Searcy-Urben Rites Read At Home of Bride's Parents

Colorful dahlias and chrysanthemums were used in the large fall arrangements for the marriage of Frances Gail Searcy to Allen M. Urben, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verl G. Searcy, Keno Road.

Parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. G. Urben, Stockton, were here to attend their son's wedding.

The Reverend David F. Barnett Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church read the 8 p.m. double-ring service, Friday, Oct. 17.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride wore a gown of white lace and net over satin, styled with fitted bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrists, ballerina length skirt and her shoulder veil was held by a lace cap embroidered with seed pearls. Her jewelry, gift from the bridegroom, was a pair of matching oval earrings and a brooch studded with seed pearls. An heirloom English sixpence was in one of her white satin slippers, and she wore the traditional blue garter. Her bouquet was a large orchid on a white ribbon.

Raymond and Dale Searcy, her brothers, were candlelighters.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Ronald E. Angus, wore a gown in a fall-amber shade, and carried a bouquet of golden-bronze chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were, Julia Powell, in autumn red with silver; and her corsage was of white pompon chrysanthemums; Mrs. Eugene Jensen, in orchid and white; gold and green pompon chrysanthemum corsage; Marjorie Powell, green with gold, gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Walter Urben attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. Searcy, mother of the bride, wore a golden-bronze frock accented with dark brown, and her corsage was a gardenia with rose buds.

Mrs. Urben wore a dark blue costume with gray accessories, and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Searcy's.

The reception was also at home, with Mrs. Powell at the punch bowl; Mrs. John Mills cut the cake; and Mrs. Alene Hofelt and Mrs. Robert Whitner assisted.

For travel, the bride wore a gray suit with red accessories, and her shoulder corsage was a white orchid.

After a trip to the coast the couple is at home in Klamath Falls.

OREGON COUPLE MARRIES IN VIRGINIA CITY, NEVADA

At noon, Oct. 29, Florence Millsaps, Portland, and William (Bill) Jenkins, Klamath Falls, were married in the Lucius Beebe residence, Virginia City, Nevada.

Daughter of Mrs. Frank Millsaps, Ajo, Ariz., Mrs. Jenkins, prior to her recent marriage was secretary to P. J. Jackson, publisher of the Oregon Journal, Portland.

Jenkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, 1233 Pacific Terrace, and is managing editor of the Herald and News, of which his father is publisher.

Mrs. Matilda E. Pollard, justice of the peace in Virginia City, read the service, witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kern, who attended the couple; Lucius Beebe and Charles Clegg, associate and collaborator on many of the Beebe books.

Open house followed the private informal wedding, which was the first marriage to be solemnized in the beautifully restored "John Piper's House."

The couple will live in Klamath Falls where Mrs. Jenkins will be on the staff of the Herald and News.

OREGON TECH FACULTY WIVES

Faculty Wives and Womens' Club of Oregon Tech met Tuesday evening Oct. 14 in the lounge at King Hall. Thirty members were present.

Program chairman, Mrs. Earl Bairre presented Mrs. Blomquist, dramatic teacher at KUHS who introduced six of her talented students.

Ronald Coleman and Jane Dartin presented scenes from Macbeth. These youngsters held their audience enthralled.

Some fine comedy singing was later done by Gene St. John and Clifford Stiles, also Vaughn Kerron and Harold Siegle. A really delightful evening for the club.

The first social event of the season, the potluck, which was held in September proved such a success, under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. W. D. Purvin and her able committee, that the club has planned some more of the same. The holidays are coming so lots of gay times loom ahead for the wives and husbands.

Players Club

Players Club held its regular meeting Wednesday evening Nov. 5, in the Library Club Room.

Following refreshments and a short business meeting cards were in play.

Mrs. Sid Elliot was awarded high in bridge and Mrs. C. F. Leithoff low. Mrs. J. B. Weaver was high in pinochle and Mrs. Florence Oppelt low.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hubert Kidd, Mrs. John Voth, Mrs. Alton Whetstone, Mrs. June Wallwork and Mrs. R. P. Lien.
