenhower.

Taft said: "I believe that this break in the ranks in the South is a real one. It is my opinion that they supported Eisenhower because he is a conservative—doesn't want to take over their schools, tidelands and that sort of thing—but I do not expect any immediate move into our party by Southern leaders."

Taft, who lost the GOP nomination to Eisenhower but then toured the country urging Eisenhower's election, hailed the general's victory as a repudiation of the "Fair Deal," corruption and pro-communism.

Taft indicated he would stay in his present position as head of the vital Senate Republican Policy Committee in co-operating with Eisenhower and the new Republican administration.

Asked if the President-elect might want him for a Cabinet post, or that he might become Senate majority floor leader, Taft said: "I see no reason to change. As a matter of fact, that seems to be Gen. Eisenhower's idea also. When he came to see me immediately after the nomination in Chicago, for instance, it was to ask my co-operation as leader in the Senate, not in the campaign."
