Gilchrist High News

By DICK AENIS
Gilchrist students attending the student council meeting at Klamath Falls Wednesday were Jim Childre, Gilchrist student body president, Ken Freeman, vice president, Judy Wyse, secretary, and Sharon Krueger, treasurer. The school carnival, held in the Gilchrist High school gym Friday night, proved to be a great financial success, which can be accredited to the concerted efforts of all the townspeople's support was greatly appreciated. Play practices are now progressing quite satisfactorily. A change in cast is being undertaken because of the loss of a student, Aileen Decia, who is moving to the San Francisco area. Miss Decia's part of Poodles will be taken over by Judy Beam. Pat Hickey now has the part of a Lady Buffalo.

The basketball squad is preparing for the four-game basketball tournament to be held in Culver, Dec. 5. The high school handbooks, being published by the student body, will begin circulation soon. Included will be high school rules, regulations and other G.H.S. data. Students are looking forward to Friday afternoon when Mr. Hammer of the Oregon Game Commission will present a movie and talk on conservation of wildlife. Education week was observed here with open house for parents and patrons of the school on Friday, Nov. 14. Blackout curtains have been installed in the high school gym and are proving to be indispensable. The PTA and County School District can be thanked for this project.

A number of students and teachers will participate in "The Star of Bethlehem," a cantata to be sung at the Gilchrist Methodist Church, the evening of Dec. 14. The cantata will be directed by Mrs. J. B. Hamilton; Judith Wyse will accompany the group at the Hammond organ.

General Meeting — W.S.C.S. of First Methodist Church, Thursday, Nov. 20. Executive board meets at 11 a.m. Back lunch at 12 noon. Prayer circle, 1:15 p.m. General meeting, 1:30. Bring articles for bazaar.

Highlights At KUHS

Although the Pelicans did not get to the state football playoffs from district they did place more players on the Southern Oregon all-star team than the other four big schools combined. The Pelicans placed seven men on the first team, one on the second team, and two Pels received honorable mention. Calvin Gilmore and Jim Dougherty led the voting with 16 first team votes apiece, but no player backfield men. George Hanson, end, was the only Pelican on the second team from Southern Oregon; and Doug Campbell and Dick Lundsten, both linemen, received honorable mention. The players were chosen by the coaches, sportswriters, and sportscasters of the four large schools in Southern Oregon, Klamath Falls, Grants, Pais, Medford and Ashland. Congratulations boys, you played good football and you deserve the recognition you received.
