Sen. Supports Speedup Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today he would support any Republican move to "reasonably shorten" the 80-day period that now must elapse between election and inauguration of a new president.

Fulbright said it takes too long for an outgoing president to hand over the reins to a new one.

The Arkansas Democrat told reporters that uncertainties confronting the country during the election of Dwight D. Eisenhower on Nov. 4 and his inauguration as president next Jan. 20 show the need for a change in the Constitution to shorten the time.

He also reiterated that he favors a moratorium on any political attacks on President-elect Eisenhower.

"I think the Democrats ought to give him a chance to show what he can do," he said.

Fulbright is the man who said in 1946, when the Republicans won control of Congress, that President Truman should resign.

Regarding the inauguration time lag, he said:

"You need a little time to effect the transfer of administrations, and certainly not less than 30 days. Even shortening the interval to the first of the year would be better."

The transition once extended from the election until March 4 of the following year. A constitutional amendment fixing the Jan. 20 inauguration day became effective in 1933.

Highlights At KUHS

By HAROLD MCKAY

Yesterday the seniors voted upon the girl from the class of '53 who they thought should get the annual Daughters of the American Revolution award at commencement.

The DAR award is for the girl who shows the most patriotism. The seniors wrote in the name of the girl they thought should win the award and get a try at the $100 savings bond given to some girl in the state. The faculty will select the girl from the top three in the voting.

The members of the class of '53 voted for the girls on the basis of these qualities: (1) Dependability, which includes truthfulness, loyalty, and punctuality; (2) Service, including cooperation, courtesy and consideration of others; (3) Leadership, meaning personality, self-control, and ability to assume responsibility; and (4) Patriotism, unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation.

Greg Schulze won the honor of most improved player on the Pelican grid squad. Greg will have his name engraved on the plaque (which has not arrived as yet) and in addition he will receive a certificate stating that he got his name on the plaque. Congratulations Greg.

'Teddy' Bares Movie Star; Censors Reported Unruffled

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 HOLLYWOOD — (NEA)—Exclusively Yours: Wipe the fog off your horn-rimmed glasses, men—Hollywood designer Jean Louis has come up with a few inches of underwear that a movie queen can wear without getting quipped down by the censors.

It's the "Teddy," a feminine unmentionable that raised grandpa's blood pressure back in the good old days. Jean has now brought it up to date as "a shorter, strapless, one-piece garment" for Jane Wyman to favor around in as the star of "Love Story."

"These are panties and a bra all together and 'ugging we body," Jean said. "For so long, we can't show glamorous underwear on the screen. Now we get away with it. There are more black lace than lingerie and ze censors can not touch these."

A court battle is looming between Joan Fontaine and her ex-husband, William Dozier, over the custody of their daughter, Joan, just wed to Collier Young, will seek to cancel a temporary out-of-court agreement, made between Dozier, and herself that gave Dozier custody rights... Eddie Fisher is crooning love songs to Wanda Hendrix. Three dates in four days.

Steve Cochran is joining Pat Wynmore and Errol Flynn in Jamaica. So a snap of the finger to those who raised eyebrows when Steve was escorted to parties by the feuded Frederic March and Adolphe Menjou during filming of "The Man On The Tightrope" in Germany is the talk of cast members back in Hollywood... The manuscript of "Lillian Hellman's Life Story," "I'll Cry Tomorrow," written by Mike Connolly, is in the hands of a N. Y. publisher... David Brian and Adrian Booth are scoffing at rumor No. 1394 that they've decided to call it quits on the marriage pact.

Hollywood's title of "Mr. Hypochondriac." Other day Cameraing George Folsey kidded Oscar on "Band Wagon" set: "You know, I'm afraid to say hello to you in the morning for fear you'll break your arm answering me."

Sterling Hayden's contract with U-I says that his star billing in "Vermillion O'Toole" must equal Ann Sheridan's in type... All that's left to suggest Margaret Truman's daddy in the film version of "Call Me Madam" is a shot of a pair of hands playing "The Missouri Waltz"... Stars with European accents are groaning—Producer Frank Ross has instructed Fox's casting department to cold-shoulder heavy-accented thespians for roles in "The Robe."

Kaiser Denies Bad Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kaiser-Frazer Corp. denies accusations by Sen. Bridges (R-MI) that its aircraft operation at Willow Run, Mich., was inefficient and that the Air Force was paying too much for Kaiser-built planes.

In an open letter to Bridges, President Edgar F. Kaiser of the corporation said yesterday the company "is ready and willing to submit any and all facts with regard to our production performance on the defense program."

Bridges had suggested a Senate investigation into what he said was an Air Force contract to pay K-F $1,200,000 to build each of 150 cargo planes like those built by another firm had built for $280,000 each.

Kaiser accused Bridges of making a "comparison of costs that are not in any respect comparable." Kaiser said he believes it "imperative" that the "correct facts" be presented before Congress.

Here's why Fred Astaire is ducking television. He told me: "I don't feel I have to be in every medium that happens to drop out of the sky. Besides, TV bleeds the actor to death. I'm shocked at what is happening to some favorites of mine on television."

Michael Wilding has it written in black and white in his MGM contract that he has the right to pass on all still photos—posed or candid. Even wife Liz Taylor doesn't have that privilege.

Johnnie Ray is groaning over the singing-acting screen test he made for Fox. "I didn't like it," the Weeper told me. "I guess I'm too critical of myself." Johnnie admits to a hankering to star in re-makes of some of Henry Fonda's old flickers.

A movie producer told band-leader Lester Lanin that since he's married he wakes up every morning with a headache—his wife.

U-I has taken "Song of Norway" off the for-sale list and is dusting it off or Ann Blyth and Mettenor Brian Sullivan... Lucille Ball checks off TV Nov. 14 to keep her stork date, and returns early to mid-March. "I Love Lucy" will roll merrily along thanks to re-takes and new shows already on film.

Joan Blondell's new heartbeat is Nicky Darvas of the Darvas and Julia dance team... A lion roamed around loose at a circus as a publicity gag but it was a let-down, claims Alan Wilson, after some of the wolves that frequent the night spot.

Shades of his famous papa: John Barrymore, Jr.'s new apartment will be decorated all in black and white. Not even a chartruse ashtray.

Stanley Kramer is plotting a sequel to "My Six Convicts" (from material that Donald Wyllis didn't include in his book about a prison psychologist.
