Merrill Mayor Takes Office

MERRILL — Merrill's newly-elected mayor, R. R. Walker, took office Thursday evening when the City Council met in regular session. He succeeds Dr. F. E. Trotman, who has held the position for the past eight years. L. E. Stewart, new member of the council, started his 4-year term of office, as did Paul Lewis, who was reelected. George Williams and Otis Thompson were reelected police judge and city recorder respectively. Holdovers on the council are Harvey Denham and Howard Dewey.

Mayor Walker's first official act was to announce the following appointments: Paul Lewis will continue as water and sewer superintendent; Howard Dewey will have charge of the police and garbage departments; Harvey Denham streets; and Louis Stewart, building and sidewalks. Tom Chaburn Jr. was reappointed fire chief.

Chief topic for discussion was the garbage situation. On Jan. 4, 1951, Ordinance 121, regulating garbage collection and disposal, was that every owner, tenant, or other person occupying any house or premises within the city limits of Merrill, shall have at least one metal garbage can, not less than 16" nor more than 24" in diameter, and not less than 24" high nor more than 36" high, fitted with a tight cover. Cans must be placed so that the garbage collector will have easy access to them.

All premises must be kept free of rubbish or refuse, and if, 10 days notice from the health officer, the refuse has not been removed the city may cause it to be done, and the cost charged to the property owner.

This ordinance will be strictly enforced and violators are subject to fines. Those wishing to haul their own garbage should contact the council for permission.

Other action taken at the meeting included the issuing of one building permit to C. B. Kincaid for $75 addition to residence; and the granting of a sewer and water connection permit to G. R. Huntling. Councilman Lewis reported that the water tank had been repainted and that the new sewer pumps were being installed.

CHIMNEY FIRE

City firemen at 7:23 last evening were called to the home of L. G. Dean, 2034 Oregon Avenue, to quell a chimney fire. The firemen reported no damage.

Mighty Worker

Geo. N. Taylor Through Christ, God created the earth, the sun, moon and stars and even the universe farthest off.—"All things were made by Him"—by Christ—John 1:3. At last came man, free to sin or not as he might choose. And he chose to sin. But even so, God stands by and gives us day and night, seed, time and harvest and at last God gave Christ, his only-born Son, to die for us. Receive Him as your own Lord and Saviour and God gives you eternal life. For the Saved—Geo. N. Taylor has a v'n g eternal life, look utterly to Christ, the Mighty Worker to power you. Old days out. New days in.—"Christ in you the hope of glory."—Col. 1:27—BIBLE. This space sponsored by a Portland Lumberman & wife.

WCTU Slates Relief Work

Members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will work tomorrow, Nov. 11, at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, 104 and South Sixth Street on used clothing for the Children's Farm Home near Portland. The session will start at 10:30 a.m.

The home is recognized by the "Red Feather" organization and receives support from the Oregon Chest.

Some 28 years ago the WCTU made plans for caring for needy children in small groups where surroundings were comparable to home life. Most of these children were from broken homes.

Because a farm was considered a good place for children to grow up and because their care would be less expensive, the Children's Farm Home was started.

Only two cottages were used at first but more have been added, the most recent dedicated, being Muldownham Cottage. Ground has also been broken recently for a new chapel.

At one time was represented by 17 children from Klamath County. Some 175 children are living at the home at the present time.

Children attend school through the elementary grades, are taken to Corvallis by bus to junior and senior high schools.

Recreation is part of the program of education. A dairy herd of 55 cows has been established, children raise many of their own vegetables.

Meat raised on the farm is slaughtered free of charge by a Corvallis packing firm and about 7500 pounds of fruit is canned annually in the home cannery.

secretary of the Treasury, but he said here over the weekend he doesn't want the job.

Others who met with Eisenhower were retired Gen. Lucius D. Clay, former military Governor of Germany and now chairman of the board of Continental Can Corp., Herbert Brownell Jr., who managed New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's presidential campaign in 1948 and who played a major behind-the-scenes role in Eisenhower's campaign; Clifford Roberts, New York investment banker who has been playing golf with the general; James C. Hageris, Eisenhower's press secretary, and Thomas Stephens, his appointment secretary.

Lodge and Dodge said cabinet appointments were not discussed and that they had no idea whether they might be asked to stay on in the new administration.

Clay, asked whether he would take a cabinet assignment, replied with a grin: "I think I can give you a very easy answer. I haven't been offered one and I don't expect to be offered one."

He added that he was "just a friendly listener" at the conference.

Brownell, asked what his role had been, would say only, "I was a participant."

Lodge and Dodge said they will serve only as observers and information gatherers for Eisenhower in their liaison work.

Dodge, in reply to a question, said he will make no recommendations regarding the budget the President will present to Congress in January, before Eisenhower takes office.

But he added that the way will be open after the inauguration, for Eisenhower to suggest revision of the budget along whatever lines Dodge may propose.

Lodge said there was "some desultory conversation—some general discussion" of the trip to Korea—no date for it has been announced—at yesterday's meeting.

ASKS DUTY CUT TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iran asked the United States two months ago to lower the import duty on Persian carpets but hasn't received any reply, Foreign Minister Hosein Fatemi said Monday. The carpet trade is a chief item in Iran's economy.

Besides the widow, Mrs. Frieda Poren, he is survived by daughter, Lena Evans; granddaughter, Patty Young; and great-granddaughter, Katherine Young.
