Bing's Cafe is turning the Moose Ma's League into a one-team show.

The Cafe gals blanked Stone's Signal Service, 4-0, last night to take a six-game lead over that team and two others.

The Bings did it with an 835-860-821-2516 string that gave them both the high team game and series.

In addition, Sally Bennett, Bing's Cafe ace, added up 136, 178 and 222 scores for a 536 line, also best game and series.

Scotty Bray of Suburban Flower notched a 475 series with games of 153, 145 and 177, runner-up to Bennett.

Interstate Engineers is all alone atop the Transportation Bowling League after last night's activity at Lucky Lanes saw the leaders roll the high team series, 2581, and Al Depew's 191-182-206-579 line establish a new season high.

PMT's 938 was the best team game of the evening.

Glen Lewis of Bend-Portland and Lawrence Hipke of A&B Paint each notched a 225 game, the best single efforts of the evening. Horton Cadwell of PMT racked up a 522 series, second best to Depew's string.

Tom Milne of Pioneer keeps the season's average lead with a 176.

Tag Foes On Turkey Day Card

This week's wrestling switch — from the usual Wednesday night date to Thursday—is an appropriate one.

Following the policy of giving mat fans an outstanding Turkey Day card, Matchmaker Mack Lillard is showing three champions, two of whom will defend their titles.

The Japanese tag team — Mr. Sakata and Tor Yamato—defends the Pacific Northwest title against Tony Ross and Jack Terry.

Roger McKay, Pacific Coast junior heavyweight titlist, meets Cal Roberts of Vancouver, B.C., but the Salt Lake City lad's crown won't be at stake.

REMATCH

The tag team quarrel is a rematch of a recent riotous meeting between the two Nips and the Ross-Terry combine.

But last time—when Ross and Terry won by disqualification — the Japs refused to put up their title.

This time they will, but before signing made one stipulation, that the corner stools be removed. Yamato has a good reason for championing this request. The last time he ended up with a deep gash on his forehead when Ross waxed enthusiastic with the corner stool.

FIRST TIME

McKay, a classy performer who stripped Frankie Stojack of his title, will make his first appearance.

Roberts is a lad who can give the champ a busy evening.

Both bouts are scheduled for an hour's time or the best two of three falls.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Castleberry Drugs.

Wisconsin to Rose, Syracuse to Orange

NEW YORK (AP)—Wisconsin and Syracuse finally have struck it rich.

The Badgers from Wisconsin and the Orangemen from Upstate New York landed lucrative bowl bids yesterday to complete the lineup for college football's big postseason games on New Year's Day.

Wisconsin's "sweating-out" period was the first to end. The Badgers, Big Ten co-leaders, were chosen to face Southern California's unbeaten Trojans in the Rose Bowl.

Four hours later, Syracuse which has never played in a "big" bowl game, was selected as Alabama's opponent in the Orange Bowl. The Easterners drew the nod after Navy reluctantly turned down the plum.

Here's the major bowl picture, with the Southeastern Conference providing half the teams:

Rose Bowl — Southern California (9-0) vs. Wisconsin (6-2-1)

Sugar Bowl—Georgia Tech (10-0) vs. Mississippi (7-0-2)

Cotton Bowl — Texas (7-2) vs. Tennessee (7-1-1)

Orange Bowl — Alabama (8-2) vs. Syracuse (7-2)

Wisconsin and Purdue finished the season tied for the Big Ten championship with identical league records of 4-1-1. This left it up to the Big Ten athletic directors to pick Southern Cal's opponent.

The directors decided that Wisconsin was their best bet to give the Big Ten its sixth straight Rose Bowl triumph over the Pacific Coast Conference's best. Wisconsin's over-all record probably swayed the voters. The Badgers won six, lost two and tied one game while the Boilermakers of Purdue won four, lost three and deadlocked two games.

Big Ten Commissioner Tug Wilson disclosed Wisconsin was voted in by a clear majority and said:

"I strongly believe Wisconsin will make a fine showing in the Rose Bowl. But I will say that they face the toughest competition in the whole bowl series."

Badger Coach Ivy Williamson said:

UNDERDOG

"In Southern California, we'll be playing the best West Coast team since the bowl pact was started. We'll be the underdog and rightfully so."

In Los Angeles, Southern Cal Coach Jess Hill said:

"I am very happy with the choice of Wisconsin because from all I've heard they are certainly the strongest team in the Big Ten."

Navy turned down a bid to meet Alabama following a conference in Washington between Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, academy commandant, and Secretary of the Navy Kimball. A spokesman said that it was decided to turn the bid down because of the long-standing position adopted by the service academies not to participate in postseason games.

CLASS

Shortly thereafter Orange Bowl President Sam McCormick announced in Miami that Syracuse had agreed to take on Alabama. Syracuse, considered the class of the East, lost its opening game to Bolling Air Force Base and dropped another to top-ranked, unbeaten Michigan State.

The announcement took the city of Syracuse by storm. Students tied up downtown traffic and carried the team's coach, Floyd (Ben) Schwartzwalder on their shoulders.

"This whole thing is wonderful. I'll never forget this," Schwartzwalder gasped.

Badgers See Work Cut Out

CHICAGO (AP) — Wisconsin's Rose Bowl bound Badgers have some serious work ahead of them in preparing a defense to stop the powerful single wing attack of the Trojans of Southern California.

Wisconsin, Big Ten co-champion with Purdue, was chosen Monday as the conference representative to face Southern California, unbeaten Pacific Coast Conference champion, in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Jan. 1.

"Our defense is not as strong as we'd like it to be," Coach Ivy Williamson said of his Badgers. He added he wished he had last year's Wisconsin defense platoon, which he rated as one of the best in the nation.

He said he thought the Trojans "have an excellent team and we'll have to spend much of our time developing our defense to meet their single wing attack."

However, Williamson praised his offensive unit, which includes Alan (The Horse) Ameche, powerful fullback who holds the Big Ten rushing record; Jim Haluska at quarterback, Harland Carl and Jerry Witt at the halves.

The 205-pound Ameche was one of three Wisconsin players selected on the 1952 Associated Press all-Big Ten team. The others were Dave Suminski, 200-pound tackle, and Bob Kennedy, 200-pound guard.

Tulsa Gets Gator Bid

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Tulsa University will be signed Friday to meet the University of Florida in the eighth annual Gator Bowl New Year's Day football game here.

This was announced Tuesday by Joe Livingston, member of the selection committee, who said Gator bowl officials would be in Tulsa Friday night for the official signing. Livingston is sports editor of the Jacksonville Journal.

Sam Wolfson, chairman of the selection committee, was in Washington and not available for comment.

Tulsa has a season record of six victories, one defeat and one tie. It plays Texas Tech Nov. 29.

TATUM TAKES BLAME

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bowl-fever was the cause of it all, says Maryland Head Coach Jim Tatum in agreeing with its president that poor coaching brought defeat in the once-mighty Terrapins' last two games.

"I'm sorry that I could not be the leader that Dr. Byrd thought I should be," Tatum said at Jacksonville, Fla., Monday night.

That was his comment on University President H. C. (Curly) Byrd's criticism of Maryland football coaching "from November on." Tatum said Byrd was "exactly right" and continued:

"For three weeks our team has not been able to do anything right. I spent most of my energy being concerned whether or not we were going to a bowl.

"I didn't think Maryland should go to a bowl as it was against the conference rules . . . Yet I knew the boys wanted to go and as coach I didn't want to be the man to stop them. I'm afraid I spent all my mental energy and a great deal of my time being concerned with this instead of with Ole Miss and Alabama."

Until two weeks ago, the Terrapins' record sparkled—1952 Sugar Bowl champions, winners of 19 straight games and ranked number two in the nation behind Michigan State, the team it beat three years ago to vault into bigtime college football.

Then came Waterloo, a double dose: First it was Mississippi 21-14 and, last Saturday, Alabama 27-7.

Spartans High Again

Trojans In Second Position

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan State's undefeated football powerhouse, which closed out its season with a whopping 62-13 victory over Marquette Saturday, was voted the nation's No. 1 football team today for the seventh straight week.

Southern California and Georgia Tech, also unbeaten, were second and third in the Associated Press weekly poll of the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters. The 10th and final poll will be conducted next week.

CHANGE

The major change in the top 10 this week was the absence of once-teared Maryland, which dropped with a thud from eighth place to 15th after bowing, 27-7, to Alabama. And Alabama, 14th a week ago, jumped up into eighth.

Michigan State polled 88 first-place votes out of 149 cast to roll up 1,400 points.

Southern Cal moved up from fourth last week to second on the basis of its 14-12 victory over UCLA, which sends the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

CLOSE

Southern Cal had 24 first-place votes and 1,244 points. Georgia Tech was close behind with 1,223 points and 20 firsts.

Others in the top 10 were Oklahoma, fourth; UCLA, fifth; Mississippi, sixth; Notre Dame, seventh; Tennessee, ninth; Texas, 10th.

Points are based on 10 for first, nine for second, etc. down the line.

The leaders (first-place votes in parentheses):

1.	Michigan State (88)	1,400
2.	Southern Cal (24)	1,244
3.	Georgia Tech (20)	1,223
4.	Oklahoma (3)	793
5.	UCLA	749
6.	Mississippi (5)	551
7.	Notre Dame	544
8.	Alabama (1)	461
9.	Tennessee	294
10.	Texas	286
Second 10:
11.	Tulsa (8)	155
12.	Wisconsin	97
13.	Duke	67
14.	Purdue	64
15.	Maryland	58
16.	Syracuse	56
17.	Florida	36
18.	Princeton	28
19.	Kentucky	25
20.	Virginia	22

Title Shot Dangled Before Bivins, Ezz

CHICAGO (AP) — A crack at the heavyweight title was the prize dangled Tuesday before Jimmy Bivins and Ezzard Charles, who will meet in a 10-round heavyweight battle Wednesday night in the Chicago Stadium.

James D. Norris, International Boxing Club president, announced the victor will be matched in June with the winner of the heavyweight title fight between champion Rocky Marciano and Jersey Joe Walcott. The Marciano-Walcott fight is to be held in March at a site to be selected.

Charles is trying to become the first heavyweight champion to regain his title. Bivins, a spoiler of note who has defeated several champions during his long career, will be gunning for his first shot at the heavyweight title.
