

DIVE FOR THE OYSTER, dive for the pearl, do-si-do and swing that girl to the call of J. D. Stanley upper left. Stanley calls for beginners and intermediate dancers, the Circle 8-ers Square Dance Club that cuts a Pidgeon Wing each Thursday night at Petersen Hall, South Sixth. Upper right, Inside Arch and the Outside Under, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerr, arching while Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luscombe skip through. Lower left Mrs. James Fowler, fortune teller, checks the "money bumps" of Roy Plass, club president while he is supported by Mrs. Herb Brumble. Right middle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bramwell. Lower right, "Rube" (Dale) Cheyne and Midge Lyon, pipe smoking Mama from the Ozarks.

Circle 8-ers
Square Dance Club

