

GOBLER, GOBLER — Who got the gobbler at open house at KUHS Wednesday night? The 30-pound bronze turkey was taken home by Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren in a brand new Chevrolet and sans coop, the Warren's parked the bird for the night in the family sedan. The turkey was given as a door prize following the program sponsored by the Retail Selling Club of the high school and the Parents and Patrons Club in connection with American Educational Week. Here — Troy Smith, president of the Retail Selling Club looks over the prize.

Yellow Alert Alarms Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A preliminary (yellow) air raid alert was flashed to officials in nine San Francisco area counties early Friday as heavy rain short-circuited the civil defense alarm network. Many top civil defense personnel — including Rear Adm. Albert G. Cook, disaster council chief — awoke from their beds to defense posts shortly after midnight. Then they learned it was a false alarm. The network links civil defense offices in the area. A yellow alert is a preliminary warning to officials. The red alert which warns the public was not sounded.

Dog Tries Plane Ride

SEATTLE (AP) — It was a nice routine flight for pilot Roy Atchison as he gunned his seaplane along at 2,000 feet until he looked out a window. Then he nearly froze with fright.

What he saw was the Atchison family's pet cocker spaniel pup, Curley, clinging desperately to a position. The dog's tail was toward the front and his fur was blowing like crazy. Atchison thought it was hopeless, he related here yesterday, but he throttled the plane down to 60 miles an hour. Then, making a slow, flat turn, he flew back to nearby Lake Sammamish with Curley still hanging on. In the wash of the landing, he feared the dog would be lost, but the plucky pup hung on. And then the tears of Bill, 4, and Mrs. Atchison, who had seen the takeoff but couldn't warn her husband, turned to cheers. And all joined in giving Curley a good rubdown.

Adlai Gets Many Letters

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — An estimated 60,000 letters have been received by Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson in the week following his defeat for the presidency. An aide to the governor said the estimate of post election letters was made by the chief clerk of the governor's office and two secretaries. He said with a few exceptions, the letters praised the Democratic nominee's campaign.

TOT COUNSELS DADDY
ST. LOUIS (AP) — John McCann had a few of the boys over for poker one night recently. His tiny daughter Kathleen kept running in and out of the kitchen thereby interrupting the smooth progress of the game. Daddy said he would spank her and put her to bed if she didn't stay out of the room. Kathleen merely put her hand on his arm and said, "Down boy."
