

Reaction Favorable To Ike Appointments

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Eisenhower's new appointments, like his earlier ones, have brought general applause from Republican leaders and even some Democrats and promises of co-operation from the Democratic incumbents.

The latest choices, announced yesterday, are GOP National Chairman Arthur Summerfield to be postmaster general in the Eisenhower cabinet and two women to renegade posts—Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston as head of the Federal Security Agency and Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest of Bountiful, Utah, as treasurer of the United States.

This makes a total of 11 appointments by Eisenhower to date seven to cabinet positions.

Besides Summerfield, the other cabinet officers—subject to almost certain Senate confirmation—are John Foster Dulles as secretary of state, Charles E. Wilson as secretary of defense, George M. Humphrey as secretary of the Treasury, Herbert Brownell as attorney general, Oregon's Gov. Douglas McKay as secretary of interior and Ezra Taft Benson as secretary of agriculture.

Also named are former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota as mutual security administrator and Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire as assistant to the President.

The two other cabinet members, the secretaries of commerce and labor, have yet to be designated.

Republican Sens. Watkins of Utah, Welker of Idaho and Hickenlooper of Iowa, as well as Democratic Rep. Albert Thomas of Texas, were among the first to comment on yesterday's appointments.

Watkins said Summerfield will "put some business management" in the Post Office Department. He said the choice of Mrs. Hobby and Mrs. Priest were well deserved honors of which the nation's women can be proud.

Hickenlooper praised all three appointments, and Thomas said Mrs. Hobby "will do the job just like it ought to be done."

Postmaster General Donaldson wired congratulations to Summerfield and offered co-operation in transferring authority. Summerfield said he hopes to meet with Donaldson soon.

John L. Thurston, acting federal security administrator in the absence of Administrator Oscar Ewing, telegraphed congratulations to Mrs. Hobby and proffered "any assistance."

Mamie Makes Appearance

NEW YORK (AP) — Like a society girl at her debut, Mamie Eisenhower was a bit breathless at her initial public appearance as the nation's next first lady.

"It's a wonderful occasion," said the wife of President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower yesterday at a gathering of the Women's Division of the United Service Organizations (USO) Defense Fund Drive at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

The 56-year-old Mrs. Eisenhower sat at the center of the flower-decked dais, chic in a grey suit, a little white cloth hat with a red velvet ribbon on top and bright red gloves.

Speakers kept paying compliments. Twice she stood to big applause.

Later she said: "I'm glad that I'm starting my public appearances in the interests of service-men."
