

Klamath Yacht Club
Pirate Dance... November 1952

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

ON THE GANGWAY . . . To the left of the life preserver . . . Mrs. Ray Oldenburg and Bob Sproat. Upper right, Dr. Richard Currin, and below him, Mrs. James Rogers talks with Elbert Stiles. Mr. and Mrs. Van Mollison in front.

BIG PIRATE . . . decorating wall . . . with committee members: From the left, Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., Bert Schmidt, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel and her husband "Barney," Mrs. Schmidt and Wilson Wiley Jr.

PRIZE WINNERS . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kandra, and Mr. and Mrs. Rex High in the straw and leaves . . . they represented "Potted Palms." Dr. Oldenburg in shawl; Howard Parnell, next to him as a native gal; and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wirth, each appear to be a half of last year's treasure hunt map. In front, Mrs. Bob Sproat, a glittering mermaid; and the hottentot or cannibal to her right is Mrs. Howard Parnell.

NOTHING SINISTER . . . about the smiles from pirates Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., who engineered the successful party; shown with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hillerich . . . he was a featured entertainer.

IF THEY'RE . . . walking the gangplank . . . it's fun. Under the curls, grass and hottentot costumes are, from the left, Bob Cooper, Howard Parnell, Lloyd Prock, Mrs. Prock, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Parnell.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD DERBY . . . watch the antics from the upper deck.

"JOLLY ROGERS" . . . they fly, and jolly they are with a "Rogrette" . . . Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Lewis Kandra, center; and Dr. Neil Black.

COULD BE . . . Lhasa's big sister . . . this Amazon Spanish pirates. Actually is Dr. Ray Oldenburg, who won first prize.

SUBTLE . . . were the costumes of Mr. and Mrs. William Ganong Jr. They were authentic (Pittsburgh) pirates.

SLAVE GIRLS . . . from India in native saris, are Mrs. Laurence Brown, left; and Mrs. Ray Oldenburg.

STUPENDOUS SENORITA . . . and "her" pirate partner . . . Laurence Brown . . . or "Captain Cry." He is also shown at the right wearing a kindly expression reserved for watching victims "walk the gangplank."

Photos by Floyd at Underwoods.