It Happened This Way in New Pine Creek

By IRVIN FARIS
The big annual Grange Bazaar was held Saturday evening, Nov. 22. Plans for the event were completed at the regular Grange meeting held in the Grange Hall last Thursday night. It will be another one of those Grange affairs you cannot well afford to miss according to those in charge.

There will be booths of various sorts, covering fancy work, a "sweet corner" full of home-made candies, fishing from the pond, cake walks, fortune telling and dancing to the merry tunes of "The Daisy Five" last to the "wet" hours.

Among other business matters taken care of at the meeting was the election of a new Grange officers—since Mrs. John Richardson was recently re-elected to the post, turned in her resignation, Mrs. Vera Mulkey was voted in to fill her place along with the new officers who will take over at the first meeting in January.

Installation of the new officers of all the Granges in the valley will take place at the Thomas Creek Grange Hall Nov. 29th. The West Side Grange will act as the installing team taking charge of the ceremony. A large turnout is anticipated for this occasion.

Local Grange members who attended Pomona Grange at Fort Rock Saturday were Fred Fisher, Lee Hansen and Louise Miller. There were 51 Grangers present at the all day meet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hall are the latest residents to have moved to NPK. They are living in one of the Starke houses having moved in Nov. 16th. Mr. Hall is hauling logs from the Willow Ranch Company log deck to the company's mill pond.

Joseph Thomas who fell and broke his right shoulder blade on a water hydrant a week ago last Monday is not doing too well, according to his wife. She said her husband, an elderly man, did not realize that his shoulder was broken for a few days before he was taken to the hospital and that swelling had hampered the setting of the bones. Complications seem to have set in which makes the healing process quite slow.

Somehow got to be her nickname in her home town of Paisley where she had lived for a number of years. She had been in poor health for a long time and the shock of an emergency operation proved too much for her frail body to withstand. She was the mother of Mrs. Jacky Fleming and is survived by her husband, Walter Witham, of Paisley; a daughter, Dora Witham, assistant superintendent of the Oregon State Normal College, and another daughter, Mrs. Terry Edwards, also of Paisley. A son preceded her in death in 1934.

Mrs. Dorothy Noble and her new baby daughter, Melody Fawn, were brought to the Fleming home from the hospital last Saturday, 1952 are doing fine. The baby's father, Charlie Noble is in the armed forces in Germany.

Frank Graham, Bob Hirt and son, Robert Jr., of Jasper and Eugene, respectively, arrived last Friday to enjoy some goose and duck shooting for the second time this season. Don Graham and his new bride Marilyn, accompanied by his in-laws, Mrs. Frank Graham, arrived late last Sunday evening to join the hunting party. All were guests at the Faris home Monday noon and enjoyed a wild duck dinner at the Earl Sanford home in the evening, jointly prepared by Mrs. Hazel Sanford and Mrs. Bona Faris. What a feed!

Clarence Lee, who does contract electricians work in San Jose, has enjoyed a week of good migratory bird shooting and will leave Wednesday for his home—happy and contented with his luck. He is a brother-in-law of Budge Mulkey.

Jack Means and Richard Robert kept the gap between here and Klamath Falls up near Baxter for the purpose of shooting an elk. They returned last Thursday—no luck! Weather was too dry, Jack said and it telegraphed their approach to the big wary "brethren of the big horn family" so they could not get a shot. It was very difficult to climb the steep slopes without making any noise. When six inches of snow finally did come it stayed too misty and visibility was so poor that they could hear the elk occasionally but never could see them.

A lovely pink and blue shower was given for Mrs. Amy Cloud last Friday evening Nov. 14th. There were 19 present. Various catchy little games were played. Mrs. Cloud is the mother of two boys but this was the first shower she had ever been given and she thoroughly enjoyed all the wonderful gifts that were so generously given for the new arrival.

The hostesses, Mrs. Darlene Snider and Mrs. Bona Faris served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ashton left for San Francisco last Saturday to make in the necessary preparations, obtain visas, see about passports, etc., for their trip to South America. They are expected back Thursday.

Mrs. Ray McLaughlin has fallen victim to a peculiar ailment which has the physicians puzzled. It started with a slight paralysis of the tongue then traveled down her left arm and has affected her left leg. Her left arm takes the peculiarity of having the Saint Vitus dance but her doctor has finally decided it is a touch of rheumatic fever. Her many friends are hoping that she will soon out-ward the malady and be her old self again.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM F. NENDEL, whose recent marriage in Carson City, Nev., is of interest to their many friends here. Bride is the former Dixie M. Hulbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin H. Hulbert, 501 Market. Nendel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nendel, 216 East Main. The service was read at 12 noon by the Reverend Winfield Thom, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eden, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom. The newlyweds are both graduates of KUHS. The bride is with the First Federal Savings and Loan Company, and her husband is with the Palmerton Lumber Company. Several pre-nuptial showers have been given honoring the bride. They are now at home, 447 Market Street. —Photo by Evergreen
