Ground Observer Corps Holds Meeting at Malin

By MRS. JOE HALOUSEK
MALIN — A Rally meeting for members of Malin's Ground Observer Corps, was held at the Malin Fire Hall Tuesday evening, Nov. 18.

Sgt. John H. Bridges, Portland, representing the Air Defense Command, gave the group a "pep talk" as Wallace Reed, Klamath County's GOC Coordinator, so aptly called it when introducing the Sergeant.

Sgt. Bridges congratulated the Malin group for organizing and maintaining such a fine post and thanked them for the service they are giving to their country. He added that Civilian Ground Observation is still vitally essential and that there should be no let up. In his experience, he said, of serving at both the Filter Center and Radar Center he has seen it proven that Civilian Sky Watch has been most useful in tracing flights of aircraft.

Wallace Reed spoke briefly to the group and said that he hoped soon to have a direct telephone line to GOC Posts, so as to make communication more convenient. Elton Grogg, who has taken over the duties of GOC Commander for Malin was introduced and welcomed. He replaces Ivan Ottoman who has resigned.

The pictures, which were to have been shown at this meeting, were not available but Mr. Reed promised the members that they will be shown in Malin soon.

GOC silver wings, awarded to those who have given thirty six hours of their time to sky watching, were awarded to: Mrs. Betty Henzel, Maxine Paris, Jerry Raymus Jr., Bens McCuller, Willie Rajanus, Terry Steward, Delores Stew-

George Shuman, Mrs. Thelma Clugston, Sandra Fields, Mrs. Lena Parker, Mrs. Elizabeth Dalton, Mariena Vacknitz, Rose Havlina, Carol Havlina, Mrs. Arlie Mae Johnson, Mrs. Jean Freeman, Mrs. Ruth McVay, Mrs. Mary Alice Stastny, Mrs. Elsie Mock and Mrs.

Schools See State Film

The film "Oregon and its Natural Resources" was presented to the Klamath Falls school system by the Klamath Falls Oil Corporation at yesterday's meeting of the Klamath Falls Kiwanis Club.

Arnold L. Espey, representative of the oil company from Medford, presented the film to School Supt. Arnold Grallup who said it would be added to the film library of the audio-visual education department for use not only by schools but also by outside groups.

Running time for the film is 30 minutes. It depicts Oregon under survey by a legendary pioneer who returns each year from the Lewis and Clark Expedition to see how the Oregon Trail is faring. The survey covers everything from farming to mining to lumbering and fishing, and left many Kiwanians a little surprised at what Oregon has to offer.

Tom O'Harra, Richfield distributor for this area and new member of the Klamath Kiwanis Club, was chairman of the day.

Supreme Court refused for a second time to rehear the case of the husband and wife prisoners.
