Arland "Butch" Souers is recovering from a severe finger injury, the fourth he has had in his nine years. This time he slammed the fourth finger of his right hand in a door, jerking the flesh off the end of the finger bone. He was rushed to the doctor, right across the street, and the finger sewed back on, but there will be a deformity after it is healed. When Butch was little he caught one finger in a car door, before long he smashed another in a house door, and when he was six he got his little finger too close to an axe. Just to change the routine, between then and this last injury, he managed to cut his leg with an axe. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Souers.

Alan Meiser celebrated his fifth birthday with dozens of balloons and several little friends a few days ago. The balloons were the gift of the party. The party was given by Alan's mother, Mrs. Bob Meiser. Attending were Mollie and Bobbie Wilcox, Eric Wilder, Tom and Randy Hall of Sprague River, Kathy Peters, Dennis Echlin, Gerry Wolf and Stephen Hunt, all of Chiloquin. Linda Sheldahl sent a gift but could not attend.

It has been old home week, or something, at the Agency, during the past two weeks. Among the former residents who have visited were Mr. and Mrs. John Arkell, who made the trip down from Washington at this particular time for two reasons, the election and duck hunting. They were guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luse, of Klamath Falls, and another daughter, also of Portland, who also were here, was agriculture man. They had a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Floyd, at Fort Klamath.

Visiting at the home of the Merton Porters were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Portas and son, now of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Portas, also of Portland, who also were here, but stayed with relatives in Chiloquin.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Shorey and daughters were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Koffman. Hoffman was irrigation clerk and his wife was secretary to Superintendent Biny.

Halloween was the theme of a party for two dozen high school young people given at the Dwight Souers residence. The guests had a clever scavenger hunt followed by a dance. Hostesses were Twila Knight, Lila Kessler, Janice Kendall of Fort Klamath and Frieda Kirk of Chiloquin.

The Herman Winn's desire to vote was very strong. They drove 640 miles the day before election, coming home from Missoula, Mont. They had planned to leave there earlier but Mrs. Winn was ill for several days. They arrived about three in the morning, and yet were at the polls by noon.

Slumber Party
On 12th Birthday

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Bob Colwell invited several girls for overnight last weekend to help her daughter Margaret Ann celebrate her 12th birthday. Invited were, Elaine Jones, Klamath Falls; Janice Hazelton, Dairy; and Ruth Fiescher, Langell Valley.

—huge piles of red cinders—and an ever-widening vista thru the tall trees is a fascinating thing to watch each week—a smooth roadbed is rapidly stretching thru the countryside where for a time power shovels had unearthed tons of big rocks apparently flung there by giants—a mass of Nature—seemingly impossible to clean up—then next week—all serene and a level stretch of road to lure the tourists.

JAMES SCOTT—they named him—born to James and Marie Coon—a bouncing boy 7 lbs 9 oz—in Klamath Valley Hosp 4:30 a.m., yesterday—Nov. 14—James Scott has a sister Michele (Shelley) waiting for him to join her at the Coon residence on Rogers St.—Proud papa was busy yesterday passing cigars AND candy!

FRIENDS OF—Mrs. Carl Stein-seller are happy to hear that she is doing nicely in Klamath Valley Hosp—where she recently underwent major surgery.

SHE'S HAPPY—and proud of the response from KP people who thru Ruth King's "It's a Woman's World" dept and a short news item elsewhere in the H&N—found out what she and her daughter were doing for Korean children—Mrs. Gerald C. Gwyn and dir. Joy Ovard (Mrs. Harvey) have been sending packages to a group of orphans "adopted" by the 2nd Division with which son and brother SFC Graydon Gwyn is stationed—clothing—toys—and anything that might be of use they have sorted through and mailed (at their own expense) but now after stories appeared donations have been generously coming in from KP and surrounding territory in amazing quantities—including money for postage—and Mrs. G. and Joy want their gratitude publicly expressed.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT—will be demonstrated by the local Soroptimist Club through Care packages sent abroad—and also those sent to a Soroptimist Club in England.

Auxiliary 84
American Legion

MALIN—The November meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary 84 was cancelled because moving pictures of the Girls Scouts Activities in the county were shown on that date.

A short business meeting was held at Lorena Bauer's home, Monday afternoon Nov. 10. Cookies were packed and mailed to boys in service from the Malin community.

A report was made by District President, Elhel Hamilton on the secretary and president. Thereafter, in Portland in October, Elhel accompanied by Bess McCulley, also attended a meeting of the Lakeview Unit.

All members are to bring gifts to the December meeting for the Veterans' Hospital, Portland. Price tags are to be left on these gifts.

A pollock dinner and Christmas party was planned for Dec. 3, also a gift exchange for members and their families.

Ghosts and goblins came in on broomsticks but they were very orderly.

Most of the visitors were inexperienced in the way of hoodlums and merely gathered treats, stuffing them into their bags and vanishing into the darkness, calling back expressions of gratitude.

Not one case of tricking was reported and it is the general opinion that the new generation is well behaved.

Billy Nelson, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nelson, will not be tempted by green walnuts next time his mother sends him on an errand.

He had won the confidence of his mother by reliable service in walking three blocks to the grocery and returning without crossing the busy highway. Last Saturday, however, his bright eyes saw some walnuts under a tree and Billy, laying all caution aside, ran across the street directly in front of a car carrying California tourists. The child was hit by the car bumper and rolled for a distance of eight feet on the pavement, but due to the slow speed of the car, escaped with only street burns and a large bump on his head.

Mrs. David Green was returned to her home here Saturday by the Lakeview hospital where she had been a patient awaiting surgery. The attending physician wants her to gain additional strength before the operation.

A 33 x 28-foot addition has been added to the west end of the state highway maintenance building. Water from a well drilled last summer has been piped into the building and lavatory and shower facilities added. The addition provides storage space and improves the appearance of the property.

Mrs. Mary Campbell, confined in Lakeview hospital the past six weeks with a broken hip suffered in a fall at her home, is improving and has been graduated to a wheel chair. Her husband, Charles Campbell, passed away a few hours after her accident following a heart attack.

Donald Sims, a prominent young rancher of the Valley Falls community, was elected Worthy Master of the Valley Falls Grange at their regular meeting Saturday evening Nov. 1.

This is the second year of office for Sims and also the second Worthy Master to hold the office the first being Pat Passage who held the office for three years.

The Grange, which was organized four years ago and has a membership of 163 has erected a new hall and paid for it in this time.

A Hobo party was held Saturday evening. All members turned out in their tattered clothing. Drug-store, lawyer, former mayor, storekeeper, government employee, state employees, woodsmen and ranchers were all conspicuous with mismatched shoes, patches and ragged clothing.

Square dancing and a supper of muligan stew, hot rolls, pie and coffee were much enjoyed.

Robert Cutler, a highway employee, has returned to work after an absence of two weeks due to a heart attack which occurred while hunting on Round Pass.

Clyde Bramlette has been pronounced well by his Portland physician. Two years ago he was found to be suffering from polycythemia rubra, a disease causing an over production of red corpuscles.

The disease is rare and causes paralysis and blindness. Research regarding it is being carried on by the University of Oregon medical school. Although normal now, Bramlette will be checked at regular intervals.

Games were played and prizes were awarded to Stanley Compton and Roxie Matthews.

Birthday cake and a large variety of party food was served to the small guests.

Guests included: Roger and Sharon Finney, Stanley, Roger and Richie Compton, Rodney and Keith Clinton, Roxie, Patty and Jimmy Mathews and Donnie Joe Hartman.

Mothers present were: Mrs. Cecil Finney, Mrs. Lundy Clinton, Mrs. Ed Hartman and Mrs. S. Compton. Mrs. Chet Greenwell assisted Mrs. Jones.

Chemult

By VIRGINIA TAYLOR

A hilarious Halloween party was held October 31 at the Civic Club. Apple bobbing, and games especially for the small fry were played. The community was proud of the youngsters for not misbehaving any business houses or homes. A few trick-or-treaters were around but all seemed amply supplied with goodies.

Mrs. Freddie Fine has returned to Eugene after spending the summer employed at the Chemult Motel. She will return in the spring.

Mrs. Beanie Rice of Bend is spending several weeks in Chemult at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Masten.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jessup spent the weekend in Klamath Falls with the Jack Ballentines.

The latest "Midstate Coop" bills were quite welcome to the many consumers in this area. The stringing of the wire is progressing and if the snow holds off in the area it may dispense with the standby plant here in Chemult.

Hunting pheasants in Vale area the opening day were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jessup, Verdon Russell of Bend, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor, formerly of Chemult, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Taylor. Myrtle and Frank Nash were stopping in Payette but hunted in the Vale area.

The November meeting of the Gilchrist Community Garden Club will be held Nov. 19, 7:30 p.m. Chairman for the evening will be Mrs. Ray Darnell, of Chemult. Hosts and hostesses will be Mrs. R. D. Caswell, Mrs. J. P. Applewhite and Mrs. Frank R. Gilchrist. The program will be on table arrangements.

George Epperson spent several days at his ranch on the Rogue River on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Mayfield returned after an eight day vacation. They visited several of the high spots in Reno.

Gilchrist School held its annual school carnival in the school gym the evening of Nov. 7. The grade school featured a country store. Concessions were operated by junior high and high school students.

Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Brader motored to Portland over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brader who were departing for the East.

Mrs. D. Brown, Oakland, Calif., recently purchased lots 3 and 4 of the Beaver Marsh townsite from Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bellavance.

The Cascade District of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs held its fall meeting Friday, Nov. 7, in Redmond.

Mrs. Mabel Green of Portland managed the "97" Cafe while her sister and brother-in-law vacationed.

G. C. Palmer and Frank Nash are elk hunting.

Visitors at the Palmer home recently have been Mr. and Mrs. Van Deryenter of Honeydew, Calif., and Mrs. Bertha Conventon, Redlands, Calif., a cousin of Mrs. Nelie Palmer.

Ralph Watson, accompanied by his little dog, Patsy, has returned from an extended vacation trip through Oregon, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas and Nevada. He also spent several days in Mexico.

Seventy-eight persons cast their ballots Nov. 4 at the local precinct, one of the largest turnout ever seen at the local school on election day. Election board members were Mrs. Sophie Long, judge; Mrs. Virginia Jessup, Mrs. Irene McKee and Mrs. Josephine Galbreath.

Gar Leyva, employed as a crop duster for Farmair, at Lexington, Ore., recently notified his sister he would land at the nearby airport. Grant Damon flew back to Lexington with him in his Piper Cub.

The Chemult Civic Improvement Club meeting for November was held at the clubhouse Wednesday evening. A shower for the clubhouse was the feature of the evening and many useful articles were donated by the members. Mrs. George Bourne and Mrs. V. I. Brader served refreshments to the group.
