

Eisenhower, Truman May Issue Statement on American Unity

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders expect President-elect Eisenhower and President Truman to agree at their conference here tomorrow on a statement telling the world America is united in its quest for peace.

The first meeting in months of Truman and the man who will succeed him brings together two historic figures who once worked as a team on foreign problems but who used harsh words to describe each other's views during the presidential campaign.

For this reason, some leaders in Congress who didn't want to be quoted said they believe a joint statement is clearly needed to reassure the free world there is no deep-seated division over U. S. foreign policies.

Eisenhower promised during the campaign to make Democrats

"real partners" in working out basic foreign policies and tomorrow's meeting—designed to aid an orderly transition from the Democratic to the Republican regime—will be regarded by some as the first test of his intentions.

The President-elect already has said he will not share in nor assume responsibility for any administration decisions before he is formally inaugurated Jan. 20.

For this reason, few expect him to do more than listen to a briefing on the international and domestic situation.

Officials familiar with plans for the meetings said Truman's primary purpose in suggesting them was to make certain Eisenhower is informed of major world problems, and how the present administration intends to deal with them.

These officials believe the sessions will cover several other points of importance:

1. Eisenhower probably will be given a full-in on hydrogen bomb progress. The Atomic Energy Commission late yesterday said H-bomb "research" was included in a new weapons test program at Eniwetok Atoll, but its carefully phrased announcement did not say such a bomb had been exploded.
2. Truman may urge Eisenhower to name top cabinet members dealing with foreign and security problems—State, Defense and Treasury—within two weeks and get them to work with present officials to "learn the ropes."
3. The administration is expected to tell Eisenhower and his advisers that a statement by him on the Korean situation, endorsing the present policy of insisting on voluntary repatriation of prisoners of war in any armistice agreement, would greatly strengthen current dealings at the U.N. General Assembly.

4. Eisenhower will be given a chance to express his views on foreign policy and asked for comments on administration intentions as they are explained to him. Highly placed officials said Truman will take Eisenhower's views into consideration in making decisions between now and Jan. 20.

According to present plans, Truman and Eisenhower will hold two White House meetings. They will meet first—and briefly—in private. From the private session they plan to go immediately to the Cabinet Room and join a second and larger session with their advisers.

Washington, meanwhile, was planning a rousing welcome for Eisenhower, due here about 1:30 p.m. by plane from Augusta, Ga.

Republicans scheduled a mammoth parade from Lincoln Memorial down Constitution Avenue past the Washington Monument, then back out Pennsylvania Avenue to the White House.

The President has ordered government agencies to let workers off so they may participate in the reception.

Millions over the nation will see the historic event by television. Full scale coverage is planned by all four networks, which have set up a pool arrangement designed to picture every phase from the plane's landing at National Airport to the climactic arrival at the White House.

Navy Officer Goes on Spree

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—A 38-year-old Navy ensign, charged with embezzling $38,000 of his ship's funds, was quoted by FBI agents yesterday as saying he squandered all but about $2,600 on women, liquor, foreign-made autos and travel.

FBI Agent Joseph Santolana Jr. said George McClelland Snyder, who vanished from a U. S. destroyer at Portsmouth, Va., about Oct. 17, told of traveling to Florida, Louisiana, Texas and the West Coast. He traveled by airlines or in the two foreign-made cars he bought.

Snyder, disbursing officer on the destroyer, was arrested yesterday at a swanky resort hotel at Newport Beach, Calif.

Santolana said Snyder's women included Patricia Johnson, 22, a 4-foot showgirl who was questioned at San Antonio, Tex., Thursday about $2,100 in new currency she had with her.

The FBI confiscated the money and released her after she said it was given to her during a platonic friendship with a veteran she met at Miami.

The ensign was to be arraigned today.
