Taber Plans Budget Cut

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) - The new chairman of the House Appropriations Committee hopes for a cut of at least 15 billion dollars in the budget President Truman is reportedly ready to present to Congress in January.
 Commenting on a report that the Truman budget will call for an $8-billion-dollar outlay, Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.) declared:
 "Spending can be held to 70 billion dollars."
 That means, he said, that Congress will have to use the axe on every federal activity, including defense and foreign aid spending.
 Spending figures for the present year that started last July 1, Taber said, indicate that the outgoing Congress appropriated too much for both foreign aid and military programs.
 Taber predicted that President-elect Eisenhower will send Congress a revised budget after he takes the oath of office late in January. The budget due early this month will be transmitted to Congress by President Truman.
 Taber said he doesn't know how much, if any, Eisenhower will be able to whack from the Truman budget.
 Taber said the House Appropriations Committee necessarily will get off to a slow start in considering the appropriations bills for the new year. Since Republicans won't take over control of the House until Jan. 3, they can't organize the appropriations committee until then.
 Republicans gain 10 seats on that important committee, going from 20 to 30 members, while the Democrats, as a minority, will have 20 seats.
 Taber said he has no plan to return to the once-tried system of handling all appropriation bills in a single measure.

Millionaire Outlives Cash In Series of 'Last Flings'

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) - A million dollars in the bank—and time and the inclination to spend it.
 That was the happy prospect that confronted Thomas Linton McCullough when he retired at 73.
 So McCullough, a large cotton plantation owner, set out on one last glorious fling. Not a thing in the world to worry about. Life on a lavish scale with big-time money flowing like wind through his fingers to back up the jaunt!
 All the money he wanted or needed (so he thought) for the last gleaming whirl.
 When he reached 80, he went off for another "last fling," this time by plane to Mexico and South America. It lasted three long good years.
 When he got back to the United States, still time on his hands and money stacked in the bank for another "last fling." And another. And still another.
 Each time McCullough expected death to tap him on the shoulder, but each time when he tickled death along its bony rib, as the phrase goes, death stepped aside and left time for yet another last fling. And another one after that.
 Then one day the startling realization for McCullough that he had time but no money left.
 Sixteen months ago the last thin trickle of the million dollar fortune had slipped away, and Mc-

At long last, of course, death had its day.
 When McCullough died Monday he was 87. To the very end he said he had no regrets about the way he had spent his fortune.
 The going was great while it lasted!
