H'wood Stars Unchanged; Still Up To Homey Tricks

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD — (NEA)—Exclusively Yours: Pat Knight, Cornell Wilde's ex, got a glass of champagne splashed in her face by an actor at Denise Darcel's big Hollywood party. And Steve Cochran amused the guests by taking off his trousers and dancing around the room. Ah, wholesome, folksy Hollywood! The grapevine is going crazy with the rumor that Leslie Caron and George Healey are expecting the stork. Leslie denied the same buzz months ago, but can she now? . . . Angela Greene underwent major surgery, swearing her family to secrecy. She's recuperating at home. . . . Mario Lanza, in case anyone cares, is back on his reducing diet. The fight with MGM went right to Mario's too, 100 solid, flesh.

Marilyn Maxwell's wide-eyed over the name confusion with Marilyn Monroe.

"Really," the Maxwell Marilyn told me, "I can't understand it. I'm the one who wears clothes."

A powerful film producer is about to expose a brand new list of Communists in Hollywood — based on information gathered for him after a secret six-month probe.

Two more "live" TV stars are switching to celluloid. Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis will be financed by NBC-TV in a series of 30-minute telefilm to debut in the fall of '53.

Allied Artists climaxed the filming of "Flat Top" by chartering a Santa Fe train for a pre-star junket to San Diego for the world premiere aboard the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Princeton, just returned from Korea.

For once the picture turned out to be as good as the junket. Starring Sterling Hayden and Richard Carlson, it tells the story of a red-hot, aircraft carrier fighter squadron in the Pacific and is highlighted by the best sea and air combat films I have seen. The festivities in San Diego included a luncheon at the Coronado Hotel, dinner at the officers' club at the naval base and a sea-rescue demonstration by a Navy helicopter crew.

Comic Jan Murray, at the Hotel Sahara, says he finally discovered why they can't get TV in Las Vegas. The picture keeps fading.

Farley Granger, forbidden private publicity by SSM Goldwyn, now has his own present. A remake of "Street Scene" on Producer Lester Cowan's schedule. . . . Vera Ellen's drastic weight loss has her pals worried. . . . The Dorothy McGuire - John Swope bambino is due next May. . . . Fox has decided to keep the title of its June Haver-Dan Dailey co-starrer, "The Girl Next Door," in spite of the kicking around the movie industry its glamor stars as girl-next-door types. June, the studio insists, is a glamorous girl next door.

Ted Mossman, the tunesmith who writes popular songs based on the works of old masters—and admits it—is back in the musical spotlight via Eddie Fisher's hit recording of "Full Moon and Empty Arms," based on the third movement of Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto.

Five years ago Mossman jarred Tin Pan Alley like an earthquake

'Pushbutton' School Arrives
 KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Pushbutton learning has come to the University of Tennessee with experimental use of a meter to measure lecture reception in the College of Engineering.

It works like this: When a student fails to get a point in the professor's lecture, he pushes a button that works an electronic device.

A meter on the professor's desk shows him how many students are not understanding him. If the number is large, he can back up and try again.

Senator Turns Disc Jockey

ALTURAS — State Senator J. (Butch) Powers, Eagleville, Calif., president pro-tem of the California State Senate is a huge success in a new role as a disc jockey on Alturas radio station KCNO. Powers acted as disc jockey on a 3-hour request program Sunday afternoon which netted $2,558 to a fund to purchase an iron lung for the Modoc Medical Center in Alturas.

The mountain county has been stricken in the past month with more than 23 cases of polio. Most of the cases have been treated at Washoe County Hospital in Reno. The Reno hospital has had to use 18 iron lungs, borrowing them from as far away as Denver and Salt Lake City.

The drive for funds for the iron lung and physiotherapy equipment, scheduled to end Thanksgiving Eve had bogged down Saturday when KCNO's Mr. Philip N. Good and Pres. Mike Dow offered KCNO's facilities for the request program. Powers returning from Sacramento to his Eagleville ranch, stopped in and took over the job of regular Disc Jockey Dick Holt for the request session.

Between 3:30 and 4 p.m. Sunday the 10 top tunes of the week were played for contributors of $100. These contributors were the Manx Hotel, San Francisco, and Emerson Motors, Eugene, Ore. Long distance requests came from as far
