Dew Speaker At Wheat Meet

Dr. Walter A. Dew, manager of the Pacific district of the public relations department of the DuPont Co., will be one of the prominent speakers slated to be heard at the 25th annual meeting of the Oregon Wheat Growers League in Portland, Dec. 4-6 at the Multnomah Hotel.

Dew, who has spent many years in chemical research and development work, will discuss "Progress in Better Living," a speech dealing with the growth and development of the chemical industry and how its products contribute to daily human needs.

Dew had management responsibility in ordnance plants operated by DuPont for the government during World War I. Later he was connected with the government's Manhattan project in the atomic energy program.

He joined the DuPont Co. in 1924, after receiving a doctor of philosophy degree from Princeton University.
