

Scarey, Frog-Faced Monster Stars In New U-I Movie

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Exclusively Yours: Grab the kiddies and run to the nearest shelter. U-I's secretly preparing "The Sea Monster"—a science-fiction thriller about a seven-foot "thing" that comes out of the Amazon River and frightens the bejeepers out of the world. The heart-stopper, as modeled by make-up wizard Bud Westmore, has the face of a frog and the body of a Lex Barker. An underwater Frankenstein monster. Monique Van Vooren, the newcomer who plays the tail-end title role in "Tarzan and the She-Devil," and hubby Kurt Fenniger, vice president of Musak, have dated the stork for April.

Irene Dunne says she was misquoted at that Hollywood Eisenhower rally. She writes from New York: "I did not say, 'Everyone in Hollywood whom you respect is for Eisenhower.' I did say, 'Many people whom you know and respect are for Eisenhower.' I realize that when a gal sticks her neck out she is asking for it, but I do not wish to be offensive."

Jack Palance, who clicked in "Sudden Fear," was listening to a producer outline a movie plot. "It's about an unscrupulous politician," the producer said, "who defeats his opponent by spreading slander about him." "I get it," grinned Jack, "and you will title it 'Sudden Sueser'."

Ann Sheridan and ex-hubby Edward G. Robinson met in the U-I studio cafe. How does a movie queen greet an ex-husband? Ann's greeting was: "So good to see you, Eddie."

Warners is prepping "End of the Rainbow" for Gordon MacRae... Director Mike Curtiz, the language juggler, ordered a make-up man on the "Alma Mater" set to "wipe the sweat" from John Wayne's face.

Jeff Chandler's Decca bosses at U-I don't want him to sing on records, but RCA Victor made him a solid offer to wax four sides after hearing his duets with Peggy Lee. Now battlin' Jeff is on the way path for the right to make records.

Paramount's talking about Rosemary Clooney as co-star for Bob Hope and Bing Crosby in "White Christmas," but Bob and Bing want—and they can dream, can't they?—Rita Hayworth... Fernando Lamas is now saying that he was unhappy with his role in "Latin Lovers" all along and is much relieved to be out of the cast. More relieved: Lana Turner.

As Marilyn Monroe swayed across the Edgar Bergen rehearsal stage at CBS radio, Charlie McCarthy quipped: "It takes two to tango."

"The Producers' Association is beating the 'movie-stars-are-normal' publicity drums, which I claim is a lot of bunk. Here's added proof that I'm right, in a note from the 'Thunder Bay' troupe in Morgan City, La.: 'The swampland girls down here go for Jimmy Stewart big, but when Gilbert Roland walks down the main drag they go wild. Roland makes a business of looking like a movie star and plays it to the hilt.'"

Robert Paige is back in greaseland after giving his film-making chores to Glenn McCarthy's partner. "I'm glad to be back acting," he said, "and I'm sorry I ever left it." His first role as he describes it: "The kissing part in 'Abbott and Costello Go to Mars.'"

Chlorophyll conscious Ken Tobey says he's writing a movie, titled, "How Green Was My Sally."

"Song of the Sea is the title for the Gladys Fitzgerald biography, to be made in England," Gilda Gray's Denver lawyers are due in Hollywood any day to huddle with the shimmy queen on her lawsuit against Columbia for the Rita Hayworth hit, "Gilda." Walter O'Keefe's description of Marilyn Monroe: "The inspiration for the pressure cooker."

Discrimination Causes Rift

SEWANE, Tenn. (AP)—Eight faculty members of the University of the South have resigned in protest over a decision by the trustees not to admit Negroes to the Theological School.

Their resignations, effective at the end of the current academic year, were accepted yesterday by Dr. Edward McCready, vice chancellor of the Episcopal church-supported school.

Signers of the letter, dated Oct. 5, were the Rev. F. Craighill Brown, dean of the Theology School; the Rev. Claude E. Guthrie, the Rev. Robert Lanning Hicks, the Rev. Robert Malcolm McNair, the Rev. Howard A. Johnson, James A. Reddick, the Rev. Frederick Quentin Shafter, all professors, and the Rev. Richard Hooker Wilmer, school chaplain.

When the controversy first became public, Chancellor R. Bland Mitchell of Little Rock said there was no university ordinance excluding Negroes, but that he had been advised that such enrollments would be in violation of Tennessee law.

No Negroes have ever applied for admission to Sewanee, he added.

McCready accepted the resignations "with deep regret."

The whole sale resignations leaves only one seminary faculty member, the Rev. Bayard H. Jones, who did not resign and reportedly took no part in the protest, the school said.

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams, the "boy wonder" of Michigan politics, today once again stood as the sole barrier to a Republican sweep of state offices in Tuesday's general elections.

In almost complete returns from the state's 4,489 precincts, Williams alone on the Democratic ticket holds a chance of winning. The governor holds a slim lead of 3,948 votes over his Republican opponent, Secretary of State Fred M. Alger Jr.

Williams' protegee, Sen. Blair Moody, former Washington newspaperman, was beaten by better than 45,000 votes by Rep. Charles E. Potter of Cheboygan, the legless war veteran who gave up his House seat to battle Moody's New Deal position.

NIXON LEAVES

Later they plan to take the children, Patricia, 6, and Julie, 4, on a vacation trip.
