Bruins Hold Skippy Edge in Crucial Mix

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES — On the surface, things were normal Friday in this baffle-town on the Pacific.
There was business as usual, the traffic was as bad as ever and the citizens were delighted with the temporary smogless heavens.
But underneath, there was an air of expectancy, impatience and pent up excitement. For Saturday it's the Bruins and the Trojans.
The Bruins, of course, are UCLA, the Trojans represent the University of Southern California, and their football forces meet head on in Memorial Coliseum with much at stake.
The big prize for the winner will be the chance to play in the Rose Bowl against the Big Ten representative New Year's Day.
The kickoff will be at 2 P.M. and the weather prospects are

Van Doren Won't Start

LOS ANGELES — Captain Bob Van Doren of Southern California's defensive platoon will not start against UCLA in Saturday's "big game," Trojan Coach Jess Hill said Friday.
Van Doren suffered a slight concussion in last week's game against Washington and has been bothered by headaches all week.
Hill said that Mario Dare, 213-pound sophomore, will start in Van Doren's right tackle spot.
"As far as I am concerned, it is still an even ball game," Hill told newsmen.
fair, although the weather bureau says there is a chance for light showers late Saturday.
Jamming the Coliseum will be a crowd of over 100,000, if all the customers show up. The game officially is a sellout, at $5 a seat.
Millions more will see the game on television throughout the nation. The NCAA TV committee, in drawing up its national program for 1952, picked this one as "The Game of the Week" over the National Broadcasting System. The TV show goes on at 1:45 p. m.
Led by rival halfback stars, Paul Cameron for UCLA and Jimmy Sears for SC, the payoff game marks the climax of a wonderful season for Los Angeles fans.

Saturday Gridfare Should Pick Rose Bowl Opponents

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
NEW YORK — The 1952 college football season, gaining momentum with each succeeding week, reaches a fervent pitch tomorrow as top teams collide in "do or die" efforts and "traditional" affairs.
Most of the attention will evolve around those still in contention for a bid to the granddaddy of all post-season classics — the Rose Bowl. After Saturday the situation in both the Pacific Coast and the Big 10 Conference races should be clarified considerably.
The eyes of the nation will be centered on Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum. There a pair of undefeated grid titans, UCLA and Southern California, clash head-on in a game that will determine the far western representative in the Rose Bowl.
More than 100,000 spectators will jam the Coliseum to witness the fray while fans around the country also will be able to view the contest from their TV sets starting at 4:45 p.m., EST.

This is the national television game of the week and for the third Saturday in a row the stadium-bred will be blessed with a top-ranking game.
UCLA, rated third in the AP poll, and Southern California, the country's fourth-ranking team, both boast identical 8-0 records. The game appears to be a toss-up with Southern California's reserve strength giving the Trojans a very slight edge.
A low-scoring game is anticipated with the team that scores first rated a good chance of capturing the verdict and the Rose Bowl bid that goes with it.
Three key contests are on the agenda in the Big 10 race.
Michigan and Wisconsin are tied for the Western Conference lead with identical 4-1 records. Purdue and Minnesota share second place at 3-1.

Sala Blames Loss To Dressing-Room Fumes

SAN FRANCISCO — Lee Sala, knocked out in the second round by Carl (Bobo) Olson, declared Friday he was made "dozy" by gas fumes in his dressing room before Thursday night's topflight middleweight bout.
Sala's manager, Bunny Buntag, telephoned the Associated Press that he would lodge a protest with both the California Boxing Managers Association and the parent International Boxing Guild.
"I definitely say my fighter was made dozy by gas fumes," Buntag declared.

PORTLAND — With dry weather a strong possibility both Oregon and Oregon State apparently will stress passing in an attempt to win the traditional football game between the schools here Saturday.
Coach Kip Taylor of Oregon State flipped his hand Thursday by announcing he had sculled the question of whether to start Kaye Booth or Chuck Brackett, his two remaining passers.
Taylor's announced decision is to start both of them. Booth at quarterback, replacing the injured Jim Withrow, and Brackett at right

Wisconsin Smell Roses

MADISON, Wis. — The campus where the "wait 'til next year" tune probably originated was rocking Friday to an unaccustomed rhythm.
Wisconsin students and fans, shrugging off 40 years of Big 10 football frustrations, are booming for the Rose Bowl with a heavy beat.
All that's needed is a windup win Saturday over Minnesota to assure at least a share of the Western Conference championship and an almost certain bid to the post-season tilt at Pasadena.

Demarco On Comeback Run

NEW YORK — At the age of 23, it's pretty early to be making a comeback, but Paddy Demarco must bounce back from two upset losses Friday night against Henry Davis to regain his place in the lightweight division.
Demarco, a rough laddie with the finesse of a billygoat, dropped his last two starts to Lil' Arthur King and Orlando Zulueta in two major surprises. He can't afford to lose another if he hopes to get a shot at lightweight champ Jimmy Carter.

Jones Wins Over Dunn

EDMONTON, Alta. — Harold (Baby Face) Jones, Detroit southpaw, dethroned George Dunn of Edmonton in a 10-round lightweight boxing match here Thursday night.
Jones weighed 137, Dunn 134.
