WIMER-SLIONYS WEDDING IN ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN RED BLUFF

In presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends, on Sunday, October 12, Liliya Slionys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Slionys, Red Bluff, was united in marriage to Donald Wimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, Fort Klamath, Oregon. The nuptial vows were exchanged before an altar banked with lovely fall blooms in a 3:30 p.m. service read by the Reverend Charles Nahnsen in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Red Bluff.

The beautiful young bride wore a full length gown of white Chantilly lace over white satin, with court train and fingertip veil of illusion net held with a tiara of pearls. Her flowers were white carnations and sweetheart roses.

Gladys Leonard, of Gerber, Calif., was bridesmaid, and wore a yellow floor length gown, with brown accessories and bouquet of yellow daisies and white carnations. The bridegroom's attendant was his half-brother, James F. Van Wormer, Fort Klamath.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Harold L. Wimer was attired in a light gray floor length gown, with white accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the formal church ceremony, a large reception was held at the Slionys home, where the newlyweds were greeted by their friends and relatives. Late in the afternoon, the young couple left on a week's motor trip along the California coast; and through the Redwoods. For the wedding trip, the bride wore a gray-blue suit ensemble with navy accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Wimer are now at home in Fort Klamath, where he is associated with Klamath Falls, in its Seven Mile division woods operations west of here.

Tuesday afternoon, October 21, the new bride entertained women of Fort Klamath at an informal tea, when open house was held at her home from two until five. Assisting in entertaining the guests during the afternoon were the hostess' mother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer and Mrs. James F. Van Wormer.

AFTER THE CEREMONY — the new Mr. and Mrs. Rosano, who will live in San Diego, where Maurice (Mickey) is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

ROSANO-BAKER VOWS EXCHANGED IN SACRED HEART CHURCH RITES

The marriage of Alice Evelyn Baker to Maurice A. Rosano was solemnized in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Nov. 8, when the Reverend T. P. Casey officiated at the 9:30 a.m. nuptial Mass.

The pretty bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Baker, 1419 Canby, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Emelia Rosano, of this city; and John Rosano, Sutter Creek, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of heavy white satin, with a net yoke outlined with ruffled lace. The fitted bodice was styled with long sleeves pointed at the wrists. A pleated bonnet, lace and seed - pearl trimmed held her fingertip veil of net edged with lace. Her bridal bouquet was crescent shaped of red roses with stephanotis streamers. She carried a pearl rosary, a gift from her grandmother.

Maid of honor was Beverly Calhoun; and bridesmaid was Joanne Dingman. Both are cousins of the bride. Beverly wore a gown of peacock-blue nylon net over satin, and her crescent bouquet was of bronze chrysanthemums. Joanne wore an identical dress in dusty rose; and her bouquet was in yellow.

Little Toni Corzallo, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, dressed in yellow satin and net. All the attendants wore nylon net bonnets patterned after the bride's. Toni carried a basket of yellow rose petals, scattering them along the aisle as she preceded the bride. Mrs. James Cronin, Gertrude Calhoun and Esther Stors sang "Wedding Prayer" and "The Rosary" during the Mass. Jennie Morris was organist. Soloist Elida

De Bortoli, Chilcoquin, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus" before the ceremony.

Best man was Bob Griffin, brother-in-law of the bride.

Fred Gerbino and Chris Lampropoulos were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Baker chose a gray suit with melon and black accessories, and her corsage was of lilies.

Mrs. Rosano, bridegroom's mother, wore a brown suit with green accessories, and her corsage was identical to Mrs. Baker's. The reception in the parish hall immediately followed the ceremony.

The ornate four-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, and Shirley Siosey, Mrs. Fred Dingman and Ruth Calhoun, aunt of the bride, were at the punch bowl.

Gertrude Calhoun and Esther Stors presided at the coffee service.

The guest book was passed by Mrs. Bob Griffin, sister-in-law of the bride.

The new Mrs. Rosano wore a black suit flecked with red, accented with a white orchid shoulder corsage, for her going away costume.

They will live in San Diego where Maurice is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Corzallo and family; Mrs. Lena Barry and John; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gulina and Bridie; Mr. and Mrs. George Wiebe, Lakeview; Mrs. James Sullivan, Yreka, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Lichtenberger, Grants Pass; and Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hash, Visalia, Calif.

Invited guests were: Mrs. Mike Hard, Mrs. Donald Vanderhoff, Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Nathan Klein, Mrs. Dorothy Beyer, Mrs. Louis Hodges, Mrs. Cecil Holland, Mrs. Nancy Jantzer, Mrs. Effie Proffitt, Mrs. Gwynn Wyatt; from Medford, Mrs. E. MARIA BLEDSOE RECENT BRIDE IN ST. AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH

MERRILL — The candle-light altar of St. Augustine's church was the setting Nov. 5 for the marriage of Maria Bledsoe to Pinkney W. Beasley. Close friends and relatives witnessed the 8 a.m. double services read by the Reverend John Phelan.

Maria is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bledsoe of Oscaloosa, Iowa, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Myrtle Beasley, pioneer resident of the community.

Wearing traditional white satin, fashioned with a long court train, and a net finger-tip length veil, the bride was escorted down the aisle by Roy Beasley, brother of the bridegroom, who gave her in marriage in the absence of her father. An orchid on a white prayer book was the bridal bouquet.

Eugene Beasley, also brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Candelights were Tommy O'Neil and Jack Barry.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ellis Wilson at the organ.

The bride's only attendant was a close friend, Mrs. John O'Neil, who wore a floor length rose net dress. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay bouquet, and wore a flower halo in her hair.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe street length dress and a pink carnation shoulder corsage for her son's wedding.

Following the ceremony, wedding guests gathered at the family home for cake and coffee; after which the newlyweds left for a two weeks honeymoon trip through western states.

For going-away Mrs. Beasley chose a brown wool tailored dress with gold accessories. They will be at home on the Beasley ranch southwest of Merrill.

NILE CLUB

Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile met Wednesday, Nov. 5, with Mrs. Sid Elliot chairman of the day.

Miss Helen McDonald was guest speaker, and gave an illuminating talk on the Philippines.

The following new members were greeted: Theina Leonard, Inez Kerron, Theina Pink, Maxine Wirth, Dora Austin, Helen McCormack, Blanche Mettler and Dorothy Ellis.

OREGON MOTHERS CLUB ANNUAL TEA

Mrs. W. D. Miller opened her beautiful Conger Avenue home Nov. 1 for the annual University of Oregon Mothers Club Tea. Special greetings were extended to mothers of freshmen students.

Striking arrangements of bronze and gold fall flowers were used about the rooms and on the tea table. After the short business meeting conducted by President Martha McLaughlin, Mrs. George McIntyre presented Ruby Gehring in two vocal selections.

Attending were: Mrs. W. I. Tingley, Mrs. G. L. Ballentyne, Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. George Adlers, Mrs. Vernon Norval, Mrs. Fred Robinson, Mrs. Olin Stanbery, Mrs. M. M. Mosby, Mrs. P. E.
