Lover's Fight Ends in Death

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A refugee student from Austria, upset after a lover's quarrel with his young American fiancee, committed suicide late yesterday by eating poisoned cookies, a city detective says.

The student, 27-year-old Heinz Berger, killed himself in a University of Texas science laboratory.

His body was found slumped in a chair by his fiancée, Miss Elizabeth Tracht, 22.

Berger and the Ft. Worth coed were to have been married next week.

After they quarreled yesterday afternoon in Berger's laboratory, Miss Tracht went to another lab to continue her own experiments. She returned an hour later with another coed to see her fiance again. His door was locked and the building superintendent was called.

Detective Merle Wells said Berger, described by professors as "very brilliant," had smeared cyanide on cookies and ate them.

He was working for a doctor's degree in bacteriology.

Miss Tracht was hospitalized for shock soon after the body was found. A justice of the peace returned a verdict of suicide.

"Cause of the lovers' quarrel was not learned."

Uranium Found In Ontario

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — A uranium strike of "more than passing interest" had been made on a group of Northwestern Ontario islands that Indian legends describe as cursed. Tribal lore says they light up during electrical storms.

The find on the Manitou Islands at the eastern end of Lake Nipissing was announced last night by Province Mines Minister Philip T. Kelly. Samples tested after several months of Geiger counter surveys ran as high as 11-100ths of one per cent uranium.

The Manitous are a group of five islands totaling about 400 acres. Indian legends tell of braves who made war paint from a red oxide found there and later died of bone disease.

HOLDUP IN SIX WORDS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Six words describe the holdup of a radio store here. "Don't move," said the gunman as he reached over the counter and cleared out the cash register of $25. "Don't move," he said again as he went out the door. "I didn't," said Mrs. Ruth Falck, proprietor.

Kentucky Win Slim for Adlai

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky's 10 presidential electoral votes unofficially belonged to Democrat Adlai Stevenson today by a shaky margin of 1,047 votes.

His claim on them is good at least until about Nov. 15 when the official tabulation begins.

The answer to whether Stevenson keeps them after that or whether they go to Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower depends a lot upon absentee ballots.

Many were not included in the unofficial count and their weight could give Eisenhower the added push needed to make him the first Republican since Herbert Hoover to carry this traditionally Democratic state.

The final unofficial totals from Kentucky's 4,135 precincts in Tuesday's election read: Stevenson 494,169; Eisenhower 493,062.

The absentee ballots were not expected to have any influence on the other races.

Actress Wants Alimony Check

JOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Mary Lane was in court yesterday asking for $1,245.98 a month support for herself and daughter, Susan Bridget. She declared her husband, makeup artist Bud Westmore, needs only $400 a month.

Westmore testified he has turned over his paychecks to his wife for the last 10 years and that she gave him an allowance. "Last year it was $15 a week," he said.

His lawyer told the court Westmore earns only $1,300 a month.

Superior Judge Mildred Lalle continued the case until Dec. 4 and advised the couple to try to reach an agreement with the aid of a marriage counselor.
