The shortest student council meeting of the year was held Tuesday with Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Murray. The officer's party, to be held Friday, Nov. 14 in the gym, was taken care of and the meeting was adjourned in 15 minutes. The students were happy to have as guests Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Christians from Italy as the second National Assembly number of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Christians have traveled to 24 countries in the world and taken many beautiful colored pictures. To entertain the students on the 45 minute program, a movie on Northwestern Canada was shown. Everyone agreed it was very interesting. The Halloween parties held at the school were a lot of fun for everyone. The fifth, sixth and seventh grades held room parties with games and refreshments. The eight grade students went to Skateland Roller Rink for a party. Free doughnuts were given out as the party ended. An activity led by Miss Mable Humble is a club of 16 girls learning to knit, crochet and embroidery. Six of the girls started out by learning and the others made a garment to wear.

SLICK TRICK

A fruit cake will cut easier if it is thoroughly chilled. Chill several hours and then slice with a sharp knife.

Republicans Commended For Work

Mrs. Marshall E. Cornell, Republican National Committee woman from Oregon and all party workers were commended by telegram by Arthur E. Summerfield, chairman of the committee on which she serves for the tremendous Republican vote piled up by party workers at all levels.

Text of the message was: "As chairman of the National Republican Committee, I extend my heartiest congratulations on the splendid Republican vote rolled up in your state."

The tidal wave of votes for Eisenhower and Nixon is due in large measure to the outstanding work of the Republican organization in your state, reaching into every precinct.

Through you I want to thank every man and woman among our Republican workers and those who joined the ranks in the great volunteer crusade on behalf of our party.

the effort, and you personally, should feel a great sense of satisfaction in your great contribution to our country and our party.

Our opportunities for service to the nation will be great but they will be challenging. With a united and vigorous party we can look forward with unreserved confidence to meeting our enlarged responsibilities."

SLICK IDEA

"Hand traffic" marks on your banisters can be avoided by first washing with warm sudsy water, then applying a light coating of wax.
