

KLAMATH SADDLE CLUB SILVER TEA AND STYLE SHOW AT WILLARD HOTEL

S o
c i e t
y

THE CENTERPIECE . . . at each table featured a miniature iron lung, as shown in picture. From the left, Mrs. Robert Mest, Pat Erlandson, model, and Mrs. John O'Neil.

MODELS . . . who expertly displayed various items of apparel from ski clothes to negligees, were (l to r) Helen Perry, Wilma Rice, Doris Cilk and Beverly Negrevski, shown here in "after-five" costumes.

SERVED BY . . . Mrs. W. D. Miller at the Saddle Club Silver Benefit Tea, is Florence Wamstad, center; to her left, Nancy Warren and at her right, Nancy Drew.

SURROUNDED BY . . . models wearing dresses from the Town Shop . . . Mrs. A. V. McVey, seated. To her left is Joanna Palmer; to the right, Marguriete Bradley and Georgia Lane, who is pouring.

MRS. ROY RUGE . . . president of the Klamath Saddle Club, left; Mrs. Keith Moon, commentator for the style show; and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns, who poured during the tea hour. Given by the Saddle Club to augment the Adler Iron Lung Fund with the purchase price of a mechanical respirator as the goal; they went over the top with enough extra to pay the freight to Klamath Falls.
All Photos by Kettler

MOTHER AND DAUGHTERS . . . Mrs. Andy Anderson, center, Mrs. Don Kirkpatrick, left; and her sister June Anderson, far right.

AN IRON LUNG . . . for the Klamath Basin . . . was made possible last Saturday when local women enthusiastically attended the Klamath Saddle Club's silver benefit tea and style show in the Willard Hotel Banquet Room. Modeling costumes from the Town Shop with smooth commentary by Mrs. Keith Moon . . . were: Barbara Johnson, Beth Chase, Helen Perry, Nancy Drew, Marguriete Bradley, Ann Watters, Doris Cilk, Georgia Lane, Lisa McDonald, Wilma Rice, Beverly Negrevski, Pat Erlandson, Joan Palmer, Florence Wamstad and Cecelia and Katherine Kann.